REVEREND ZIVNEY:

(Prayer given by Reverend Zivney)

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

SENATOR BUTLER:

Mr. President, I move that reading and approval of the Journals of Friday, April 16th; Monday, April 19th; Tuesday, April 20th; Wednesday, April 21st; Thursday, April 22nd; Friday, April 23rd; Tuesday, April 27th; Wednesday, April 28th; Thursday, April 29th; Monday, May 3rd; Tuesday, May 4th; and Wednesday, May 5th, in the year 1993, be postponed, pending arrival of the printed Journal.

SENATOR RAICA:

Mr. President, a point of parliamentary inquiry, please.

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

State your point.

SENATOR RAICA:

Mr. President, I guess, just going along with what the Reverend said - if I recognized the wrong that was committed - yesterday in Public Health, there was a House Bill - 565 - that was reported out and is possibly going to be read in by the Secretary this morning, that did not pass Public Health. And I don't know what the proper procedure is to challenge, but it was an incorrect motion that was made in Committee, and therefore, that bill did not report out of Public Health.

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

Yeah. Senator Raica, the Parliamentarian will -- research that question, and we will get back to you. Senator Raica.

SENATOR RAICA:

Thank you, Mr. President. I would ask that the Secretary not read into the record Public Health Committee's findings under Rule 28...

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

All right. Senator Raica.

SENATOR RAICA:

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

Just keep your powder dry. I'll ask the Secretary not to read it in today.

SENATOR RAICA:

Thank you, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

WAND-TV requests permission to videotape today's proceedings. Is leave granted? Leave is granted. Senator Demuzio, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR DEMUZIO:

Well, thank you, Mr. President. I have a parliamentary inquiry. As of yesterday, on Wednesday's Calendar, on page 26, my motions to suspend the rules did, in fact, appear in the proper order. Today's Calendar, Thursday, May the 6th, the motions now appear as motions to discharge committee. I did not file motions to discharge committee; I filed motions to suspend rules. Can you enlighten me as to the reason as to why these were now combined? This is a -- an unprecedented action in nineteen years that this Senator's been here.

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

Yeah. Senator Demuzio, it's the opinion of the Chair that these are motions to discharge. Senator Demuzio.

SENATOR DEMUZIO:

Perhaps you can enlighten me then as to the reason why they are -- three of them are duplicated on page 32 and 33 of the Calendar?

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

Yeah. Senator, those are the -- the extension of deadlines. It's -- it's not -- you know. Different motions. Senator Demuzio.

SENATOR DEMUZIO:

Well, I -- I guess that's my point, Mr. President. Yesterday, the interpretation were that these were motions to re-refer to -- from the Rules Committee to committees, and I just cannot understand why the -- the Chair or the Parliamentarian has taken it upon himself now to classify these motions as motions to discharge. I didn't file motions to discharge.

PRESIDENT PHILIP:

Well, let me say this: Under closer scrutiny, the -- the Secretary of the Senate decided to put those motions in the -- their proper place, and he's done it. Now, 2nd Readings, the bottom of page 15. House Bill 35. Senator Hawkinson. Senator Hawkinson. Read the bill.

Very often on the Floor of the Senate here we have debates that -- that get quite heated and quite lengthy, but I would like to point out that one of them did lead to the ranking farm leader in the Democrat side of the aisle from the City of Chicago, gave cause for Chairman LaPaille to be mentioned in the Wall Street Journal today in the editorial, with his picture. And I know that we don't have any sort of fines for that, but I think he owes a lot of people who were party to that -- I think he owes them a dinner or something along those lines, and I think he should pay up.

SENATOR FAWELL:

I -- I want to thank everyone for their phone calls and -- and -- and for helping me get my bills out of committee. I -- I think I did a better job not being here than if I had tried to get them out. I -- I do appreciate your -- your kind thoughts, and -- and I'm fine, and -- and thank you very much.

To say certainly that it is glad to have -- certainly glad to have Bev back with us. Good to see her back. I have a point of personal privilege.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR WEAVER)

State your point.

SENATOR WATSON:

Announcement that the Education Committee will meet at 1 o'clock in Room A-1 in the Stratton Building, and that's of course, almost immediately, but as soon as we adjourn we will move ourselves over there. Just another announcement on the softball practice last night. We had a good turnout of Republicans there. Obviously, guys have been working out at home and look like they're in pretty good shape. Now tonight -- last night Democrats couldn't be there, but tonight now at 6:30, same location, we will have another practice, Republicans certainly, those of you there last night, and anyone else, they are welcome to be there. Practice -- we're taking it serious this year. We want to -- we hadn't won in forty-eight years; we might as well win it twice in a row. So we need to have you there tonight at 6:30. And if you've got a map -- I got a map right here if you need to know where to go.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR WEAVER)

Senator Karpziel, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR KARPIEL:

On a point of personal privilege -- announcement. Thank you. There will be -- the Senate Executive Committee yesterday recessed. We are not finished with our work, and we will continue the meeting at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning in Room 212. For all Members of the committee, please don't forget that. And for all of you that still have bills in the committee that you wish to have heard, please remember we will continue the meeting at 8 o'clock

SENATOR MAITLAND:

Purpose of announcement, Mr. President. The Senate Committee on Appropriations will meet in 212, Room 212, ten minutes after adjournment.

SENATOR GEO-KARIS:

Mr. President and Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, a point of personal privilege.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR WEAVER)

Welcome to Springfield. Senator Demuzio, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR DEMUZIO:

Mr. President, again on a parliamentary inquiry. Yesterday, the Chair had indicated - actually two days ago the Chair had indicated - that we would go to Motions to Suspend so that there would be a -- an opportunity, if the motions in fact were successful, for those bills that we were attempting to re-refer, would have the opportunity for a hearing. Knowing full well that tomorrow is the last day for substantive bills, and some of those

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR WEAVER)

Your comments will be duly noted. Senator Severns, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR SEVERNS:

Thank you, Mr. President. On a point of personal privilege.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR WEAVER)

State your point, Senator.

SENATOR SEVERNS:

While I'd like to thank Members and different ones who've expressed their sympathy on the report of my father's death, I'm glad to report it was greatly exaggerated - unfortunately, in two newspapers. He's alive and well, and if it's not raining in Decatur, where it's usually sunny, I'm certain he's on the golf course. I just wanted to thank the Members. Thank you.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR WEAVER)

Well, we're happy for that. Thank you. Senator Fawell, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR FAWELL:

Thank you very much. I'd like to table House Bill -- 672, at the request of the House sponsor.
