House Joint Resolution Constitutional Amendment #1, sponsored by Representative Taylor.

Whereas, the Ninety-second Congress of the United States of America at its Second Session, in both Houses, by a constitutional majority of two-thirds thereof, adopted the following proposition to amend the Constitution of the United States of America:

Joint Resolution

Resolved by the House of Representatives and the Senate of the United States of America in Congress assembled (two-thirds of each House concurring therein), that the following Article was proposed as an Amendment to the Constitution of the United States which shall be valid to all intent and purposes as a part of the Constitution when ratified by the Legislatures of three-fourths of the several states within seven years of the date of this submission by the Congress:

Article

Section 1. Equality of rights under law shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or any state on account of sex.

Section 2. The Congress shall have the power to enforce by appropriate legislation the provisions of this Article.

Section 3. This Amendment shall take effect two years after the date of ratification; and

Whereas, the time limit for ratification of the proposed Amendment by the Legislatures of the required number of states has been extended to June 30, 1982, by Joint Resolution of the Ninety-fifth Congress of the United States of America; therefore be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Eighty-first General Assembly of the State of Illinois, the Senate concurring herein, that such proposed Amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America be and the same is hereby ratified; and be it further

Resolved, that a certified copy of this Resolution be forwarded by the Secretary of State of Illinois to the Administrator of General Services of the United States, to the President pro-tem of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States and to each Senator and Representative from Illinois in the Congress of the United States.

First Reading of the Constitutional Amendment."

Clerk Hall: "House Joint Resolution Constitutional Amendment #2.

Submitted by Representative Boucek.

Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Eighty-first General Assembly of the State of Illinois, the Senate concurring herein, that there should be submitted to the electors of the State for adoption or rejection at the general election next occurring at least six months after the adoption of this Resolution, a proposition to amend Sections 1, 2 and 3 of Article IV and Section 1 of Article XIV of the Illinois Constitution to read as follows:

Article IV

The Legislature

Legislature Power and Structure

The legislative power is vested in the General Assembly consisting of a Senate of 59 Members and a House of Representatives of 118 Members elected by the electors from 59 Senatorial and 118 Representative Districts.

Section 2. Legislative Composition

One Senator shall be elected from each Senatorial District.

Immediately following each decennial redistricting, and the General Assembly by law shall divide the Senatorial Districts as equally as possible into three groups. Senators from one group shall be elected for terms of four years, four years and two years; Senators from the second group shall be elected for terms of four years; two two years and four years; and Senators from the third group shall be elected for terms of two years, four years and four years. The Senatorial Districts in each group shall be distributed substantially over equally the state.

(b) Each Senatorial District shall be divided into two Representative Districts and one Representative shall be elected from each Representative District for a term of two years.

(c) To be eligible to serve as a Member of the General Assembly, a person must be a United States citizen, at least 21 years old, and for the two years preceding his election or appointment a resident of the district which he is to represent. In the general election following a redistricting, a candidate from that General Assembly may be elected from any district which contains a part of the district in which he resides at the time of the redistricting and reelection if the resident of the new district he represents for 18 months prior to the reelection.

Within thirty days after a vacancy occurs, it shall be filled by appointment as provided by law. If the vacancy is a Senatorial office with more than twenty-eight months remaining in the term, the appointed Senator shall serve until the next general election at which time a Senator shall be elected to serve for the remainder of the term. If the vacancy is in a Representative office or in any other Senatorial office, the appointment shall be for the remainder of the term. An appointee to fill a vacancy shall be a member of the same political party as the person he succeeds.

(e) No Member of the General Assembly shall receive compensation as a public officer or employee from any other governmental entity for time during which he is in attendance as a Member of the General Assembly.

No Member of the General Assembly during the term for which he is elected or appointed shall be appointed to a public office which shall have been created or the compensation for which shall have been increased by the General Assembly during that term.

Section 3. Legislative Redistricting

Senatorial and Representative Districts shall be compact, contiguous and substantially equal in population.

In the year following each Federal decennial census year, the General Assembly by law shall redistrict the House and Senate.

If no redistricting plan becomes effective by June 30 of that year, a Legislative Redistricting Commission shall be constituted not later than July 10. The Commission shall consist of eight Members, no more than four of whom shall be members of the same political party.

The Speaker and Minority Leader of the House of Representatives shall each appoint to the Commission one Representative and one person who is not a member of the General Assembly. The President and Minority Leader of the Senate shall appoint to the Commission one Senator and one person who is not a member of the General Assembly.

The Members shall be certified to the public...to the Secretary of State by appointing authorities. A vacancy on the Commission shall be filled within five days by the authority that made the original appointment. A Chairman and Vice Chairman shall be chosen by a majority of all members of the Commission.

Not later than August 10, the Commission shall file with the Secretary of State a redistricting plan approved by at least five members.

If the Commission fails to file an approved redistricting plan, the Supreme Court shall submit the names of two persons, not of the same political party, to the Secretary of State not later than September 1.

Not later than September 5, the Secretary of State publicly shall draw at random selection the names of one of two persons to serve as...with the ninth member of the Commission.

Not later than October 5, the Commission shall file with the Secretary of State a redistricting plan approved by at least five members.

An approved redistricting plan filed with the Secretary of State shall be presumed valid, shall have the force and effect of law and shall be published promptly by the Secretary of State.

The Supreme Court shall have original and exclusive jurisdiction over actions concerning redistricting in the House and Senate, which shall be initiated in the name of the People of the State by the Attorney General.

Constitutional Revision

Section 1. Constitutional Convention

Whenever three-fifths of the Members elected to each House of the General Assembly so direct, the question of whether a Constitutional Convention should be called shall be submitted to the electors at the general election next occurring at least six months after such legislative direction.

If the question of whether a Convention should be called is not submitted during a twenty-year period, the Secretary of State shall submit such questions at the general election in the twentieth year following the last submission.

The vote on whether to call a Convention shall be on separate ballot. A convention shall be called if approved by three-fifths of those voting on the question or a majority of those voting in the election.

The General Assembly, at the session following approved by the electors, by law shall provide for the Convention and for the election of two delegates from each Senatorial District; designate the time and place of the Convention's first meeting which shall be within three months after the election of delegates; fix and provide for the pay of delegates and officers; and provide for expenses necessarily incurred by the Convention.

To be eligible to be a delegate a person must meet the same eligibility requirements as a Member of the General Assembly.

Vacancies shall be filled as provided by law.

The Convention shall prepare such revision of or amendments to the Constitution as it deems necessary. Any proposed revision or amendments approved by a majority of the delegates elected shall be submitted to the electors in such manner as the Constitution determines, at an election designated or called by the Convention occurring not less than two nor more than six months after the Convention's adjournment. Any revision or amendments proposed by the Convention shall be published with explanations, as the Convention provides, at least one month preceding the election.

The vote on the proposed revision or amendments shall be on a separate ballot. Any proposed revision or amendments shall become effective, as the Convention provides, if approved by a majority of those voting on the question.

Schedule.

This amendment if adopted at the general election in November, 1980, shall apply to and govern the decennial redistricting of 1981 and subsequent redistricting and the nomination and election of Senators and Representatives in 1982 and thereafter.

First Reading of the Constitutional Amendment."

Tony Leone: "House Joint Resolution Constitutional Amendment 3 submitted by Representative Jack Davis.

Resolved, by the House of Representatives of the Eighty-first General Assembly of the State of Illinois that the Senate concurring herein, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state for adoption or rejection at the general election next occurring at least six months after the adoption of this Resolution, a proposition to amend Sections 5 and 6 of Article IV, Section 13 of Article V and Section 2 of Article VIII of the Constitution to read as follows:

Article IV

Section 5. Sessions

The Session that...the Sessions of the General Assembly shall convene at 12 o'clock noon on the second Wednesday in January in the year next ensuing the election of Members thereof, and at no other time, unless as provided by this Constitution.

(b) The Governor may convene the General Assembly or the Senate along with Special Session by a proclamation stating that the purpose of this Session; and the only business encompassing by such purpose, together with any impeachments or confirmation of appointments shall be transacted. Special Sessions of the General Assembly may also be convened by joint proclamation of the presiding officers of both House issuing as provided by law.

Section C. Sessions of each House of the General Assembly and meetings of Committees, Joint Committees and Legislative Commissions shall be open to the public. Sessions and Committee Meetings of the House may be closed to the public if two-thirds of the Members elected to that House determine that the public interest is so required; and the meetings of Joint Committees and the Legislative Commissions may be so closed if two-thirds of the Members elected to the House so determine.

Section 6. Organization

(a) The majority of the Members elected to each House constitute a quorum.

(b) On the first day of each Regular Session of the General Assembly, the Secretary of State shall convene the House of Representatives to elect from its membership a Speaker of the House of Representatives as presiding officer, and the Governor shall convene the Senate to elect from its membership the President of the Senate as presiding officer.

(c) For the purpose of powers of appointing conferred by this Constitution, the Minority Leader of either House is a member of the numerically strongest political party other than the party to which the Speaker or the President belongs, as the case may be.

(d) Each House shall determine the rules of the proceedings, judge the elections, returns and qualifications of the Members and choose its officers. No Member shall be expelled by either House, except by the vote of two-thirds of the Members elected to that House. A Member may be expelled only once for the same offense. Each House may punish by imprisonment any person, not a Member, guilty of disrespect to the House by disorderly or contemptuous behavior in its presence. Imprisonment shall not extend beyond twenty-four hours at one time unless the person persists in disorderly or contemptuous behavior.

Article V

Section 13. Governor - Legislative Messages

The Governor, at the beginning of each Regular Session of the General Assembly and at the close of the term of office, shall report to the General Assembly on the condition of the state and recommend such measures as he deems desirable.

Article VIII

Section 2. State Finance

The Governor shall prepare and submit to the General Assembly, at the time prescribed by law, the state budget for ensuing fiscal biennium. The budget shall be set forth the estimating balance of funds available for appropriation at the beginning of the fiscal biennium, the estimate receipts, and a plan for expenditures and and obligations during the fiscal biennium for every department, authority, public corporation or quasi-public corporation of the state, every state college and university, and every other public agency created by the state, but not of units of local government or school districts. The budget shall also set forth the indebtedness and contingent liabilities of the state and such other information as may be required by law. Proposed expenditures shall not exceed funds estimated to be available for the fiscal biennium as shown in the budget.

(b) The General Assembly by law shall make appropriations of all expenditures of public funds by the state. Appropriations of a fiscal year shall not exceed funds estimated by the General Assembly to be available during the biennium.

All salaries and such ...all salaries and such expenditures shall be made by providing by law shall be paid by the state, except that Appellate, Circuit and Associate Judges shall receive such additional compensation for counties within their district or circuit as may be provided by law. There...there shall be no fee officers in the judicial system.

Schedule

This Amendment shall take effect immediately upon its approval by the electors.

First Reading of this Constitutional Amendment."

Clerk Hall: "House Joint Constitutional Amendment 6. Kelly.

Resolved, by the House of Representatives of the Eighty-first General Assembly, the Senate concurring herein, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state for adoption or rejection of the general election next occurring at least six months after the adoption of this Resolution, a proposition to amend Sections 1 and 8 of Article IV and to add Section 16 to Article IV of the Constitution to read as follows:

Section 1. Legislature-Power and Structure.

The legislative power is vested in the General Assembly consisting of a Senate and a House of Representatives elected by the electors from 59 Legislative Districts, but the People reserve to themselves the power to propose laws and to enact or reject the same at the general primary election, independent of the General Assembly, as specified in Section 16 of this Article.

Section 8. Passage of Bills

The enacting clause of the laws of this state enacted by the General Assembly shall be: 'Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly.'

(b) The General Assembly shall enact laws only by Bill. Bills may originate in either House, but may be amended or rejected by the other.

(c) No Bill shall become a law without...without the concurrence of a majority of the Members elected to each House. Final passage of a Bill shall be a record vote. In the Senate at the request of two Members, and in the House at the request of five Members, a record vote may be taken on any other occasion. A record vote is a vote by yeas and nays entered on the journal.

(d) A Bill shall be read by title on three different days in each House. A Bill and each Amendment thereto shall be reproduced and placed on the Member's desk before final passage.

Bills, except Bills for appropriations and for the codification revision or rearrangement of laws, shall be confined to one subject. Appropriation Bills shall be limited to the subject of appropriations. A Bill expressly amending a law shall set forth completely the Sections amended.

The Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President of the Senate shall sign each Bill that passes both Houses to certify that the procedural requirements for the passage have been met.

Section 16. Initiative

Laws, including Amendments to existing law, or the repeal thereof, and including laws relating to all subjects within the legislative power vested in the General Assembly under the Constitution except the subjects of appropriations and branch banking, may be proposed by a petition signed by a number of electors equal to the number to at least eight percent of the total votes cast for candidates for Governor in the preceding gubernatorial election. A petition shall be confined to one subject, shall contain the text of the proposed law, and of any law sought to be amended or repealed, and the date of the election at which the proposed law is to be submitted, shall have been signed by the petitioning electors not more than twelve months preceding the election and shall be filed with the State Board of Elections at least 78 days before that election. Not more than three propositions shall be submitted at the same election and such propositions shall be submitted in order of filing. The procedure for determining the validity and sufficiency of a petition shall be the same as for the candidate petitions. If the petition is valid and sufficient, the proposed law shall be submitted to the electors at that election and shall become law if approved by the majority of those voting on the proposed law.

The General Assembly may amend or repeal any law enacted under this Section only by a law approved by not less than two-thirds of the Members elected in each House.

A law enacted under this Section takes effect 30 days following the date of the election at which it was approved, unless it is ...unless by its own terms the law provides for a later effective date.

If the provisions of two or more laws enacted under this Section at the same election conflict, the provisions of the law receiving the greatest number of votes shall prevail.
