Speaker Ryan: "Third Reading. We're going to go back now to page three of the Calendar and pick up House Bill 145, Representative Terzich. Read the Bill. Representative Terzich, your Bill we just moved it a little bit ago. Did you want to take it back to the Order of Second Reading?"

Terzich: "Yes, Mr. Speaker, we adopted Amendment #6 making some typographical corrections and I have to move to table Amendment #2."

Speaker Ryan: "Well, Representative, you've got to move to take it back to the Order of Second Reading because..."

Terzich: "I would like to make the Motion to take it back to Second Reading."

Speaker Ryan: "Alright, the Gentleman moves to take House Bill 145 back to the Order of Second Reading. All in favor will signify by saying 'aye', all opposed 'no'. The 'ayes' have it. House Bill 145 is now returned to the Order of Second Reading. Representative Terzich."

Terzich: "Yes, Mr. Speaker, we adopted Amendment #6 making some typographical corrections and therefore, I would move to table Amendment #2."

purpose do you arise?"

Stearney: "Well, I'd like to ask the Gentleman a question."

Speaker Ryan: "He indicates he'll yield to your questions."

Stearney: "Amendment #6 was adopted?"

Terzich: "Yes."

Stearney: "Which provides that certain Sections of the Civil Practice Act would apply to the criminal case?"

Terzich: "Yes."

Stearney: "And now Amendment #2, what does that do?"

Terzich: "It's the same thing. The Amendment #6 was correcting lines in the Bill and also changing, correcting the word 'expressly'. That's all it was. It was just an Amendment to correct typographical corrections. So I have to table Amendment #2 and this replaces it."

Speaker Ryan: "Is there any further discussion. The Gentleman from Johnson, Representative McCormick. Is there any further discussion? That's Amendment #2 you want to table, Representative?"

Terzich: "That's correct."

Speaker Ryan: "The Gentleman moves to table Amendment #2 to House Bill 145. All in favor will signify by saying 'aye', all opposed 'no'. The 'ayes' have it and Amendment #6(sic) to House Bill 145 is tabled. Amendment #2. Amendment #2. Third Reading. On page three, House Bill 370. For what purpose does the Gentleman from Cook, Representative Madigan, arise?"

Madigan: "For the purpose of an announcement, Mr. Speaker..."

Speaker Ryan: "Just a minute, just a minute, Mr. Madigan. The House will be in Order. The Minority Leader has an announcement. Proceed."

Madigan: "Simply to announce the presence of one of our former colleagues and now a Congressman in the United States Congress. Former Representative John Perry, in the center

Speaker Ryan: "Withdraw Amendment #2. Further Amendments."

Clerk Leone: "Floor Amendment #3, Pierce, amends House Bill 104 on page one and so forth."

Pierce: "Amendment #3 has been worked out with the Sponsor, the Gentleman from Cook, the Republican staff and Democratic staff to try to bring legislation in conformity with the Constitutional Amendment adopted in November of 1980 that was short in the period on the scavenger sales. We determined a six months period of redemption was more practical than a three month period. The Constitutional Amendment authorized one as short as 90 days. That was considered to be too short to be practical so the Bill with this Amendment reduces some two years to six months, the period of redemption of a scavenger sale and therefore, implements the Constitutional Amendment passed by the voters in November 1980 that was sponsored by I believe by Senator Rock and Representative Madigan and I move the adoption of Amendment #3 which has been agreed to by the Sponsor."

Speaker Ryan: "The Gentleman has moved for the adoption of Amendment #3 to House Bill 104. Is there any discussion? All in favor to the adoption of Amendment #3 to House Bill 104 will signify by saying 'aye', all opposed 'no'. The 'ayes' have it and Amendment #3 is adopted. Further Amendments."

Clerk Leone: "No further Amendments."

Speaker Ryan: "Third Reading. The House will come to Order. We have a special guest here that's going to say a few words to us and to introduce him is none other than Eddie Kornowicz. Representative Kornowicz."

None other but 'Bingo' John Ferry. How about giving him a hand."

Ferry: "Thank you very much, Ed. Good afternoon, Mr. Speaker and my fellow Legislators. My name as you all know is Johnny Ferry, however; by Resolution is Mr. Bingo. The twenty happiest years of my life I spent right here on the floor of this magnificent House representing Chicago's south side. As a Member of the United States Congress I am serving with many distinguished former Members of this magnificent Body. However, it grieves me very deeply that reapportionment shall divide and possibly forever separate some true friendships that were so beneficial to this, to the people of the great State of Illinois. My old friend of many years, Bill 'Diche' of the retail petroleum industry has kindly offered me his facilities as 112 W. Cook St. for this evening. It houses the Petroleum Marketers Association and he let me have it for the purpose of slapping a few lies and indulging in a bit of old fashioned Polish hospitality. Say between five and eight p.m. tonight won't you please drop in, fellas, ladies, please. Thank you very much."

Speaker Ryan: "Thank you very much, Congressman. On page three under House Bills, Second Reading appears House Bill 64, Representative Matijevich. Read the Bill."

Clerk Leone: "House Bill 64, a Bill for an Act to amend the Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act, Second Reading of the Bill. No Committee Amendments."

Speaker Ryan: "Any Amendments from the floor?"

Clerk Leone: "None."

Speaker Ryan: "Third Reading. Is there anybody in the chamber that would like to have their Bill called on Second Reading before we move on here? The Gentleman from Johnson, Representative McCormick, for what purpose do you arise?"

McCormick: "Mr. Speaker, I'd like to table a Bill. That's a lot easier. House Bill 823. I'm the Chief Sponsor and it ought to be down the drain."

Speaker Ryan: "What was the number, Representative?"

McCormick: "823."

Speaker Ryan: "The Gentleman asks leave to table House Bill 823. Is leave granted? Leave is granted and House Bill 823 is tabled. Anybody else seek recognition? Representative Farley."

Farley: "Following that great downstate leader, C. L., I'd like to table House Bill 968, Mr. Speaker."

Speaker Ryan: "The Gentleman asks leave to table House Bill 968. Are there any objections? Hearing none, leave is granted and House Bill 968 is tabled. Anybody else care to have a Bill called on Second Reading? Table a Bill? The Gentleman from Cook, Representative Sandquist, for what purpose do you arise?"

Sandquist: "Yes, Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentleman of the House, I'd like to waive the appropriate rule for posting requirements so that House Bill 774 could be heard tomorrow in Registration and Regulation. It's one of three Bills. The other two were assigned originally to my Committee and the third one was assigned to Higher Education. It's now been reassigned to Registration and Regulation and would like to hear all three Bills together. I've cleared it with both sides of the aisle."

Speaker Ryan: "The Gentleman asks leave to suspend the appropriate posting rules for House Bill 774. Are there objections? Hearing none, leave is granted and the posting rules are suspended on House Bill 774."

That's the intent of the chair at this time. That we will be in Session tomorrow evening from six to nine. Are there any other announcements from Committee Chairmans or... Representative Yourell, for what purpose do you arise?"

Yourell: "I don't like to preempt the actions of the House but for three weeks now I've scheduled a meeting of the Election Laws Commission on the evenings and now tomorrow night that's, of course, we cannot meet because the House is in Session. Is that right?"

Speaker Ryan: "That's right, Representative."
