

Doorkeeper: "Attention Members of the House of Representatives. The House will convene in five minutes."

Speaker Redmond: "The House will come to order. Members please be in their seats. Be led" in prayer by the Reverend Krueger, the House Chaplain."

Reverend Krueger: "In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost. Amen. O Lord, bless this House to Thy service this day. Amen. J. C. Penny once said, 'I am grateful for all my problems as each of them was overcome. I became stronger and more able to meet those yet to come. I grew on all my difficulties.' Let us pray. Almighty God, Lord of all power and might, source of all wisdom and knowledge, do Thou embellish our minds and our thinking that we may ever perceive Thy will. And, though we may find our tasks as Members of this House of Representatives to be arduous and fraught with seeming perplexity, do Thou encourage us and aid us that we may ever better serve Thee and the peoples of the State of Illinois, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

Speaker Redmond: "Pledge of Allegiance. Representative Hallock."

Hallock (et al): "I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of American and to the Republic for which is stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Speaker Redmond: "Is there any discussion? The question's on the Gentleman's motion for the adoption of the Agreed Resolutions. Those in favor say 'aye'. 'Aye'. Opposed, 'no'. The 'ayes' have it. The motion carried, and the Agreed Resolutions are adopted. Further Resolutions?"

Clerk O'Brien: "House Joint Resolution 665, Harris-et al. House Joint...pull that number. House Joint Resolution 83, Harris, and House Joint Resolution 85, Harris-et al."

Speaker Redmond: "I haven't take the Roll Call yet. I've asked for the..."

Telcser: "I'll have some excused absences when you do."

Speaker Redmond: "Okay. Now, what have you got? What page? Where is it? On page 15. Senate Joint Resolution 84. Representative Lechowicz is recognized. Lechowicz."

Lechowicz: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. Senate Joint Resolution 84 is the adjournment Resolution, and it states that when the House adjourns today, it stands adjourned until April the 4th, 1980 at 12 o'clock noon. And, when the House adjourns on that day, we return on Tuesday, April the 8th. Mr. Speaker, is that...April the 4th, is that a Perfunctory Session?"

Speaker Redmond: "That's a Perfunctory Session."

Lechowicz: "Well, I believe, what you want to do is...for the deadline dates, April 4th will be a Perfunctory Session, so that...for the purpose of introduction of Bills."

Speaker Redmond: "The people who put the new Constitution together didn't realize that that would be Good Friday, so we've got a Constitutional requirement."

Lechowicz: "But, the House will really return in full Session on April the 8th at 12 o'clock noon. I move for the adoption of the adjournment Resolution."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Lechowicz has moved the adoption of Amendment #1 to Senate Joint Resolution 84. Those in favor indicate by saying 'aye'."

Lechowicz: "Aye."

Speaker Redmond: "Aye. Opposed, 'no'. The 'ayes' have it. The motion carried. The Amendment's adopted. Now, Representative Lechowicz has moved the adoption of the Resolution as amended. Those in favor say 'aye'."

Lechowicz: "Aye."

Speaker Redmond: "Aye. Opposed, 'no'. The 'ayes' have it. The motion carried. I mean, the Resolution as amended is adopted...Good Friday."

Speaker Redmond: "Consideration Postponed on page 11. House Bill 1011. Representative Sandquist."

Sandquist: "Yes, Mr. Speaker, I'd like leave to move House Bill 1011 from Consideration Postponed back to Second Reading for the purposes of amendment."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Sandquist asks leave to return House Bill 1011 to the Order of Second Reading. Does he have leave? Hearing no objection, leave is granted."

Sandquist: "Yes, Mr. Speaker, and...I'd like to ask leave to table Amendment #3, which was adopted by a voice vote."

Speaker Redmond: "Is there any objection? The Gentleman's motion has moved to table Amendment #3. Those in favor say 'aye'. 'Aye'. Opposed, 'no'. The 'ayes' have it. The motion carried. Amendment 3 is tabled. Any further Amendments? Representative Sandquist."

Sandquist: "Yes, I have Amendment #5, which I believe has been distributed."

Speaker Redmond: "On 1011."

Sandquist: "Mr. Speaker, I would move for the adoption of Amendment #5, which is a clarifying Amendment to this Bill, which I believe is a good Bill. I know it's somewhat controversial, but the Amendment should not be. It...it..."

Clerk Leone: "Floor Amendment #5, Sandquist, amends House Bill 1011 on page 2 by deleting lines 12 through 15 and inserting in lieu thereof the following."

Sandquist: "Mr. Speaker, what the Amendment does, it does three different things which are all clarifying. First, it clarifies that when we're talking about a hospital, it can be either a public or a private hospital. It also points out that the clinical social worker who would be reimbursed must have five years' experience, and, thirdly, it does...it provides that the list of qualified clinical social workers would be provided and carried by the Department of Insurance. I, therefore, ask for adoption of Amendment #5."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Terzich."

Terzich: "Yes, Representative, on this Amendment, is this on the social workers to be covered by insurance contracts... social type of psychology?"

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Sandquist."

Sandquist: "Yes, this is a Bill regarding third party payments to clinical...qualified clinical social workers."

Terzich: "What's a qualified clinical social worker?"

Sandquist: "It's one who has a masters degree and has worked in the field for five...five years."

Terzich: "Well, I...I received, you know, some correspondence, but I assume that you are aware that you are now mandating to the people of the State of Illinois that have insurance coverages that they have to cover these type of people, which is an additional expense to the people who pay for these benefits."

Sandquist: "Representative Terzich, I don't believe that's really true, and that's part of the merits of the Bill, and I can argue that this would not increase the expenses, but that would be when we're on Third Reading."

Speaker Redmond: "The Gentleman has moved for the adoption of Amendment 5. Representative Vinson."

Vinson: "Yes, I wonder if the Gentleman, once more very briefly, could explain what the...this Amendment does to the Bill?"

Sandquist: "What...what this Amendment does is three different things. It clarifies that if the work can be done either in...when it's in a hospital, either public or private... it clarifies that...that there are actually five years of work that the qualified clinical social worker would have to conduct in the field, and the third thing, it provides that the list of qualified people would be carried, not by the Department of Registration and Education, but by the Department of Insurance."

Speaker Redmond: "The question's on the Gentleman's motion for the adoption of Amendment 5. Those in favor say 'aye'. 'Aye'. Opposed, 'no'. The 'ayes' have it. The motion carried. The Amendment's adopted. Any further Amendments?"

Clerk Leone: "No further Amendments."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Sandquist."

Sandquist: "Could I have leave to have this advanced...returned to Consideration Postponed?"

Speaker Redmond: "Well, that's where it'll go. It'll go back to Consideration Postponed. Anyone else want to return a Bill to Second Reading? We're going to go through the Third Reading Bills again. If there's any Member that has a Bill that he wants to called...some Members are not ready to be called...if you come up to the...to the well here and tell us the ones that you want called, well, we'll try to accommodate you. Representative Matijevich, do you want to go on Conference Committee Reports? Do you want to go to 2410? How about Davis on Senate Bill 185...Conference Committee report? Do you want to go on that? How about Dawson on 1150? House Bills, Third Reading, Short Debate Calendar. 2351. Representative Ewing. Page 2."

Clerk Leone: "House Bill 2351. A Bill for an Act to amend Sections of the Illinois Administrative Procedures Act. Third Reading of the Bill."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Ewing."

Ewing: "Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, this Bill is a Bill put in at the request of the Department of Personnel and would remove from the preview of the Illinois Administrative Procedure Act changes which they make in job classification. They set up a number of job classifications. I think they have some 1550 of them. Everytime they want to make a job classification change in what the...work required, the educational requirements, or anything, they are required to go before the Illinois Administrative Procedure Board. This would eliminate them from having to do that. It seems to me to be a very worthy piece of legislation, and I would ask for support."

Speaker Redmond: "Is there any discussion? The question is, 'Shall this Bill pass?' Those in favor vote 'aye'. Opposed vote 'no'. Have all voted who wish? Representative Borchers desires to be recorded as 'aye'. Have all voted who wish? Representative Van Duyne."

Van Duyne: "In explanation of my vote, Mr. Speaker, could I just get a nod of the head of the Sponsor of this Bill as to whether this goes contrary to Bus Yourell's Committee on administrative review? Is this contrary to one of their...one of their proposals?"

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Ewing."

Ewing: "Definitely not intended to be, and I noticed that Representative Yourell is very quiet today, and I'm certain if he was opposed to it, he would speak up. I think it's a Bill to...would make probably not saddle the Administrative Procedure Board with a lot of very tedious procedural matters."

Speaker Redmond: "Have all voted who wish? Representative Kosinski."

Kosinski: "Mr. Speaker, with 92 people not voting on the board, I have a feeling that there's a lack of understanding of this. There certainly is in my mind, and if this is not out of order for the good of legislation, I...I wish Mr. Ewing would explain in detail precisely what he's trying to do. I don't know."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Ewing."

Ewing: "Mr. Speaker, to explain my vote. Let's take, for example, that class specifications are general descriptions of the duties of all the positions in a class. Say a Clerk I typist, includes...included in that feature would be certain educational requirements, certain job requirements. If the Department of Personnel wants to make any minor changes in these job classifications, that is now considered to be a change in an administrative rule, and, therefore, they need to take it before the Committee which hears this. They are constantly updating these 1550 job classifications for all state employees. This is not, in any effort, to circumvent the administrative procedure. I've been a strong supporter of that, but these are very minor type changes, which cause a great deal of clerical work, I think, for the staff of the Department of Personnel and for the Administrative Procedure Committee."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Kosinski."

Kosinski: "If the Sponsor will continue to yield, do I understand then that this gives more responsibility to the Department of Personnel, more ruling power, more control?"

Ewing: "This is no additional power than they always had, but when we passed the Administrative Procedure Act, every change like this was required, or the interpretation was that it was required to go before the Administrative Procedure Committee. These are very minor administrative changes. They are not rules that are affecting the business climate of the state. They're not really rules that are affecting the taxpayers in this state. They only affect whether a clerk typist has to have so many years of typing in high school or in junior college. That would be an example. Maybe they don't have to have any for a file clerk."

Kosinski: "Do they, in any way, control the sal...permit the control...further control of the salary situation, or are you confining this merely to education?"

Ewing: "No, it...it would be...I don't think...I think the salaries are set in a different manner, but it has to do with any changes they would make in the classifications for jobs. I don't think...I think if we get into salary situations, we're in a completely different field."

Kosinski: "You said you don't think. Are you certain?"

Ewing: "No, I'm not. If I were certain, I would've said so."

Kosinski: "My concern, of course, Mr. Ewing, is that possibly we should control as much as power...as possible, through this Committee or Commission, actions of the Department of Personnel."

Ewing: "Well..."

Kosinski: "And, if we're opening any doors that give them more leeway, I'm not sure we're going in the right direction. I..."

Ewing: "Well, Repres..."

Kosinski: "...if you can clarify this for me, I can certainly vote for the matter."

Ewing: "Well, I'm trying to clarify it...you...clarify it for you, and this is not new power that they didn't have before. I don't think that we've found that the Department of Personnel has abused the powers before we passed the Administrative Procedure Act. What we're trying to do is untie the hands of the Personnel Department of the State of Illinois so they can function without taking all this paperwork to the Administrative Procedure Committee. There are some very important rule changes that this Committee needs to consider. They don't need to be considering these very minor things. It'll get bogged down in paper work, and they won't be able to find it."

Kosinski: "Thank you."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Reilly."

Reilly: "Mr. Speaker, as the Vice Chairman of the Joint Committee on Administrative Rules, I'm voting 'aye' on this Bill. All that's involved here...and we found two or three areas. There'll be a couple of other Bills coming through this Session dealing with other areas where there...the whole point of the Administrative Procedures Act was to give the Legislature a handle on those policy changes that...that agencies were making. These job reclassifications, which occur by the hundreds every year, are not policy changes at all, and from both...from the point of the Joint Committee and the point of the agency, it seems to me it's just a waste of time to make them do this. I really think the Joint Committee...I...the Joint Committee has not discussed this to my knowledge, and I think I've attended every meeting, but I don't think they would have any...any objection. Another example that'll be coming through, which is exactly the same kind of point, the Department of Agriculture issues rules every year that set up... what...under the current definition are considered rules that set out the thousands of different premiums... the prizes they pay out at the state fair. Well, it's silly to make them come to us every year with a schedule of those, so, as the Vice Chairman of the Joint Committee, I'm supporting the Bill."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Yourell."

Yourell: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Would the Gentleman yield?"

Speaker Redmond: "He will."

Yourell: "Representative Ewing, I just have one question I think that can resolve the issue. Does this legislation, in any way, pre-empt the Department of Personnel from presenting rules or regs to the Joint Committee for consideration?"

Ewing: "Does it pre-empt them?"

Yourell: "Does it...does it alleviate them of the responsibility of coming to the Joint Committee after publishing their rule or regulation in the Illinois Register...does this bypass the Joint Committee, so that we will have a set of rules developed by the Department of Personnel that will not be subject to review by the Joint Committee?"

Ewing: "Well, Representative Yourell, if setting up the job classifications is considered promulgating rules, then I guess it would. It would be my understanding that their rules by which they operate the Department of Personnel will still have to come before you except in the category of job classifications and the requirements for those job classifications."

Yourell: "Well, thank you, Representative Ewing. I would like to speak to the Bill. I think the whole purpose of the creation of the Joint Committee initially and the way that we've been operating and the experience that we've had in the two odd years that we've been in existence is that there is a movement afoot to attempt to bypass the Joint Committee and the Joint Committee's review of certain rules and regulations of certain state agencies. Now, I don't know whether this is exactly the case with the Department of Personnel, but I suspect that this is a...an area of concern that is very vital to the Joint Committee and the operation of the Joint Committee, and that if we let this Bill pass and allow the Department of Personnel to bypass the Joint Committee to not publish the rules in the Register for the necessary 45 days and then come before the Joint Committee, the agency to plead their case for the adoption of the rules and regulations, then I'm fearful that this will be another chink in the dike, so to speak, to...so as to point out the way that other agencies may pre-empt the functions of the Joint Committee. So, until we have some clarification, I would oppose the Bill."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Ewing."

Ewing: "Mr. Speaker, to show the good faith in which this legislation is presented here, there is no intention to undercut the Administrative Procedure Committee. I am a strong supporter of its function, and I would ask leave of the House to take this out of the record until Mr. Yourell is satisfied and others."

Speaker Redmond: "Have all voted who wish?"

Ewing: "Mr. Speaker, I...I had a request."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Ewing."

Ewing: "I requested you take it out of the record."

Speaker Redmond: "I think in view of the sparse attendance, that that's a reasonable request."

Ewing: "Thank you."

Speaker Redmond: "Out of the record. Representative Conti."

Conti: "Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, several years back we had a great Legislator from the City of Chicago Heights and also was the Mayor at that time, 'Moreno Rickton'. Today we are honored to have the man who took 'Moreno Rickton's' place as the Mayor of Chicago Heights in the back of the hall, Chuck 'Penicci', and his Representatives are Pat Grossi, Bob Piel, and Mike Getty. Also, the Committeemen of Bloom Township."

Speaker Redmond: "House Bills, Third Reading. House Bill 331. Representative Kornowicz. Out of the record. 429. Out of the record. 434. Out of the record. 447. Is Representative Edgar on the floor? How about Reilly? Out of the record. 515. Representative.

Collins: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. If you'll recall that House Bill 755 is the one that we amended yesterday and that Representatives Watson and Birkinbine authorized me to handle for them. The Bill, as amended, would abolish the...the odious and onerous blind primary that the Republicans labored under in the recent presidential primary in selection of the delegates. I think that this is highly topical and that it is a Bill that we should pass now to get rid of something that was a serious mistake made in the last Session of this General Assembly. I'm proud to stand here and say that I fought against the adoption of the blind primary at the time that it was passed, and the people told us in no uncertain terms that they want no more blind primaries in their selection of delegates to national nominating conventions. I commend my colleagues on the Democratic side for not falling into the error that we did in adopting this vehicle whereby no one knew who was running to represent whom at the national nominating conventions. I suggest to you now that it is time to lay this to rest forever, and I would ask for favorable consideration of House Bill 755."

Clerk Leone: "House Bill..."

Speaker Redmond: "Any discussion?"

Clerk Leone: "House Bill 755. A Bill for an Act to amend the Election Code. Third Reading of the Bill."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Pullen."

Pullen: "Will the Sponsor yield, please?"

Speaker Redmond: "He will."

Pullen: "When this Amendment..."

Collins: "I'll yield to the Lady anytime."

Pullen: "When this Amendment was adopted yesterday, did that take out the original language of the Bill?"

Collins: "It struck the language that was inserted into the ...into the statute last year. That's correct."

Pullen: "No, no. What I mean is, you were amending a Bill that had to do with the Election Code and had to do with another aspect of the Election Code, and I wonder whether the Amendment added to the Bill or replaced the Bill?"

Collins: "I'm looking for the Amendment now, but I believe it added to."

Pullen: "I hope not." I think it doesn't, but I wish you would check that before we vote."

Collins: "It deletes everything after line 7."

Pullen: "So, this replaces the original Bill?"

Collins: "That's right. This is a new Bill."

Pullen: "That's great. Thank you very much."

Speaker Redmond: "Anything further? Representative Dunn."

Dunn J: "Would the Sponsor then explain what the Bill does in the form it's in now if it's a completely new Bill?"

Collins: "The Bill now strikes or abolishes the so-called blind primary. It..."

Dunn J: "It has nothing to do with signatures on petitions anymore?"

Collins: "No, it corrects the error that we made on this side of the aisle previously about last year."

Dunn J: "And, does the Governor support this Bill in its present form?"

Collins: "I have not consulted with the Governor."

Dunn J: "Thank you."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Johnson."

Johnson: "Representative Collins, it just occurred to me as I was sitting here, maybe one of the things we could do as we look in this...this whole area is really go one step farther than the Legislature went last year. We go to the blind on...are you listening, Representative Collins? Okay...to the blind blind primary where we not only don't put the designation by the candidates for delegate in parentheses; we don't even put the name of the delegate on the ballot. We just put one through ten, and then we have a lottery after it's all over to determine if candidate #3 or 7 won. We just fill in the name by a lottery when it's over. Would...would you think that would be a good idea?"

Collins: "No, I prefer inserting none of the above."

Johnson: "Oh, okay. In light of that, I'll support the Bill."

Speaker Redmond: "Anything further? Representative Sumner."

Sumner: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Will the Sponsor take a question?"

Speaker Redmond: "He will."

Sumner: "Thank you. I need to just clarify it for one more time. This Amendment now becomes the Bill, and it will repeal the blind primary?"

Collins: "That is correct."

Sumner: "Thank you. Now, I would like to speak to the Bill."

Speaker Redmond: "Proceed."

Sumner: "Thank you. This Bill is excellent, or the Amendment which now becomes the Bill is excellent. The citizens of my district were very disturbed to find out a couple of days before the election that they were going to go to the polls with about 20 names in front of them and not have any idea who they were going to be supporting as far as their Presidential candidate. I wholeheartedly support this Bill, as I believe the people of my district have a right to know who they're supporting when they go to the polls to vote. Thank you."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Matijeovich."

Matijeovich: "Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen of the House,

I'll probably support this, because it really sounds like a popular notion, but I'm not sure we ought to do anything yet. Because if any of you think that this is going to be a panacea, you're crazy. Because really look what's happened with our procedure. We start out, for example, in an Iowa election. You had a candidate a week. I mean, first of all comes Bush, then Anderson, and every election you had a different one. Now, you know, that old procedure wasn't that bad if everybody would've followed it. Because really what happened was, in the old procedure, was that the people of a party picked those people who they had confidence in that could make a party decision and a good party decision in a convention. There's really nothing wrong with that, and I'll tell you, all we do is we react, and we react, and we listen to the voters, and they say it's a blind primary. But, what's going to happen in the future that you're going to have the same thing happen that happened this year? Each election...out of each state comes a new name, and you're going to have people, who early in the campaign, have a strong Presidential candidate and late in the campaign, that one becomes weak. I really think that those who were following the old time procedure really knew what they were doing, because people who have some responsibility in a party end up making good decisions. Something, I think...you know, what the people have told me... you know, everybody's voting for this, because it's popular. Here's something else the people are telling me, the people are telling me that there's got to be something wrong with a system that ends up with Reagan or Carter. That's what they're telling me, and I think they're right. I think they're right. Something's cockeyed in the system, so if you think this is a panacea, you're all crazy."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Anderson."

Anderson: "Yes, would the Sponsor yield for a question? Representative Collins, didn't the parties have the right to choose this? There were two ways they could've gone. I mean, we weren't stuck with it with the Republican Party. We could've gone the way the Democrats went, couldn't we?"

Collins: "Yes, we could."

Anderson: "Well, then why not leave it on the books and leave it up to the parties to choose one way or the other. If our party wants to go the way of the blind primary, let them go that way."

Collins: "Well, you say the party, and yet the party spoke in no uncertain terms in the primary in their preference for a candidate other than those that the power brokers chose to support. I think that the people have let us know that they want a voice in our party decisions. The Members of our party who are not in office want a voice in the decisions we make as a party, and I think we denied them that by passage of this law and by the action of our State Central Committee earlier this year."

Anderson: "I see. Yet, the other party...they had the right to do the same thing our party did, but chose not to."

Collins: "Well, they're usually wrong. This time they were right."

Anderson: "Okay. Thank you."

Speaker Redmond: "Anything further? Representative Hudson."

Hudson: "Well, thank you, Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. I feel that Representative Collins is exactly right on target on this. I think what he is seeking to do is to foreclose on the possibility of brokered conventions, and if one message came through loud and clear in DuPage County, number one was mass confusion. I never saw so many voters so confused at one time in all of my life. The telephones were ringing off the hooks over there at headquarters. They couldn't keep up with them, and I think what they clearly told us that they preferred the system as it was, and this is what I think Representative Collins is trying to do. He has already expressed it quite eloquently. Give the voters a voice. Bind these people down to some kind of a commitment. When they go to the convention, they will go there committed to someone, at least, and if that candidate no longer is on the ballot, at least the voters will have some indication of what philosophical stance that delegate will have when he arrives at the convention and what he is apt to do. I think this is eminently...makes eminent good sense and, certainly, I would urge support of...of Representative Collins' Bill."

Speaker Redmond: "Anything further? The question is, 'Shall this Bill pass?' Those in favor vote 'aye'. Opposed vote 'no'. Representative Collins to close."

Collins: "Well, thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd just like to thank the House for the support of this Bill, and I would like to express complete agreement with Representative Matijevich, but I think what he is talking to is the preferential primary...the so-called beauty contest. I would be with him. I think we should abolish those, but when it comes to selection of delegates, I think the people have told us in no uncertain terms they want to know who we do support and who we are going to vote for when we go to convention. I see that the sense of the House agrees with me and with the people, and I thank you."

Speaker Redmond: "Have all voted who wish? The Clerk will take the record. On this question there's 130 'aye' and one 'no'. The Bill having received the Constitutional Majority is hereby declared passed. 2351. I think the way you had before makes sense. I think this is...I think you got a knee jerk, because some newspaper criticized you. I think you all ran. Huh? And, I agree with Representative Hudson that there was confusion in DuPage County. There has been since the Civil War. 2351. Representative Ewing. Whatever he wants to do."

Ewing: "Mr. Speaker, I wonder if I could have leave to take that back to Second Reading for the purpose of...?"

Speaker Redmond: "Does the Gentleman have leave? Hearing no objection, leave is granted."

Clerk O'Brien: "Amendment #1, Ewing, amends House Bill 2351 on page 1, line 1 and so forth."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Ewing."

Ewing: "This is an agreed Amendment which I was not aware was not included in the Bill. I talked to Representative Yourell. It provides that there will be publication in these Rule changes as they deal with the employee code...will be made available for the inspection of any citizen, and I would move for the adoption of this Amendment to House Bill 2351."

Speaker Redmond: "The question's on the Gentleman's motion for the adoption of the Amendment. Those in favor say 'aye'. 'Aye'. Opposed, 'no'. The 'ayes' have it. The motion carried. The Amendment's adopted. Any further Amendments?"

Clerk O'Brien: "No further Amendments."

Speaker Redmond: "Third Reading. Is there leave to keep 2351 on Short Debate? Hearing no objection, leave is granted. How about 755? Watson. Out of the record. 800. Hanahan. Out of the record...48. Representative Schneider. Out of the record. 927. Representative John Dunn. Out of the record. 932. O'Brien. Representative O'Brien. Out of the record. 955. Representative Mahar.  Winchester."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Bill 2676. A Bill for an Act to amend Sections of the Election Code. Second Reading of the Bill. No Committee Amendments."

Speaker Redmond: "Any Committee Amendments?"

Clerk O'Brien: "No Committee Amendments."

Speaker Redmond: "Any Amendments from the floor?"

Clerk O'Brien: "Floor Amendment #1, Stanley-Currie, amends
 House Bill 2676 on page 1, line 1 and 6 and so forth."

Speaker Redmond: "What? The Sponsor of Amendment #1 is Representative Stanley...seven o'clock closing Stanley.
 Withdraws Amendment 1. Any further Amendments?"

Clerk O'Brien: "Floor Amendment #2, Stanley-Currie..."

Speaker Redmond: "Stanley and Currie. Withdrawing 2? Any further Amendments?"

Clerk O'Brien: "Floor Amendment #3, Winchester-Ewing; amends
 House Bill 2676 on page 1, line 1 and 6 and so forth."

Winchester: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. I suppose Amendment #3 may be academic at this stage and that it does basically the same thing that Representative Collins' Amendment and Bill... previous Bill did today in that it reverts the blind primary back to the same stage that we were in prior to...to this last primary election. I don't see anything wrong with having two Bills that basically do the same thing. It's a good idea and hopefully one of the two Bills will get to the Governor's desk, and I would ask for a favorable Roll Call that this Amendment be adopted."

Speaker Redmond: "Any discussion? The question's on the Gentleman's motion for the adoption of Amendment 1. Those in favor say 'aye'. 'Aye'. Whoops? Representative Lechowicz. Amendment 3, pardon me. Those in favor of the adoption of Amendment 3 indicate by saying 'aye'. 'Aye'. Opposed, 'no'. The 'ayes' have it. The motion carried. The Amendment's adopted. Any further Amendments?"

Clerk O'Brien: "No further Amendments."

Speaker Redmond: "Third Reading. 1673. Representative Bowman. It's on page 6. Representative Bowman. 1676. Out of the record. 1710. Representative Reilly. Reilly. 1710. Out of the record. 1762. Well, let's go to page 10. Senate Bill 760. Representative Stuffle."

Clerk O'Brien: "Senate Bill 760. A Bill for an Act to amend Sections of the School Code. Third Reading of the Bill."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Stuffle."

Stuffle: "Mr. Speaker and Members, Senate Bill 760 is the Bill that yesterday we took all of the House Amendments off of by moving it back to Second Reading. It's now in the form which it passed the Senate, I believe, by a vote of 53 to nothing. It takes care of a limited situation that, to my knowledge, has occurred in the districted represented by Representative Ryan and Senator Joyce. The Bill provides merely that in a situation where there's a school attendance center that has four ...fewer than four teachers, the head teacher may replace a principal where there's a vacancy. For all intents and purposes, this would be limited obviously, because there are few of these attendance centers. They've had a problem in that district a couple of times, including now, but they need to place a teacher in a position as a principal on a temporary basis because, simply, they don't have enough people there, and they aren't able to hire a full-time principal in the middle of the year. The Bill has absolutely no opposition to my knowledge, and I would ask for a favorable Roll Call."

Speaker Redmond: "Is there any discussion? The question is, 'Shall this Bill pass?' Those in favor vote 'aye'. Opposed vote 'no'. Have all voted who wish? Is the Parliamentarian here? Have all voted who wish? The Clerk will take the record. On this question there are 110 'aye' and 3 'no', and the Bill having received the Constitutional Majority is hereby declared passed. Representative Mulcahey, where is that Bill of yours? What is it? 1404? McMaster and Mulcahey. Representative McMaster, do you want that one called? Representative Telcser, any absences to be excused? Representative Telcser."

Telcser: "Will the records show that Representative McBroom is absent because of a death in the family and Representatives Ryan, Peters, and Wolf are absent because of legislative business."

Speaker Redmond: "Agreed Resolutions. No...no objections why the excuses will show."

Clerk O'Brien: "House Resolution 665, Steczo. House Resolution 671, Lechowicz."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Giorgi."

Giorgi: "Mr. Speaker, House Resolution 665 by Steczo asks for an extension of a reporting date from March 31st to May 15th and 671 by Lechowicz notes the Old Timers' Baseball Association banquet on April the 10th, and I move for the adoption of the Agreed Resolutions."

Speaker Redmond: "Any discussion? The question's on the Gentleman's motion for the adoption of the Agreed Resolutions. Those in favor say 'aye'. 'Aye'. Opposed, 'no'. The 'ayes' have it. The motion carried. Agreed Resolutions are adopted. Are there any Members that have a Bill on the Calendar that they want called? Any announcements? Any announcements? Anything for the good of the Order? Now, don't forget now, the Committee Chairmen, anything you want heard April the 8th, be sure you're posted. Have we adopted the Adjournment Resolution? Representative Lechowicz."

Lechowicz: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I move that the House stand adjourned after giving the Clerk ten minutes for a Perfunctory Session for the introduction of Bills. The House will stand adjourned until April the 4th in Perfunctory Session. We'll return back to the General Assembly on April the 8th at 12 noon. Happy Easter."

Speaker Redmond: "Is there any discussion? The question's on the Gentleman's motion that the House adjourn until April the 4th for perfunctory and April the 8th full Session. Those in favor indicate by saying 'aye'. 'Aye'. Opposed, 'no'. The 'ayes' have it. The motion carried, and the House now stands adjourned. Happy Easter."
