12 intended to be similarly served, and the corporation may join 13 any corporation created by the adjoining state having an 14 identical purpose and organized as a not-for-profit
15 corporation. Whenever any corporation organized under this Act
16 so joins with a foreign corporation having an identical 17 purpose, the corporation shall be permitted to do business in 18 Illinois as one corporation; provided (1) that the name, bylaw 19 provisions, officers, and directors of each corporation are 20 identical, (2) that the foreign corporation complies with the 21 provisions of this Act relating to the admission of foreign 22 corporation, and (3) that the Illinois corporation files a 23 statement with the Secretary of State indicating that it has 24 joined with a foreign corporation setting forth the name
25 thereof and the state of its incorporation.
