

Speaker Redmond: "The House will come to order. Members please be in their seats. Be lead in prayer by Reverend Krueger, the House Chaplain."

Reverend Krueger: "In the Name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost. Amen. O Lord, bless this House with Thy service this day. Amen. Henry Wadsworth Longfellow wrote: The lowest ebb is the turn of the tide. Let us pray. Almighty Father, Lord of all life, Creator of all that is created, we give Thee our thanks for all the blessings of this day and all the days of our lives. We are indebted to Thee for our station in life; for our being called upon to serve the people of the State of Illinois in this House of Representatives; and for our opportunity to aid in the formation and preservation of just and sound government. Help us this day to build upon the past, ever looking to the future that the issues to be considered may have an effectual solution for the immediate good and everlasting benefit of those whom we do serve. Through Jesus Christ we pray. Amen."
