21 Company to enter law enforcement; a champion for justice, she 22 embraced new concepts introduced by the Illinois Department of 23 Corrections in the early 1970s; she helped to open group homes

1 for youth reentering society from juvenile facilities and met
2 with schools to help open the doors for kids needing a support
3 system to regain admission; she was appointed to the Illinois
4 Prisoner Review Board in 1992, and she was a member for nearly 5 16 years; and

6 WHEREAS, Barbara Dye was active in several public,
7 professional, and social service organizations; she was a 8 longtime member of the National Association of Blacks in 9 Criminal Justice; in 1995, she accepted membership with the 10 East St. Louis Alumnae Chapter of the Delta Sigma Theta
11 Sorority, Incorporated; one of her best memories was helping 12 her husband campaign for and secure the office of St. Clair 13 County Coroner; and

14 WHEREAS, Barbara Dye was preceded in death by her parents
15 and her sister, Carol J. Morris; and

16 WHEREAS, Barbara Dye is survived by her husband, Calvin;
17 her daughter, Candace Hubbard; her stepchildren, Rayonda Dye
18 and Calvin (Rauslyn) Dye Jr.; her granddaughter, Alaina Dye;
