

Doorkeeper Koehler: "Attention, Members of the House of Representatives, the House will convene in ten minutes. All persons not entitled to the House floor please retire to the gallery."

Speaker Redmond: "House will come to order. Members please be in their seats. Be led in prayer by the Reverend Krueger, the House Chaplain."

Rev. Krueger: "In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost. Amen. O Lord, bless this House to Thy service this day. Amen. Thomas Alva Edison observed: 'If we did all the things we are capable of doing, we would literally astound ourselves.' Let us pray. Almighty God, we thank Thee for the many talents and abilities Thou hast visited upon us. We are grateful for the responsibilities and duties and direction that we may... that have been laid before us. We implore Thy divine guidance and direction that we may effectually discharge our labours and efforts as we serve Thee and our fellow men as Members of this House of Representatives. Spur us onward, O Lord, that none of our capabilities lay dormant or be used unwisely; that our actions may be to the benefit of all and receive Thy heavenly commendation. We ask this in the Name of Jesus Christ. Amen."

Speaker Redmond: "Any objection to showing their absence as being excused? Hearing none, the record will so show. Representative Lechowicz."

Lechowicz: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Will the record indicate that Representative Capparelli and Nardulli are excused because of illness?"

Speaker Redmond: "Is there objection? Hearing none, the record will so indicate. ...the record show that Representative Walsh is in the chamber, six minutes after three. Representative Lechowicz."

Lechowicz: "Yes, Mr. Speaker, would you also have the record indicate that Representative Kozubowski is excused?"

Speaker Redmond: "Any objection? Hearing none, the record will so show. Further introductions?"

Clerk O'Brien: "House Bill 415, Representative Rea. A Bill for an Act to amend Sections of the Illinois Pension Code. First Reading of the Bill."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Ryan."

Ryan: "Mr. Speaker, can you tell us the intent of the Chair as far as adjournment's concerned here today? How long we're going to be here? Do you have any idea?"

Speaker Redmond: "We won't be here very long. Representative

Wikoff called and indicated there's trouble on the road and as soon as we..."

Ryan: "How do you measure that on the clock, Mr. Speaker? Not very long? Is that..."

Speaker Redmond: "Smaller than a breadbasket."

Ryan: "Thanks."

Speaker Redmond: "Agreed Resolutions? We have a correction first."

Clerk O'Brien: "I read Committee Report from Appropriations II, I reported House Bill 14. The correct Bill number was 186."

Speaker Redmond: "Agreed Resolutions. Pardon me, Representative Jaffe."

Jaffe: "Mr. Speaker, I have an agreed motion. I talked to the Minority Spokesman... Take it out of the record for a second."

Speaker Redmond: "Agreed Resolutions."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Resolution 41, Ryan et al."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Giorgi."

Giorgi: "Mr. Speaker, House Resolution 41 recognizes that... major... that the major concern for the high care of health costs and I more for the adoption of the Agreed Resolutions."

Speaker Redmond: "Any discussion? The question's on the Gentleman's motion. Those in favor say 'aye', opposed 'no'. The 'ayes'... Representative Kempiners, to explain the Agreed Resolution."

Kempiners: "What was that, Mr. Speaker?"

Speaker Redmond: "Didn't you hear Mr. Giorgi's explanation?"

Kempiners: "I heard him mumble something about high health costs. That's all I heard about."

Giorgi: "Mr..."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Giorgi to..."

Giorgi: "House Resolution 41 notes the rising cost of health care and is a major concern of all sectors of society. And we agree with that, so we agree with the Agreed Resolution."

Kempiners: "Now, why won't you tell us a little bit more about that Resolution, Mr. Giorgi?"

Giorgi: "Well, I think, Agreed Resolution... it's submitted by the Leadership on your side of the aisle. Would you like to have Mr. Ryan explain his Resolution?"

Kempiners: "Yes."

Giorgi: "Mr. Ryan, would you like to explain the Agreed Resolution 41?"

Speaker Redmond: "...you satisfied, Mr. Kempiners?"

Kempiners: "No."

Speaker Redmond: "Who sponsored the Resolution?"

Giorgi: "Representative Ryan, his Leader."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Ryan, will you explain the Resolution to Representative Kempiners?"

Ryan: "Well, Mr. Speaker, would we... could we take this out of the record for just a minute please?"

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Kempiners, is... The question is on the Gentleman's motion. Those in favor say 'aye', opposed 'no'. The 'ayes' have it, the motion carried. Agreed Resolutions are adopted. Further Resolutions."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Joint Resolution 8, Representative Bowman.
House Joint Resolution 9, Representative Bowman."

Speaker Redmond: "Committee on Assignment. On the Order of Speaker's Table appears motion with respect to House Resolution 21. Representative Katz is recognized."

Katz: "Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, House Resolution 21 unanimously recommended for adoption by the Rules Committee creates the Select Committee on State Organization. It is the same Committee that we had in the 80th General Assembly. Under the rules of the 80th General Assembly it expired at the end of the 80th General Assembly. We have simply recreated it for the 81st General Assembly. I would move adoption of House Resolution 21."

Speaker Redmond: "Is there any discussion? Question's on the Gentlemen's motion of the adoption of House Resolution 21. Those in favor vote 'aye', opposed vote 'no'. Have all voted who wish? The Clerk will take the record. On this question there's 111 'aye' and 1 'no', the Gentleman's motion carried and House Resolution 21 is adopted. On the Order of Motions, House Bill 260. Representative Younge, do you desire to have that called? Take it out of the record. I understand that Representative Bullock has withdrawn a motion with respect to House Bill 346."

Representative Wikoff on the floor? Will you desire to advise the Membership the message that you communicated to the Speaker's office respect to the State Police? It's a matter of importance to the entire Membership. Representative Wikoff."

Wikoff: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I don't know as that... had to do with the State Police, but I did drive home last night and came back this morning and Route 72 between here and Champaign this morning was down to one-lane traffic about ten-thirty, eleven o'clock this morning because of blowing snow. So I would urge extreme care for anybody driving out of here. The snow has stopped now but I don't know what the roads are like."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Lechowicz, do you seek admission... recognition?"

Lechowicz: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. On a point of personal privilege, yesterday I made an announcement at the request of the Speaker and the Chief Doorkeeper of the House and it was reported in the news... Springfield newspaper by Marcia Stepanek this morning on page 1 and I was totally, inaccurately quoted. I asked the Clerk to supply me a copy of the exact transcript of the record. I instructed the Lady, told the Lady that the quote was totally inaccurate. I gave her a copy of the transcript. And once again for the record I would like the Clerk to read to this Body my exact statement at that time. I would hope that the press would rectify this... this situation and kindly... the records are available to the entire media of this state and if you're going to quote somebody, make it accurate. Would the Clerk kindly read my remarks from yesterday?"

Clerk O'Brien: "Representative Lechowicz: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. As you know due to the extreme cold weather, not only do we have a serious snow situation in many portions of the state, not only were the schools closed for a good amount of time, but that the snow has also driven in some rodents into the State Capitol. I just want to point out the fact that the bags that are located under certain desks are for rodent control and I would hope that the Members would leave the bags there for its purpose. And I would also ask the Membership inspect your own respective desks, its contents and kindly remove all food particles that may be left in your desks or in the drawer file. Hopefully the House chambers have been reviewed by the Doorkeeper and his staff and they removed quite a few of the food particles that were left behind by the Membership - candy bars, salt, etc. But kindly inspect your own premises, tidy it up so that we can get the job done. Thank you."

Lechowicz: "And thank you, Mr. Speaker and Membership of the House for giving me the additional time to clarify this subject once and for all. Thank you."

Speaker Redmond: "Is there any announcements? Representative Collins, do you want to talk about the game last night? Not recognized for that purpose. Neither you, nor Leinenweber, nor Dunn, nor Totten. Representative Lechowicz, I believe we adopted the Adjournment Resolution, did we not? And what is the date, Mr. Clerk? Wednesday?"

Clerk O'Brien: "Wednesday at one o'clock p.m."

Speaker Redmond: "Wednesday at one o'clock p.m. Now the Clerk... we have some introduction and First Reading of Bills and Constitutional Amendments which can be done in Perfunctory Session. So if Representative Lechowicz will move that the... we stand adjourned...."

Lechowicz: "That we stand in Perfunct for approximately half an hour and then the House will stand adjourned till next Wednesday at one o'clock."

Speaker Redmond: "Is there any discussion on the motion? You've heard the question. Those in favor indicate by saying 'aye'. Representative Van Duyne, are you seeking recognition?"

Van Duyne: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Yes, I was. I don't know whether I'm... it's appropriate to talk about this now, but would it be feasible at all or at least thinkable to on the get-away day, like today, at least in the earlier... the early stages of this Session to say, go into Committee at nine o'clock rather than noon and maybe start the Session at twelve or one rather than three? In my circumstance and yours as well, we leave here now about four o'clock. That will get me into Joliet about seven. And constitutes about an hour and a half or an hour and forty-five minutes of after-dark driving, whereas if we were leaving about two, why we wouldn't have to drive in any darkness at all. Does that make sense to you?"

Speaker Redmond: "Well, we'll..."

Van Duyne: "Just on the get-away..."

Speaker Redmond: "...we'll try to do it and see if we can. We... we put the hours to accommodate the Members as best we can. In the early stages of Session it's rather difficult. We didn't know what Committees we're going to do today, how long it was going to take. We didn't know if there was some other business that had to be taken care of. But thank you for bringing to our attention..."

Van Duyne: "It was just a thought."

Speaker Redmond: "We will, we will do our very best. The one o'clock date for convening is to accommodate those who... take the train, so we try very hard. Representative Lechowicz."

Lechowicz: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Before we adjourn, would the record indicate that Representative Younge is excused... is excused? She called your office and stated that she had a personal matter. Mrs. Younge, Wyvetter Younge."

Speaker Redmond: "May the record so show."

Lechowicz: "And also, Mr. Speaker, I know you and the rest of the Democratic Members and all the Members of the House want to extend to Representative James Taylor a very happy birthday, many more... many good years to come. And I now move that we stand adjourned, Mr. Speaker, till Wednesday at one o'clock. The House will stand in Perfunctory Session for half an hour."

Speaker Redmond: "Question's on the Gentleman's motion. Those in favor indicate by saying 'aye', opposed 'no'. The 'ayes' have it, motion carries. The House now stands adjourned. Standing in Perfunctory, then we adjourn at the end of the Perfunctory Session."

Clerk O'Brien: "Introduction, First Reading of Bills. House Bill 416, Harris-Richmond. A Bill for an Act to amend Sections of the Illinois Administrative Procedure Act. First Reading of the Bill.
