Speaker Lang: "The House will be in order. Members will be at their seats. We shall be led in prayer today by Lee Crawford, the Pastor of the Cathedral of Praise Christian Center in Springfield. Pastor Crawford: "Let us pray. Gracious God, our Father, who art in Heaven, it is because of the divine and tender mercies that we are not consumed. Now sovereign and most gracious God in Heaven, we invoke Your blessings upon this august assembly, Your blessings upon the Speaker of this House, Your blessings upon the Leaders and all of its Members. May they be empowered with Your wisdom, with Your insight, with Your strength, with Your might, with Your spirit, that they may receive guidance. May they have a heart, the mind, and the will to do that which is the good, to do that which is the perfect will of God. This we pray kindly in Your Son's name, Amen."

Turner: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Point of personal privilege. Being that February is Black History Month, I'd like to take a moment to salute Hiram Revels, the first African American to serve in the United States Senate. Revels was born in Fayetteville, North Carolina on September 27, 1827. He attended Knox College and served in the Union Army from 1863 to 1865. Revels was an educator and a minister with limited political experience. Being an African American at the time, he had never even voted. Despite having little...

very little experience, Revels was elected to the Mississippi State Senate in 1869. Revels' colleagues viewed him as a man of great intelligence and a diligent worker. On February 23, 1870, Revels was elected to serve as the first African American in the United States Senate. He is one of only six African Americans to have ever served in the U.S. Senate. In Washington, Revels served on the Education Committee and the Labor Committee. He also focused on reconstruction issues and pushed for racial equality and justice for all. After his work in politics, Revels returned to his first love, preaching and teaching. He continued to work with local ministers and served as a professor and president of various colleges in Mississippi encouraging young... younger generations to educate and believe in themselves. Thank you."

Speaker Lang: "Thank you, Mr. Turner. Mr. Clerk on page 3 of the Calendar under the Order of Senate Bills-Second Reading, there appears Senate Bill 1. This Bill has already been read a second time. The Chair recognizes Speaker Madigan. Mr. Clerk, read the Bill and move it to Third, please."

Speaker Lang: "Speaker Madigan."

Speaker Madigan: "Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen, Senate Bill 1 is concerned with the current dispute between the Governor's office and the Senate concerning submittal of appointments by the Governor's office to the Senate. This has been an ongoing difference of opinion, difference regarding methods. And the purpose of the Bill is to put in the statute an outline and a road map that will make... make it possible for both, the Governor's office and the Senate, to move more efficiently and effectively through this process. Mr. Speaker, I'm available for questions."

Speaker Lang: "Gentleman moves for the passage of the Bill. The Chair recognizes Representative Bost."

Bost: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Will the Sponsor yield?"

Speaker Lang: "Gentleman yields."

Bost: "Yeah. Mr. Speaker... this was asked in committee. And just for my constituents' sake, I do want to ask this. If these appointments are not done quickly, there is some concern from higher education that the boards could possibly have some meetings and all of a sudden there... there wouldn't be the Members present available to do the business. Is there... what are the options of the Governor in this case?"

Speaker Madigan: "Mr. Bost, the expectation is that the Governor would act quickly, which is one of the problems."

Bost: "It... it would be then his responsibility to move quickly to make sure that we were still able to do the operation, not only at our Universities but everyplace else where these board members are."

Speaker Madigan: "That's... that's correct."

Bost: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Speaker Lang: "Representative Rose."

Rose: "Thank you. Will the Speaker yield, Speaker?"

Speaker Lang: "Speaker yields."

Rose: "Thank you. Mr. Speaker, and I... I share Representative Bost's concern. And I think there's a certain degree of reticence amongst the higher education community that, for example, Eastern if the Governor did not act... as I'm told there board would not be able to meet. And I think there's some concern. But are these... is this just a plot of gubernatorial appointments or is it a plot of appointments by other bodies within the state, such as picks by Leadership, for example?"

Speaker Madigan: "The Bill would apply to gubernatorial appointments confirmed by the Senate."

Rose: "And I... and I will... I think laud both yourself and our Leader as well as the Leadership on the Senate that, you know, we have these commissions all the time we create to these Resolutions and one of the problems we have is lots of times people don't get around to making appointments to those commissions and so they can't meet. And I... I do think that, you know, the Legislative Leadership is fairly quick to act, but in many cases we can't because somebody doesn't act. And I guess my only point from a policy stand point is, what might be good for the goose would be good for the gander. And I... I suspect that the fact that you're carrying this Bill tells me that we're probably not going to have a lot of Amendments to it. But I think from a policy stand point, there's probably some unexpected, or excuse me, unexpired terms or unfilled terms on those boards that Leadership in either Body would be able to, on both sides of the aisle... would be able to fill that haven't filled and we might wish to consider those as well, Mr. Speaker."

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Lang: "Mr. Sullivan. I'm sorry, please proceed. I didn't hear that he had asked a question."

Rose: "It really wasn't a..."

Speaker Madigan: "Just to ask Mr. Rose if there's some commission he wishes to be appointed to?"

Rose: "Very good, Mr. Speaker. Thank you."

Lang: "Please provide a list to Speaker Madigan, Sir. Mr. Sullivan."

Sullivan: "Thank you, Ladies and Gentlemen. Some people... to the Bill. Some people might say that the US Constitution and the Illinois Constitution are pretty remarkable documents. They're remarkable documents for many reasons, but one of the main ones is checks and balances amongst our system of governing. Right now we do not have checks and balances because we have a Governor that has decided to kind of thumb his nose at the Senate confirmation process. That's why we're here today, exclusively. So, for us to not pass this Bill would be to advocate our responsibilities of our system of government and checks and balances. So, I urge you all to vote for this Bill. Let's get it to the Governor to see what he chooses to do in regard to checks and balances upon our government. Thank you very much."

Lang: "The Gentleman has moved for the passage of Senate Bill 1. This is a Third Reading Roll Call. Those in favor of the Bill shall vote 'yes'; those opposed 'no'. The voting is open. Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Representative David Harris. Mr. Clerk, please take the record. On this Bill, there are 103 voting 'yes', 6 voting 'no', and 1 voting 'present'. This Bill, having received the Constitutional majority, is hereby declared passed. We're going to be doing a Death Resolution. I would ask that Members return to their seats and staff move to the rear of the Chamber. Under the Order of Agreed Resolutions, House Resolution 11. Mr. Clerk, please read the Resolution."

Clerk Bolin: "House Resolution 11, offered by Representative Jerry Mitchell.

RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be presented to the family of Staff Sergeant Justus S. Bartelt as a symbol of our sincere sympathy."

help us to memorialize Staff Sergeant Bartelt. And on Representative Bost's desk, Representative Stephens' desk, and... and between Representative Brauer and Representative Poe we have a collage of pictures that your more than welcome to take a look at after we have our memorial. The family have... are here and they are standing in the gallery, right behind me. We have Steve Bartelt, Jus's father; Jeannie Kyker, his mother; Kendall Kyker, his stepfather; Shayann Bartelt, his sister; Kellen Kyker, his sister; Farrel Wright and Jo Wright, grandma and grandpa; Susan Cavanaugh, loving aunt; Patricia Meyer, loving aunt; Kealey Meyer, a cousin, Dakota Meyer, a cousin, Becca Wagner, a cousin. We also have Marine David Bartelt, a cousin, and his wife, Jaya, and their son, Crewe. Staff Sergeant Bartelt was one of two Marines in the 2nd Regimental Combat Team, 2nd Battalion, 6th Marine Regiment, 2nd Marine Division, 2nd Marine Expeditionary Force from Camp Legune, North Carolina killed in Helmand Province, Afghanistan on the Pakistani border July 16, 2010 while supporting Operation Enduring Freedom. Staff Sergeant Bartelt had served in both Iraq and Afghanistan in four different deployments. The Staff Sergeant was supposed to be on desk duty when he volunteered to go on patrol with some British Commandos that were scheduled. Justus hated desk duty and loved being out and about. He often volunteered to go out with the new Marines that were just deployed, so that he could help them get the lay of the land. The two Marines were killed by an IED. And we talked about that the last time, another homemade bomb, booby trap. Many years ago at KSV Hospital in Dixon, Steve Bartelt told Jeannie at about 11:30 p.m. that if she could just hold out a little longer they would have an Independence Day baby. Jeannie's reply to that was, 'I don't think so', but she did. And Justus Bartelt was born on 12:30 a.m. on the 4th of July, 1983. Justus was a happy, proud, and daring youngster. What his cousin, Dave Bartelt, who's here with us today, didn't think of, Justin did. The cousins were practically inseparable growing up and were more like brothers than cousins. The boys were typical small town daredevils and they truly enjoyed each day in the small town of Polo. Jeannie said that if there was a family gathering or just friends over and firecrackers happened to go off, she immediately started looking for Justus and usually he was right in the middle of things. Justus started talking about the Marine Corp. when he was twelve years old. And he joined up right after high school graduation. His parents had to give permission since he was only seventeen years old. Staff Sergeant Bartelt was extremely proud of being a Marine. He was a true friend and considered the best friend by those close to him. He was a true and loyal family member and a true and loyal Marine. In talking to his parents, I found that they were extremely grateful for the outpouring of love and concern from the town of Polo and felt that everyone showed tremendous respect for Justus. There's no real comfort for the grief that a family endures when a family member's killed. Parents are not supposed to have to bury their children, but war time makes things different and the situation tends to steal the joy for life. But the Bartelt's are a military family that respects all branches of the military and shows concerns for everyone in harm's way. Strength comes in many forms. And the memories of a young Justus Bartelt will help the family heal and move forward. Senator Tim Bivens, the Senator from my area is here with me, and we're both proud and humble and trying to convey to you, my colleagues, that heroism and loyalty of this brave, fallen Marine, Staff Sergeant Justus S. Bartelt. May he rest in peace. And may the family find comfort over time. Semper Fi, Staff Sergeant Jeff Bartelt... Justus Bartelt. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."
