A BILL FOR

1 AN ACT concerning local government.

2 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,
3 represented in the General Assembly:

4 Section 5. The Public Water District Act is amended by 5 changing Section 7 as follows:

6 (70 ILCS 3705/7) (from Ch. 111 2/3, par. 194)

7 Sec. 7. The board of trustees may appoint a general manager
8 to serve a term of five years and until his successor is 9 appointed, and his compensation shall be fixed by resolution of 10 the board. Such general manager shall devote his time 11 exclusively to the affairs of the district, and shall have 12 power to employ, discharge and fix the compensation of all
13 employees of the district, except as in this Act otherwise
14 provided, and he shall perform and exercise such other powers
15 and duties as may be conferred upon him by the Board of 16 Trustees.

17 Such general manager shall be chosen without regard to his 18 political affiliation and upon the sole basis of his 19 administrative and technical qualifications to manage the 20 waterworks properties and affairs of the district, and he may 21 be discharged at a meeting of the board of trustees ~~only~~ upon a 22 majority vote of the members present ~~unanimous vote of the~~ 23 ~~board of trustees~~. Such general manager need not be a resident

1 of the district at the time he is chosen.
