Clerk O'Brien: "The House will be in order. Prayer by the Chaplain, Father Krueger."

Reverend Krueger: In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost. Amen. O Lord, bless this House to Thy service this day. Our special prayers are asked for the Members of the Appropriations staff who are meeting today. It is said by William Feather: Nearly all bottlenecks are the result of somebody's refusal to think or decide at the time he was supposed to. Let us pray. We beseech Thee, O Lord. Make Thy servants, the Members of this House of Representatives, always to join together in seeking Thy service with their whole heart, to serve Thee with submissive minds, humbly to employ Thy mercy, and perpetually to rejoice in Thy blessings for the good of this state and all the people herein. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."
