FISCAL NOTE ACT
MAY APPLY

A BILL FOR

1 AN ACT concerning local government.

2 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,
3 represented in the General Assembly:

4 Section 5. The Sanitary District Act of 1936 is amended by 5 changing Section 4.1 as follows:

6 (70 ILCS 2805/4.1) (from Ch. 42, par. 415.1)

7 Sec. 4.1. The board of trustees of any sanitary district 8 may arrange to provide for the benefit of employees and 9 trustees of the sanitary district group life, health, accident,
10 hospital and medical insurance, or any one or any combination
11 of such types of insurance. Such insurance may include 12 provision for employees and trustees who rely on treatment by 13 prayer or spiritual means alone for healing in accordance with 14 the tenets and practice of a well recognized religious 15 denomination. The board of trustees may provide for payment by 16 the sanitary district of the premium or charge for such 17 insurance.

18 On and after January 1, 2020, no benefit under this Section
19 may be provided to trustees.

20 If the board of trustees do not provide for a plan pursuant 21 to which the sanitary district pays the premium or charge for 22 any group insurance plan, the board of trustees may provide for 23 the withholding and deducting from the compensation of such of

1 the employees and trustees as consent thereto the premium or 2 charge for any group life, health, accident, hospital and 3 medical insurance.

4 The board of trustees may exercise the powers granted in 5 this section only if the kinds of such group insurance are 6 obtained from any insurance company authorized to do business
7 in the State of Illinois or any other organization or service
8 offering similar coverage. The board of trustees may enact an 9 ordinance prescribing the method of operations of such 10 insurance program.
