Sec. 11. Application for licensure original license.

- (a) Applications for original licenses licensure shall be made to the Department in writing on forms or electronically as prescribed by the Department and shall be accompanied by the required fee, which is not refundable. All applications shall contain information that, in the judgment of the Department, will enable the Department to pass on the qualifications of the applicant for a license as an architect. Any such application shall require information as in the judgment of the Department will enable the Department to pass on the qualifications of the applicant to practice architecture. The Department may require an applicant, at the applicant's expense, to have an evaluation of the applicant's education in a foreign country by an evaluation service approved by the Department Board in accordance with rules prescribed by the Department.
- (b) Applicants have 3 years from the date of application to complete the application process. If the process has not been completed in 3 years, the application shall be denied, the fee shall be forfeited, and the applicant must reapply and meet the requirements in effect at the time of reapplication.

An applicant who has graduated from an architectural program outside the United States or its territories and whose first language is not English shall submit certification of passage of the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) and a test of spoken English as defined by rule. However, any

- such applicant who subsequently earns an advanced degree from 1
- 2 an accredited educational institution in the United States or
- its territories shall not be subject to this requirement. 3

- 6 (Section scheduled to be repealed on January 1, 2020)
- 7 Sec. 12. Examinations; subjects; failure or refusal
- 8 examination.
- 9 The Department shall authorize examinations of (a)
- 10 applicants for a license under this Act at such times and
- 11 places as it may determine. The examination shall be of a
- character to give a fair test of the qualifications of the 12
- 13 applicant to practice as an architect.
- 14 (b) An applicant for examination is required to pay, either
- 15 to the Department or the designated testing service, a fee
- 16 covering the cost of providing the examination. Failure to
- appear for the examination on the scheduled date, at the time 17
- 18 and place specified, after the applicant's application for
- examination has been received and acknowledged by the 19
- Department or the designated testing service, shall result in 20
- 21 the forfeiture of the examination fee.
- 22 (c) If an applicant fails to pass an examination for
- 23 licensure under this Act within 3 years after filing the
- 24 application, the application shall be denied. However, such
- 25 applicant may thereafter make a new application for examination

1	accompanied by the required fee and must furnish proof of
2	meeting the qualifications for examination in effect at the
3	time of the new application.
4	The Department shall authorize examination of applicants as
5	architects at such times and places as it may determine. The
6	examination shall be in English and shall be written or written
7	and graphic. It shall include at a minimum the following
8	subjects:
9	(a) pre design (environmental analysis, architectural
10	programming, and application of principles of project
11	management and coordination);
12	(b) site planning (site analysis, design and
13	development, parking, and application of zoning
14	requirements);
15	(c) building planning (conceptual planning of
16	functional and space relationships, building design,
17	interior space layout, barrier free design, and the
18	application of the life safety code requirements and
19	<pre>principles of energy efficient design);</pre>
20	(d) building technology (application of structural
21	systems, building components, and mechanical and
22	<pre>electrical systems);</pre>
23	(e) general structures (identification, resolution,
24	and incorporation of structural systems and the long span
25	design on the technical aspects of the design of buildings
26	and the process and construction);

1	(f) lateral forces (identification and resolution of
2	the effects of lateral forces on the technical aspects of
3	the design of buildings and the process of construction);
4	(g) mechanical and electrical systems (as applied to
5	the design of buildings, including plumbing and acoustical
6	systems);
7	(h) materials and methods (as related to the design of
8	buildings and the technical aspects of construction); and
9	(i) construction documents and services (conduct of
10	architectural practice as it relates to construction
11	documents, bidding, and construction administration and
12	contractual documents from beginning to end of a building
13	project).
14	It shall be the responsibility of the applicant to be
15	familiar with this Act and its rules.
16	Examination subject matter headings and bases on which
17	examinations are graded shall be indicated in rules pertaining
18	to this Act. The Department may adopt the examinations and
19	grading procedures of the National Council of Architectural
20	Registration Boards. Content of any particular examination
21	shall not be considered public record under the Freedom of
22	Information Act.
23	If an applicant neglects without an approved excuse or

Sec. 14. Seal Display of license; seal. Every holder of a license as an architect shall display it in a conspicuous place in the principal office of the architect. Every architect shall have a reproducible seal, or facsimile, the impression print of which shall contain the name of the architect, the license number, and the words "Licensed Architect, State of Illinois". The architect shall affix the signature, current date, date of license expiration, and seal to the first sheet of any bound set or loose sheets of technical submissions used utilized as contract documents between the parties to the contract or prepared for the review and approval of any governmental or public authority having jurisdiction by that architect or under that architect's responsible control. The sheet of technical submissions in which the seal is affixed shall indicate those documents or parts thereof for which the seal shall apply. The seal and dates may be electronically affixed. The licensee may provide, at his or her sole discretion, an original signature in the licensee's handwriting, a scanned copy of the document bearing an original signature, or a signature generated by a computer. All technical submissions issued by any corporation, partnership, professional service corporation, or professional design firm as registered under this Act shall contain the corporate or assumed business name and design firm registration number, in addition to any other seal requirements as set forth in this Section.

"Responsible control" means that amount of control over and detailed professional knowledge of the content of technical submissions during their preparation as is ordinarily exercised by architects applying the required professional standard of care. Merely reviewing or reviewing and correcting the technical submissions or any portion thereof prepared by those not in the regular employment of the office where the architect is resident without control over the content of such work throughout its preparation does not constitute responsible control.

An architect licensed under this Act the laws of this jurisdiction shall not sign and seal technical submissions that were not prepared by or under the responsible control of the architect except that:

- (1) the architect may sign and seal those portions of the technical submissions that were prepared by or under the responsible control of persons who hold a license under this Act, and who shall have signed and sealed the documents, if the architect has reviewed in whole or in part such portions and has either coordinated their preparation or integrated them into his or her work;
  - (2) the architect may sign and seal portions of the professional work that are not required by this Act to be prepared by or under the responsible control of an architect if the architect has reviewed and adopted in whole or in part such portions and has integrated them into his or her work; and

(3) a partner or corporate officer of a professional design firm registered in Illinois who is licensed under the architecture licensing laws of this State, and who has professional knowledge of the content of the technical submissions and intends to be responsible for the adequacy of the technical submissions, may sign and seal technical submissions that are prepared by or under the responsible control of architects who are licensed in this State and who are in the regular employment of the professional design firm.

The architect exercising responsible control under which the technical submissions documents or portions of the technical submissions documents were prepared shall be identified on the technical submissions documents or portions of the technical submissions documents by name and Illinois license number.

Any architect who signs and seals technical submissions not prepared by that architect but prepared under the architect's responsible control by persons not regularly employed in the office where the architect is resident shall maintain and make available to the board upon request for at least 5 years

- 1 following such signing and sealing, adequate and complete

Any corporation, limited liability company, professional service corporation, or partnership qualifying under this Section and practicing in this State shall file with the Department any information concerning its officers, directors, members, managers, partners or beneficial owners as Department may, by rule, require.

- (c) No business shall offer the practice or hold itself out as available to offer the practice of architecture until it is registered with the Department as a professional design firm. Every entity registered as a professional design firm shall display its certificate of registration or a facsimile thereof in a conspicuous place in each office offering architectural services.
- (d) Any business seeking to be registered under this Section shall make application on a form provided by the Department and shall provide any information requested by the Department, which shall include but shall not be limited to all of the following:
  - (1) The name and architect's license number of at least one person designated as a managing agent. In the case of a corporation, the corporation shall also submit a certified copy of the resolution by the board of directors designating at least one managing agent. If a limited liability company, the company shall submit a certified copy of either its articles of organization or operating agreement designating at least one managing agent.

- (2) The names and architect's, professional engineer's, structural engineer's, or land surveyor's license numbers of the directors, in the case of a corporation, the members, in the case of a limited liability company, or general partners, in the case of a partnership.
- (3) A list of all locations at which the professional design firm provides architectural services.
- (4) A list of all assumed names of the business. Nothing in this Section shall be construed to exempt a business from compliance with the requirements of the Assumed Business Name Act.

It is the responsibility of the professional design firm to provide the Department notice, in writing, of any changes in the information requested on the application.

- (e) If In the event a managing agent is terminated or terminates his or her status as managing agent of the professional design firm, the managing agent and the professional design firm shall notify the Department of this fact in writing, by regular certified mail or email, within 10 business days of termination.
- 25 Thereafter, the professional design firm, if it has so 26 informed the Department, has 30 days in which to notify the Department of the name and architect's license number of the architect who is the newly designated managing agent. If a corporation, the corporation shall also submit a certified copy of a resolution by the board of directors designating the new managing agent. If a limited liability company, the company shall also submit a certified copy of either its articles of organization or operating agreement designating the new managing agent. The Department may, upon good cause shown, extend the original 30-day 30-day period.

If the professional design firm has not notified the Department in writing, by regular certified mail or email, within the specified time, the registration shall be terminated without prior hearing. Notification of termination shall be sent by regular certified mail to the address of record. If the professional design firm continues to operate and offer architectural services after the termination, the Department may seek prosecution under Sections 22, 36, and 23.5 36a of this Act for the unlicensed practice of architecture.

(f) No professional design firm shall be relieved of responsibility for the conduct or acts of its agents, employees, or officers by reason of its compliance with this Section, nor shall any individual practicing architecture be relieved of the responsibility for professional services performed by reason of the individual's employment or relationship with a professional design firm registered under this Section.

- 1 (g) Disciplinary action against a professional design firm
  2 registered under this Section shall be administered in the same
  3 manner and on the same grounds as disciplinary action against a
  4 licensed architect. All disciplinary action taken or pending

- (19) Signing, affixing, or allowing the architect's seal to be affixed to any technical submission not prepared by the architect or under the architect's responsible control.
- (a-5) In enforcing this Section, the Department or Board, upon a showing of a possible violation, may order a licensee or applicant to submit to a mental or physical examination, or both, at the expense of the Department. The Department or Board may order the examining physician to present testimony concerning his or her examination of the licensee or applicant. No information shall be excluded by reason of any common law or statutory privilege relating to communications between the licensee or applicant and the examining physician. examining physicians shall be specifically designated by the Board or Department. The licensee or applicant may have, at his or her own expense, another physician of his or her choice

1 present during all aspects of the examination. Failure of a licensee or applicant to submit to any such examination when directed, without reasonable cause as defined by rule, shall be grounds for either the immediate suspension of his or her license or immediate denial of his or her application.

If the Secretary immediately suspends the license of a licensee for his or her failure to submit to a mental or physical examination when directed, a hearing must be convened by the Department within 15 days after the suspension and completed without appreciable delay.

If the Secretary otherwise suspends a license pursuant to the results of the licensee's mental or physical examination, a hearing must be convened by the Department within 15 days after the suspension and completed without appreciable delay. The Department and Board shall have the authority to review the licensee's record of treatment and counseling regarding the relevant impairment or impairments to the extent permitted by applicable federal statutes and regulations safeguarding the confidentiality of medical records.

Any licensee suspended under this subsection (a-5) shall be afforded an opportunity to demonstrate to the Department or Board that he or she can resume practice in compliance with the acceptable and prevailing standards under the provisions of his or her license.

(b) The determination by a circuit court that a licensee is subject to involuntary admission or judicial admission, as

- provided in the Mental Health and Developmental Disabilities Code, operates as an automatic suspension. Such suspension will end only upon a finding by a court that the patient is no longer subject to involuntary admission or judicial admission, the issuance of an order so finding and discharging the patient, and the recommendation of the Board to the Secretary that the licensee be allowed to resume practice.
