PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DEMUZIO)

Senator Rock, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR ROCK:

Thank you, Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate. If I could have your attention, the committee schedule obviously is burdensome this week. We will begin again tomorrow at the hour of one o'clock to afford those committees that are meeting tomorrow morning an extra hour. In the meantime, while we are here, and we do have approximately forty-five minutes before the next committee begins, my suggestion is, and I've spoken with Senator Philip, that we start on Senate bills 2nd reading. As you know, as bills are amended particularly with committee amendments they...of necessity go upstairs to Enrolling and Engrossing so that copies can and will be made available, and the paper work is almost insurmountable. What I would ask is if the members would each knowing obviously their own legislative proposal, if we can attempt to move those that are not so very controversial, and attempt...there are bills that came out of committee without any controversy, there are amendments that are to go on virtually without any controversy, and if we could kind of discipline ourselves to handle the noncontroversial ones, we'll have plenty of time within which to fight, but let's see if we can move the paper along. So in that regard, Mr. President, I'd suggest that we start on Senate bills 2nd reading, asking the members to skip only those where there might be some controversy and try to move as many as we can in the next forty minutes.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DEMUZIO)

All right. With leave of the Body, we will go to Senate bills 2nd reading, top of page 2. I am told there are two hundred sixty-eight bills on 2nd reading and a hundred more coming tomorrow. SENATOR KARPIEL:

Yes, thank you, Mr. President. Amendment No. 1 was suggested by the committee...by the Democratic staff in the committee. They felt that the wording in the bill was a little too cumbersome. Provisions of the bill effective only in the case in which the child's absence has not been authorized by the parent. want to afford Senator Netsch every courtesy. Senator Netsch.

SENATOR NETSCH:

...this relates to the bill of the...that represents the findings of the Joint Committee on Utility Regulation. What we are requesting is that the bill be heard and acted on after the deadline of this week. This is with the concurrence of the chairman and minority spokesman of the Committee on Agriculture, and the President of the Senate and the minority leader. It obviously is a very complicated bill and, in fact, it is about two hundred and four pages. It is not fully available to the members as yet and it seemed only reasonable that it be given an ample opportunity to be fully heard. So what...we will do is, the bill is posted for tomorrow. If the amendment is available, and we hope it will be, it will be put on the bill tomorrow so that people can see the text of the bill. It is only a shell bill at the moment. I understand from Senator Joyce there will some witnesses heard, but the bill will not be finally heard and acted on until next week when there is more time for it. That is the purpose of the motion and I would now move adoption of the motion.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DEMUZIO)
