2 subsection (d) of this Section may be employed to detain
3 students for a period no longer than that required to alleviate 4 that threat to public safety.

5 (d) As used in this Section, "student booking station"
6 means a building, office, room, or any indefinitely established

11 control thereof; and

12 (2) a site at which students are detained in connection 13 with criminal charges or allegations against those 14 students, taken into custody, or engaged with law
15 enforcement personnel in any process that creates a law
16 enforcement record of that contact with law enforcement
17 personnel or processes.
