SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 780

WHEREAS, The members of the Illinois Senate recognize that the sequencing of the human genome is one of the most significant scientific accomplishments of the past hundred years and expresses support for genetic counselors, who are using this research to improve the lives of many throughout the State; and

WHEREAS, Genetic counselors empower patients and their families with vital healthcare information, guidance, and emotional support to help them understand their family history, evaluate genetic testing options, and make informed choices based on test results; and

WHEREAS, There are over 150 certified genetic counselors in Illinois working in prenatal, fertility, pediatrics, metabolic, cardiovascular, neurology, and cancer care; and

WHEREAS, Many people benefit from increased genetic sequencing research and genetic counseling, including anyone with a condition linked to a specific gene or anyone who has a family history of an inherited disease; and

WHEREAS, The 5,000 genetic counselors across the country streamline the healthcare industry by ensuring the right tests are being ordered, avoiding costly and unnecessary costs and tests, by helping patients and providers understand complex test results and how to best use this information, by helping consult with potential parents on the intimidating potential of passing on inherited diseases, by sharing information with family members, and by providing recommendations for community support services; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FIRST GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we declare November 14, 2019 as "Genetic Counselor Awareness Day" in the State of Illinois.

Senator Hunter offered the following Senate Resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Assignments:

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 797

WHEREAS, The Auditorium Theatre of Roosevelt University, a 501 (c)(3) nonprofit organization, is currently celebrating its 130th anniversary; and

WHEREAS, The Auditorium Theatre was first unveiled to great acclaim on December 9, 1889 in an evening featuring a performance by legendary opera singer Adelina Patti and an impassioned dedication speech by President Benjamin Harrison; and

WHEREAS, Since its inception, the Auditorium Theatre has been an artistic venue for all people, regardless of race, creed, or income; and

WHEREAS, Due to its cultural and historic prominence, the Auditorium Theatre possesses the distinction as both a National Historic Landmark and a Designated Chicago Landmark; and

WHEREAS, Chicago's status as a world-class city and a destination for sublime cultural experiences has been shaped, in part, by the Auditorium Theatre's contributions throughout the years, including the

[November 12, 2019]

theatre's ascendancy in the wake of the Great Chicago Fire and its role in securing Chicago as the location for the World's Columbian Exposition of 1893; and

WHEREAS, Over 300,000 patrons visit the Auditorium Theatre each year, representing diverse backgrounds and a wide array of cultural perspectives; and

WHEREAS, Throughout the 2019-2020 season, the Auditorium Theatre is demonstrating its commitment to diversity and inclusion by presenting an eclectic array of exceptional programming so that all people from surrounding communities will have the opportunity to find inspiration, entertainment, and enjoyment through these varied artistic experiences; and

WHEREAS, The Auditorium Theatre was recently awarded the League of Historic American Theatres' Outstanding Historic Theatre Award in recognition of its substantial contributions to arts and culture and its profound historic significance; and

WHEREAS, It is important to celebrate the Auditorium Theatre's unparalleled history and incomparable tradition; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FIRST GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that in recognition of the Auditorium Theatre's initial unveiling, we declare December 9, 2019 "Auditorium Theatre Day" in the State of Illinois, and we acknowledge this historic landmark's commitment to artistic excellence and community inclusion while celebrating the artists, performers, world leaders, authors, musicians, and cultural icons who have graced the auditorium's stage and enthralled tens of millions of patrons over the years; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be presented to the Auditorium Theatre as a symbol of our respect and esteem.

CONSIDERATION OF RESOLUTION ON SECRETARY'S DESK

Senator Fine moved that Senate Resolution No. 749, on the Secretary's Desk, be taken up for immediate consideration.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Fine moved that Senate Resolution No. 749 be adopted.

The motion prevailed.

And the resolution was adopted.

READING BILL FROM THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES A SECOND TIME

On motion of Senator E. Jones III, House Bill No. 1268 was taken up, read by title a second time and ordered to a third reading.

SENATE BILL RECALLED

On motion of Senator Manar, Senate Bill No. 533 was recalled from the order of third reading to the order of second reading.

Senator Manar offered the following amendment and moved its adoption:

AMENDMENT NO. 1 TO SENATE BILL 533

AMENDMENT NO. 1. Amend Senate Bill 533 by replacing everything after the enacting clause with the following:

"Section 5. The Time Standardization Act is amended by changing Section 1 as follows:
(5 ILCS 440/1) (from Ch. 1, par. 3201)

Sec. 1. Notwithstanding how time is advanced pursuant to the federal Uniform Time Act of 1966, 15 U.S.C. 260a, at ~~At~~ two o'clock ante meridian of the second Sunday in March of 2020 ~~each year~~, the standard time in this State shall be advanced one hour ; and thereafter, daylight saving time shall be the year-round standard time of the entire State , ~~and at two o'clock ante meridian of the first Sunday in November of each year the standard time in this State shall, by the retarding of one hour, be made to coincide with the mean astronomical time of the ninety degrees of longitude West from Greenwich, the standard official time of which is described as United States standard central time, so that between the second Sunday of March at two o'clock ante meridian in each year and the first Sunday in November at two o'clock ante meridian in each year the standard time in this State shall be one hour in advance of the United States standard central time: Provided, however, that nothing in this Act shall be so construed as to be in contravention of any federal law or authorized order of the Interstate Commerce Commission with respect to the time zones of the United States.~~ And in all laws, statutes, orders, judgments, rules and regulations relating to the time of performance of any act of any officer or department of this State, or of any county, township, city or town, municipal corporation, agency or instrumentality of the State, or school district or school authority or relating to the time in which any rights shall accrue or determine, or within which any act shall or shall not be performed by any person subject to the jurisdiction of the State, and in all the public schools and in all institutions of the State, or of any county, township, city or town, municipal corporation, agency or instrumentality of the State or school district or school authority, and in all contracts or choses in action made or to be performed in the State, it shall be understood and intended that the time shall be the time prescribed in this Section.

~~If the date on which time is to be advanced one hour, the date on which time is to be retarded one hour, or both, as set forth under Section 260a of the federal Uniform Time Act of 1966 (15 U.S.C. 260a), as now or hereafter amended, renumbered, or succeeded, differs from either or both of those dates as set forth under this Section, then the dates set forth under the federal law shall control and shall apply in Illinois, notwithstanding the dates set forth in this Section.~~

[November 12, 2019]
