PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR KOEHLER)

To the appointment.

SENATOR McCLURE:

Thank you, I've got no -- nothing against this former representative to be on the Racing Board, except, for the fact that while we were in the Executive Appointments Committee, I asked him if he had a reasonable knowledge of horse breeding. He said that he did not. I then followed up and gave him a chance to clean up his answer, he, to his credit, was honest and said that he did not. Now by statute, there's very few requirements for this position. One of which, by statute, is required that they have to have a reasonable knowledge of horse breeding. So, you know, I don't want to vote against this appointment, but based upon what the statute says, he has given me no choice based upon his answers in committee. So, for that, I do urge a No vote. It's nothing personal against the appointment. I think he's very well qualified in every other capacity, except, for the fact that one of the two requirements he doesn't meet. So, I would urge a No vote. Thank you, Mr. President.
