Speaker Madigan: "The House shall come to order. The Members shall be in their chairs. We ask the Members and their guests to refrain from starting their laptop computers, turn off all cell phones and pagers and rise for the invocation and the Pledge of Allegiance. We shall be led in prayer today by Pastor Greg White, who is with the Canton Assembly of God Church in Canton, Illinois. Pastor White is the guest of Representative Unes."

Pastor White: "Let us pray. Gracious Heavenly Father, we live in hard times which call for difficult decisions. These men and women who represent their constituents have the great burden of responsibility of government laid upon their shoulders. You have strategically placed each one here to make a difference in our great state. Give them understanding of our times and give them wisdom to know what they ought to do. Fill their minds with greater creativity and their hearts with unity. We seek Your guidance and Your help. The Psalmist reminds us You are a refuge in strength, the very present help in the time of trouble. Lord, be a very present help for those who represent us today. Fill their lives and their families with Your grace. In Jesus' name, Amen."

Speaker Madigan: "We shall be led in the Pledge of Allegiance by Representative Thapedi."

Thapedi - et al: "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Speaker Madigan: "Roll Call for Attendance. Representative Currie."

Currie: "Thank you, Speaker. Please let the record reflect the excused absence of Representative Golar."

Speaker Madigan: "Mr. Bost."

Bost: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Let the record reflect that Representative Jerry Mitchell is excused on the Republican side of the aisle and we're looking forward to an awesome day."

Speaker Madigan: "Mr. Clerk, take the record. There being 115 Members responding to the Attendance Roll Call, there is a quorum present. Ladies and Gentlemen, if everyone could take their seats, we have a very, very significant ceremony today. As you know, we're going to unveil the portrait of former Speaker, Lee Daniels, who is right next to me on the podium. Let me just say that Lee and I worked together, sometimes against each other, for many, many years. And Lee, I did the math here and I think you became the Minority Leader in '83 and you served all... as Minority Leader until '02 and then in '95 and '96 Lee served as the Speaker of the House. And I would say that he was a very, very competent, effective Leader, both as a Minority Leader and as a Speaker. I know; I was there. We had our differences, but there's one thing that people like me and President Cullerton and former Governors would say that, yes, there were a lot of differences, but when we would sit down and negotiate a settlement and it was time for people to go to work and get votes for the settlement, Lee Daniels went right out, did his job, got his votes. And for that,

Lee, congratulations very much. First, we're going to consider a Resolution by Lee's State Representative, Representative Reboletti, House Resolution 132. Mr. Clerk." Clerk Bolin: "House Resolution 132.

WHEREAS, The Honorable Lee A. Daniels was elected to serve sixteen terms, from January 1975 until January 2007, in the Illinois General Assembly as the State Representative of DuPage County; and

WHEREAS, The Honorable Lee A. Daniels was elected by his peers and colleagues in January 1983, to lead the House Republican caucus in the Illinois House of Representatives, thus making him the House Republican Leader; and

WHEREAS, Lee A. Daniels led his fellow Republicans for 20 years, from 1983 until 2003, which was a period in which both DuPage County and the entire State of Illinois experienced tremendous challenges but also great prosperity; and

WHEREAS, As the leader of the Republicans in the Illinois House of Representatives, Lee A. Daniels was a part of a long line of Illinois political leaders dating back to Abraham Lincoln, who occupied the same position on behalf of the Whig Party in 1838 and 1839; and

WHEREAS, Lee A. Daniels was honored in January 1995 when his colleagues elected him to the position of Speaker of the Illinois House of Representatives for the 89th General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, The 89th General Assembly leadership of Lee A. Daniels as Speaker of the House was marked with path-breaking achievements in Illinois history, including the reorganization of the Chicago Public Schools, passage of a charter school law, the reorganization of the systems of Illinois higher education, the extension of property tax cap opportunities to cover all 102 Illinois counties, expansion of the system of registration for sex offenders, public assistance reform, and a statewide program of help for persons with developmental disabilities that has received nationwide honor and recognition; and

WHEREAS, In recognition of his leadership as Speaker of the House, the Illinois State Capitol will from now on contain a permanent portrait memorial of the Honorable Lee A. Daniels, so that the people of Illinois can recognize and remember his life and public service; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-SEVENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we congratulate the Honorable Lee A. Daniels upon the occasion of the unveiling of his official portrait; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be presented to the Honorable Lee A. Daniels as a permanent reminder of this ceremony."

Speaker Madigan: "Mr. Reboletti."

Reboletti: "Thank you, Speaker Madigan and to Speaker Daniels. Ladies and Gentlemen of the Body, I have the pleasure of serving as a successor to Speaker Daniels. Little did I know, that when I was six years old, that Speaker Daniels began his career in the General Assembly, but little did I know later on, as I wanted to follow a career in public service, that he would become a mentor and a friend. And I can talk to you as a constituent of Lee's from the... as a person growing up and going to York High School, and what Lee did for the school systems throughout the district and throughout this state. And now as my son, who is nine years old, gets to enjoy the Lee A. Daniels Hub Park up the street from us where there's a water park and a splash park, new park equipment. And then we look at all the growth in the businesses throughout the area and to the leadership that he brought to the state. And today truly is an awesome day that we recognize one of the icons of State Government, referred to as one of the four tops for many years, as we saw negotiations happen down here in Springfield, and I was just a student at Eastern Illinois fascinated by the process. But I never thought I would be in the position here to be able to address both of you to all the work that you have done for the state. I know Lee's passion for his family. I had the chance to know them personally and also for his daughter here, the disabled community for Laurie, for who he is driven for... his passion is unchallenged anywhere. He has done all he possibly could and it's very difficult to fill those shoes. So, I know he has a contingent here. I know former Mayor Marcucci of Elmhurst is here with his wife. Elmhurst Alderman Susan Rose is here, and there are others that I don't want to name 'cause I don't want to miss everybody that are here to celebrate your day, Lee, and congratulations to you. Thank you for all your public service as you did in the past, and as you... I know that you continue on as an instructor at Elmhurst College, as you continue to fundraise for the Elmhurst Memorial Hospital, for the colleges and for all their worthy public entities and for private entities. I know you work for Seguin to fundraise for disabled communities. So, it's a tremendous day today, and Speaker Madigan, would you please add all the Members of the Body at the appropriate time. Thank you."

Speaker Madigan: "You've all heard the Gentleman's request. Is there leave? Leave is granted. All Members will be added as cosponsors to the Resolution. Mr. Reboletti moves for the adoption of the Resolution. Those in favor say 'aye'; those opposed say 'no'. The 'ayes' have it. The Resolution is adopted. It's now my great pleasure and honor to give you Speaker Lee Daniels, who will proceed to help us with the unveiling of the portrait."

Speaker Daniels: "Thank you. The Speaker just said, feels good, and I said, yeah, I really liked the two years I was Speaker. The trouble is he dethroned me after that short time. Well, thank you all. You honor me, but you honor yourself, because this august Body is one that is the greatest in the world, a great, deliberative Body, one that has awesome responsibility for what you do and for all of that I thank you for all your hard work that you are going to go in today, tomorrow, and in the future. Speaker Madigan and Leader Cross and Members of the Illinois House, I thank you for this honor, and this chance to once again remind myself what a privilege it was to not only serve as a Representative from the 46th Legislative District, but also to serve as a Leader on the Republican side and the Speaker of the House for two years. It was an honor and I am very, very humbled by being here once again today. I'd especially like to thank my family that is here today, and if you'd indulge me for a minute, I want to point out some of them. My sister, Pat, is here with her husband, Shawn, and of course my brother, Rich, is here with his wife, Ann. By the way, I'm one of eight kids, seven boys and one girl. So, I want to introduce to you if I might the matriarch of our family, the leader of our family, the speaker of our house, no question about it, my mother Evelyn Daniels. Can you imagine raising seven boys and one girl? Well, maybe, Mr. Speaker, that's how I learned how to fight. There's no question. And the bad part was my older brother would beat me up and then my younger brother started beating me up. So, I don't know. I had to defend for myself. And of course, with us today as well, my daughter, Laurie, who many of you have heard over the years. She had the privilege of addressing you on issues dealing with developmental disability. Laurie, we love you. My daughter Rachel who flew up from Orlando, Florida and brought one of my grandchildren, who is representing six of my grandchildren, Caroline. Rachel and Caroline Newnan from Orlando, Florida, and of course Tom and Amy Rankus, my son Tom and his wife Amy, and they have a daughter Rosy and on the way down we were told that Amy is going to have another child. Okay. Tom says what about me. You too, but she's going to have the baby, Tom. You haven't even told her friends and now we've told the whole world. Okay. Friends of Tom and Amy, they're going to have another baby. Sorry. All right. He's not surprised. My daughter Christina, who's our youngest child and my daughter Christina is with us today as well. And of course, I do want to recognize and make a few comments about the staff that I worked with for 32 years while I was in the Illinois House. All of the staff members, all the late hours, all the times, all the efforts put in and as the Speaker knows, this is what helps make an organization great. Laura Anderson, my former chief of staff is here, and of course Denise Pierce Reed is here as well, who worked for me for 152 years, at least she told me it felt like that. Jill Garrett is here as well, Sheryl Markay, Tammy, and Lori are here as well, and they are part of the staff that made everything work so well. And of course, if you'd indulge me for another second, my friends from back in my area are here as well, and they're in the gallery, if you'd please say hello to them. No question about it, we all know, those of us that serve in public life, that without their support and without their help, serving in the General Assembly simply would not be as possible as they make it. They make it easier for us and they make it tolerable in an effort to do. It's not often a person that, of my past, is able to acknowledge the receipt of an honor like this, because normally it's after you're gone that you are heaped with honor. So, I'm glad that I'm able here... to be here today to enjoy that honor and thank you and thank my Republican colleagues for the 20 years of service as your Leader. It was my honor at all times and all effort. And of course to my successor, Tom Cross, Tom, I know how tough the job is. I've been there, I know what you have to do day in and day out. I respect you for it and I wish you well as we move forward to solve some of the problems of the state. It's been a high honor that you've afforded me today and my family and to be elected as your Speaker. We worked hard and accomplished a great deal, but you all made it possible. You all made it work. You all made government function. But I do want to pay a special remark to my friend, Speaker Madigan, and how nice it is to call him my friend, Speaker Madigan, because Mike many times, although we were adversaries, we always knew that we had to get our job done. We always knew that at the end of the day we had to come together for the benefit of the people of Illinois and to deal with the issues of the state. I can think of no time that we've had a harder job to do than we do today: the budget, the debt, the challenges that we have. And of course, serving the great people of the State of Illinois, they expect it, they deserve it, and they need to have your constant vigilance and your attention. I know you will give that to them, and I wish you well as you go forward with the challenges that you face. Today, I'd like to briefly talk about our role in government. It can be best summarized in a quote that I found that many of you heard before delivered by Abraham Lincoln in the year 1854. The legitimate object of government is to do for a community of people, whether they need... whatever they need to have done, but cannot do at all or cannot so well do for themselves in their separate and individual capacities. In all that the people can individually do, as well, for themselves, government ought not to interfere. Government over the years has found out

STATE OF ILLINOIS
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

22nd Legislative Day

that people can do and care for themselves and take care of themselves. Those are people that, of course, are not as dependent upon the services of government, but I know firsthand what it means to help people that are our most vulnerable citizens. Whether they're suffering from a disability of no choice of their own or whether, God forbid, they are addicted to some kind of substance abuse, Government needs to be there for them. Where these are challenging times that each of us has to deliver our own priorities in life, I implore you and ask you to not forget the community as Abraham Lincoln observed of people that cannot do for themselves but depend upon your help. I have found my years here that there's not a single Legislator from the northern, western, eastern, or southern part of Illinois that doesn't truly care about people that need our help and have great compassion for people that have suffered as no fault of their own. Now is the time that we are calling for leaders to step forward, to demand that government continues its help to them, and expand that help in all categories whether it's in help... of health, education, or welfare, we need to be there for them. I ask you to remember that and I thank you as you meet Illinois' challenges which are so profound today that you may think at times that we're faced... what we are facing are nearly insurmountable. I've been there. I know the problems, but I will tell you they are not insurmountable. Each one of you is a leader in your own right - that's why you are there... that's why you are here. Those of us as citizens of this state need your assistance now more than ever. So, let me say this, thank you. Thank you for what you've done in the past. Thank you for what you're going to do today, and tomorrow, and in the future. Please remember those of us are citizens that need your help. I believe that in my heart what will come next may be Illinois General Assembly's greatest honors. To Tom Cross, the Republican Leader and my friend, congratulations to you, we need your leadership. To the Speaker, my thanks for your years of service to the people of Illinois, you've been great. Thank you all very much for this honor. You know, I've been in politics for a long time. I've made a few mistakes in my life. And there's Patti Bellock, your wife, your wife. Ladies and Gentlemen, my wife, Pamela and standing next to her is my friend Harry L. Crisp, who's looking at me like you did it again."

Bill 1466, Representative McAsey. Mr. Clerk, read the Bill."

Clerk Bolin: "House Bill 1466, a Bill for an Act concerning education. Third Reading of this House Bill."

Speaker Mautino: "Representative McAsey."

McAsey: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker, Members of the House. House Bill 1466 is a Bill to address Internet safety education in our schools. What it's doing is bringing the curriculum where... rather the... the safety education curriculum up-to-date with today's technology by simply making sure that instruction includes safe and responsible use of the Internet. It brings it in line with texting, different technologies that we have today. This is not a new mandate on schools. It's bringing current practice in line with current technology. And I would ask for the support of the Members of the chamber."

Speaker Mautino: "The Lady moves passage of House Bill 1466. And on that question, the Gentleman from Knox, Representative Moffitt."

Moffitt: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Will the Sponsor yield?"

Speaker Mautino: "She indicates she will."

Moffitt: "Just a... at one point there were, I think, at least one opponent. Have they removed their opposition? And I ask again if maybe you could say why. I... probably they viewed it as a... maybe a mandate. But would... could you address it? Are there any opponents?"

McAsey: "I'm unaware of whether individuals who had filed in opposition in committee have removed their opposition. There was not any oral testimony from opponents in the committee. This did pass committee unanimously. What I would suspect is that individuals would possibly think that this is a mandate on schools, but I would reiterate that this is not a new mandate on schools, that this is an insertion within the existing Internet safety curriculum to make sure that it's inline with our current technology that we're protecting our kids."

Moffitt: "Okay. I appreciate your response. Obviously, we all have that same objective of protecting kids. I just was.. wasn't sure why there had been at least one organization that listed as an opponent, but again, I'm.. probably assume it was that potential that it was an unfunded mandate. Thank you for your response and I agree with what you're trying to do."

McAsey: "Thank you."

Mautino: "Further discussion? The Gentleman from Crawford, Representative Eddy."

Eddy: "Thank you. Would the Sponsor yield?"

Mautino: "She indicates she will."

Eddy: "Representative McAsey, I think you nailed this, but I want to make sure for the record. The.. the understanding is that this is not an additional mandate, but a clarification and actually adds some specificity to the mandate that exists already for age appropriate curriculum for Internet safety instruction."

McAsey: "That is absolutely correct."

Eddy: "Okay."

McAsey: "This is not a new mandate on schools. This is specificity with regard to making sure that our students are being instructed with regard to risk and consequences in dissemination and transmission of sexually explicit images and videos within that existing curriculum."

Eddy: "Okay. Thank you. Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, I think that from time to time it doesn't hurt us to revisit some of the public policies that we've established regarding requirements in curriculum and make sure that those requirements are up-to-date. All this does is include new types of video and other types of devices to the existing curricular mandate that's been around a while for students to get some instruction on the danger of Internets and what Internet safety is like. So, I would urge people to support this. It's reasonable and she's worked very hard to make sure it's not an additional cost or mandate for schools."

Speaker Mautino: "No one seeking further recognition? The Lady moves that House Bill 1466 pass. All in favor vote 'yes'; opposed vote 'no'. Voting is open. Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Mr. Clerk, take the record. 115 voting 'yes', 0 voting 'no', 0 voting 'present'. House Bill 1466, having received the Constitutional Majority, is declared passed. Clerk Bolin: "House Bill 1488, a Bill for an Act concerning State Government. Third Reading of this House Bill."

Speaker Mautino: "Representative Rose."

Rose: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Last year this Body, pursuant to House Bill 5124, which took effect as probably like 96-1141, created a commission and a task force to look at how we deliver services to the disabled, mentally ill. It was a bipartisan issue. I was the House Sponsor here and Senator Bond was the Senate Sponsor. This is one of several Bills that came out of that summer/fall task force and essentially would recreate it moving forward. There were a number of recommendations that were made, some are legislative, some are rulemaking, some they didn't need either. The departments could just go ahead and do them anyway. The departments are moving forward on that. This would sort of reconstitute the task force to keep this process moving forward. I believe it's agreed to by everyone at this point and we expect Senator Crotty in the Senate will be carrying it again in a bipartisan fashion.
So, would ask for favorable passage as we did the original Bill last year."

Speaker Mautino: "The Gentleman moves passage of House Bill

House Resolution #20 appears on page 6 of the Calendar, under the Order of Resolutions. Representative Reitz."

Reitz: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The House Resolution just urges the State Board of Education to make people aware of Project Skipper. I had a constituent in my district that we had an unfortunate accident where a lady and two children drowned on ice and this program will urge... will show them how to be safer on ice. Talked to the state board; they plan on sending this out to the superintendents. And I'd appreciate an 'aye' vote."
