- * Ford (Chair)
- * Hurley (Co-Chair)

Emanuel "Chris" Welch
Speaker of the House
House of Representatives

Dear Mr. Clerk & Speaker Welch:

In response to the creation of the Public Safety and Violence Prevention Task Force, I appoint the following members of the House Republican caucus:

- | | |
|-------------------------|-----------|
| * Windhorst (Spokesman) | * Chesney |
| * Stephens | * Bos |
| * McCombie | * Ugaste |
| * Wilhour | * Elik |

I am surprised by the creation of the Safety and Violence Prevention Task Force in light of the passage of House Bill 3653 - Speaker Madigan's last "gift" to Illinois and its signing into law by Governor Pritzker. At the bill signing ceremony, Governor Pritzker and other Democratic leaders claimed, amongst many other things, that the legislation brings start closer to "true safety" and "the legislation ensures safe communities."

Those statements are the furthest thing from the truth. In light of the violence that is crippling the state of Illinois and the city of Chicago, I am not surprised by the quick formation of this task force. Each day that passes, gang members and street criminals act more brazenly with firearms against law enforcement and the public. Quite frankly, the criminals are winning the war against law-abiding citizens.

When illogical anti-police legislation is made law of the land, such as HB 3653, the message sent is that the good men and women who wear the badge are not a priority and cannot be trusted with keeping streets and neighborhoods safe. The constant vilification coming from the Democrat party, either verbally or by the passage of HB 3653, only demoralizes those who are sworn to serve and protect. That attitude towards law enforcement is being heard loud and clear on the streets of Chicago.

I notice that eight of your thirteen Democratic appointees to the committee voted for HB 3653. I find those appointments odd based on the Governor's and Democratic legislator's statements that police reform will make our state safer. Don't think for a moment that this task force will repair the harm done to law enforcement to last January - the damage is done.

Be that as it may, the House Republicans will participate and gladly work to undo the harm perpetrated on our Illinois law enforcement community and our citizens.

Sincerely,

With kindest personal regards, I remain.

Sincerely yours,

s/Jim Durkin
