Speaker McPike: "The House will come to order. The Chaplain for...the Chaplain for today is Reverend Ronald Baker of the Jericho Missionary Baptist Church in Urbana, Illinois. Reverend Baker is the guest of Representative Tim Johnson."

Reverend Ronald Baker: "Let us pray. Turn about, our Heavenly Father, we thank You for this another privilege to come and assemble ourselves together again at this House. We come thanking You for all of Your blessings that You've bestowed upon us. We thank You for life, for health and for strength. We come asking that You would continue to bless Governor Edgar with good health, with strength that he might continue to lead our great state. We thank You for the men and women of the Senate and of the House that You have ordained that they would be in these positions of service at this time, and we pray that they will continue to receive the wisdom from You and that they might make right decisions from A to Z concerning all of the tough problems that they face. Oh, God, we ask that You would continue to bless this great state of ours and bless this Session. Oh, God, we pray in a special way, and we ask it in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. Amen. Thank God."

Speaker Currie: "On the Resolution, the Member from Cook, Representative Kubik."

Kubik: "Thank you, Madam Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. Because I believe this is the first Death Resolution of a former Member in this General Assembly, for those Members who are new Members, this is a tradition that we have had for former Members, who pass on in this House, and the tradition is that we adjourn after the adoption of a Resolution, and we honor Members of the House in that way. Henry Klosak was...a man that I knew for a long, long time. He was a Member who...who served in this House probably before most of us even arrived. He was very symbolic of the way this Legislature is, a man who came from a community who was a simple man. He was a lawyer. He was active in his community. He came to the Legislature, and he participated in the legislative process and he, as a matter of fact, ended his career as Assistant Minority Leader. Henry Klosak, when he left the General Assembly, went back to his community and became a mayor and was a mayor for 12 years. ...What I always will remember - I remember two things about Henry Klosak. One is that, he was a man who...who believed in limited government. He was a true conservative. He often told me that his job was not to pass legislation in the Illinois General Assembly, but rather to oppose it. Whether you agree with that philosophy or not, Henry was that type of person, and he believed strongly in it. I think the other thing that I remember about Henry Klosak is that he was a man who was part of another era, a man who went through a political organization, rose from precinct captain to justice of the peace to State Legislature. That's not very common any more and those days are long past. There's something to be said for that kind of...a way of moving up the political ladder, and Henry embodied what, I believe, was the best in public service. He was a very kind man. He was a family man, and he will be remembered fondly by many people who knew him. Thank you, Madam Speaker, and I would ask the indulgence of the Speaker and I know Representative Daniels is the lead Sponsor, but if we could have all Members added as Co-Sponsors to this Resolution."

Speaker Currie: "The Gentleman asks leave that all Members of the House be added to this Resolution. Is there leave? Leave is granted and on the Resolution, Representative Daniels."

Daniels: "Thank you, Madam Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. Those of us who served with Henry Klosak and knew him knew him as a strong person, strong in his beliefs, strong in his will and strong in his leadership. He served with distinction in the Illinois House, and he served with distinction as mayor of his hometown. Those of us who followed his career after he left the General Assembly that knew he was a mayor in Illinois that was listened to by all the mayors in the State of Illinois, frequently sought his consultation and frequently, at times, even if we didn't seek it, we got it because he knew what was important for the people of his city and the people of the State of Illinois. It was my pleasure to have served with him in the Illinois General Assembly. I learned a lot from him, and I'll carry that with me throughout my legislative career, but more importantly, he believed that government should do for people the things that they could not do for themselves. He exemplified that in his life. He carried it through in his career in the Legislature and in the City of Cicero. So, Madam Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, he represented a fine tradition in this General Assembly, and he leaves us and goes to his rewards now with the recognition that Henry Klosak made the General Assembly work, made the people of his district proud of him, and I was proud to serve with him. Thank you very much."

Speaker Currie: "Representative Daniels moves adoption of the Resolution. All in favor say 'aye'; opposed, 'no'. The 'ayes' have it. The Resolution is adopted, and the House now stands adjourned until tomorrow, Wednesday, March 3rd, at the hour of 11:30 a.m. leaving perfunctory time for the Clerk for the Introduction of Bills."
