We thank you for the discipline of life, for the endurance which is learned through drudgery. For work which is its own reward. For difficulties which can become the materials of victory. For turmoil of life in which we find your peace. For the challenges of life in which we discover Your strength. For the decisions of conscience, in which we are sustained by Your hope. Grant us this peace, this strength and this hope now as we go about our tasks this day in Your saving name. Amen."
