SENATOR CULLERTON:

When I came here today, Senator Martinez, I -- I looked up and I noticed that you're in the Chair. And this is the first time I ever noticed that. So this would be the first time a Latina has presided over the Illinois Senate. It seems like it's an historic moment. I just wanted to make sure that you knew where all the buttons were, you knew where are all the -- all the... But congratulations, Senator. Congratulations.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR MARTINEZ)

Thank you. Senator Link, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR LINK:

Thank you, Madam President. I also want to compliment you as being the second most beautiful woman up on the podium, because I could never go against my Majority Leader as the -- the most beautiful woman up there. But I -- I -- I know my -- I know my pecking order real well. But I do want to make an announcement that Senator Meeks and Senator Silverstein are in their district doing district business today. So I want to announce their absence today.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR MARTINEZ)

Thank you, Senator. And I'm glad to be the second one behind Debbie Halvorson. Senator Collins, what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR COLLINS:

Madame President, thank you. I rise for a point of personal privilege.

Please state your purpose.

SENATOR COLLINS:

First of all, I would like to say congratulations. And I was fervently seeking someone to help me with my Spanish, to say congratulations in Spanish, but of course, I failed in that endeavor. So -- but I just want to say, in English then, I appreciate your leadership, your commitment, your hard work. Your leadership is well deserved to serve in the pulpit in the Chair, and I look forward to working with you. And it's a wonderful experience to come in and a bright smile that you always have. So I just want to say congratulations. But I also want to say as well, for Mrs. Springer, I want to take credit for the wonderful grandson that has worked with me as my legislative assistant. I want to thank you for instilling in him the values, the good values that we all stand and we all celebrate here. And I just want to wish you a happy ninetieth birthday. I'm so proud - I'm sure you are - to have Gabe as my legislative assistant.

SENATOR RIGHTER:

Thank you, Madam President. First of all, from our side of the aisle, we'd like to join in congratulating you for your first time here in the Chair. Things have gone remarkably smooth since you've been in the Chair today. Like most Members, I have things that I want to get back to back in the district. And one of mine, most important, is my oldest son has his first spelling bee today. And I know that one of the words on the list that he was given to study is the word "adjourn". And I'm wondering -- I've been going through my notes here, trying to figure out exactly what the spelling of that was, and I'm wondering, Madam President, if you could help me with that. If not spelling it, maybe moving along the process. Do you have an idea when we'll Senator Righter, first and foremost, I want to wish your son the very best on his test today. I already know he's going to do very well; he's got a very smart dad. Second is the fact that we're just waiting and making sure that all bills have been turned in, and we want to be very inclusive, as possible, to make sure that everybody has done their job in getting our -- the bills filed. So, we will get back to you in a little bit and let you know what we -- where we're at. Madam Secretary, Introduction of Bills.
