SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 630

WHEREAS, It is estimated that 23.6 million people in the United States, or 7.8% of the total population, are affected by diabetes; and

WHEREAS, The American Diabetes Association estimates that about 60% to 70% of people with diabetes have mild to severe forms of nervous system damage due to diabetic peripheral neuropathy; and

WHEREAS, Diabetic peripheral neuropathy is a serious condition that damages nerve fibers due to prolonged exposure to high amounts of glucose in the bloodstream; and

WHEREAS, Diabetic peripheral neuropathy can occur whether a person has Type I diabetes, also known as juvenile diabetes, or Type II diabetes, which is typically adult-onset; and

WHEREAS, Diabetic peripheral neuropathy accounts for more diabetes-related hospitalizations than any other complication; and

[February 24, 2012]

WHEREAS, Diabetic peripheral neuropathy often causes intense pain, frequently described as tingling, shooting, burning, pins and needles, or sharp pain due to nerve damage; and

WHEREAS, Sixty-four percent of diabetic nerve pain sufferers reported that their pain interferes with the daily activities that matter to them, and 80% of diabetic nerve pain patients reported problems with mobility; and

WHEREAS, Diabetic nerve pain may make it difficult to stay physically active and exercise, a critical component of diabetes management, which may contribute to worsening glycemic control and make sufferers more likely to develop additional health problems, including more nerve damage; and

WHEREAS, According to the American Diabetes Association, patients with diabetes should be screened for diabetic peripheral neuropathy at diagnosis and at least annually; and

WHEREAS, It is important that people with diabetes be aware of the dangers and warning signs of diabetic peripheral neuropathy and make healthy lifestyle choices to potentially delay the onset or slow down the progression of this life-changing condition; and

WHEREAS, Diabetic peripheral neuropathy is a serious health issue deserving of attention from the General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, An increase in community awareness of risk factors and symptoms related to diabetes can improve the likelihood that people with diabetes will get the attention they need before suffering devastating complications; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-SEVENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we designate November 2012 as Illinois Diabetes Month, during which time we encourage all Illinoisans to recognize the many dangers posed by diabetes and what steps they should take to potentially delay the onset or slow the progression of diabetic peripheral neuropathy and remember there are options to treat the pain associated with it.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 59

WHEREAS, From the 19th century to the present, the Rock Island Arsenal has been a part of the economic and government service history of the Quad Cities; and

WHEREAS, From an employment peak of 18,467 during the height of World War II, the arsenal's workforce has shrunk to less than half that number; and

WHEREAS, The arsenal remains a major economic engine in the region, with more than 8,500 employees and more than 70 federal and commercial tenants; the arsenal also adds some $1 billion to the local economy and impacts 14,000 community jobs; and

WHEREAS, The Joint Manufacturing and Technology Center at the arsenal is one of the world's largest weapons manufacturing facilities; the arsenal and its employees have repeatedly proven that, for small-quantity orders and specialty jobs, it has the expertise, equipment, and dedication to the defense of the United States that cannot be equaled in private industry; and

WHEREAS, A reduction at the Rock Island Arsenal would not only threaten the local economy, but would also jeopardize the readiness of United States forces to quickly respond in the war on terror or in any future conflict; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-SEVENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING HEREIN, that we urge the President of the United States, the United States Congress, and the Secretary of the Department of Defense to protect the Rock Island Arsenal from any future reductions or other budget cuts; and be it further

RESOLVED, That suitable copies of this Resolution be delivered to the President of the United States, the Secretary of the United States Department of Defense, and the members of the Illinois congressional delegation.
