SENATOR HUTCHINSON:

I would like to alert this august Body that we have a number of really wonderful people in this Chamber who were born in May. And since May is such a highly contentious month, I thought it would be really good to kind of at least note that more things are coming this month and come see me if you would like to have a "May Birthdays Baby Caucus Party", because there's so many of us that bless this Chamber that came in that month. But first off is Senator Heather Steans. Her birthday

STATE OF ILLINOIS

REGULAR SESSION

is on Mother's Day, May 8th. So we won't be here to say happy birthday to her, so I wanted to make sure that we said happy birthday to her today. On the 10th is Senator Kim Lightford. The 14th is Senator Emil -- no, the 14th is Senator A.J. Wilhelmi. The 16th is Emil Jones. The 20th is me and the 22nd is Ed, and May 15th, Senator Brady. So we have a whole lot of May birthdays. So we're going to have a whole lot of cake. But happy birthday first to Senator Heather Steans.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR SCHOENBERG)

Thank you. Happy birthday, Senator Steans. And happy birthday in advance to everyone else whose birthday happens to fall in the month of May. We're looking forward to the party that Senator Hutchinson's going to generously pay for. Senator Pankau, your birthday is not in the month of May. For what purpose do you seek recognition?

SENATOR PANKAU:

No, it is not, Mr. President. Thank you very much. For the purpose of an announcement.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR SCHOENBERG)

Please state your announcement.

SENATOR PANKAU:

Thank you, Mr. President. While you're taking a breath up there, until you get on a roll again, I just want to remind everybody that this coming Wednesday, Wednesday evening, Capitol Capers is happening again. The Conference of Women Legislatures -- Legislators puts on a show every two years. Now I know a lot of you have volunteered to be in the show, so I want to remind you that rehearsals are Monday night and Tuesday night and then of course the show is on Wednesday. And the costume this year is going to be black on black. So, black bottoms, black top, and also, because it has to do with the Wizard of Oz, if you could bring an old license plate of yours, because we're going to be going down the yellow brick road, et cetera, et cetera. So, we're going to be wearing our old license plates. So, bring your license plates. We'll have the string and everything else for you. Black on black is the uniform. And of course, don't forget our rehearsals, because we -- we honestly need them, people. We aren't that good. So, Monday night and Tuesday night - Monday night is over at the Howlett Building, Tuesday night is over at the Hilton, where the show is at. Thank you, Mr. President.

Ladies and Gentlemen, I'd like to introduce to you a young man. He just -- just got back from college, from Oral Roberts University. Finished his second year. He's got a year and a half left. He's studying marketing there, hopefully to come back and run my for-profit business. And I'd like to introduce you to my son, Austin. Thank you.

Inquiry of the Chair, Mr. President.

Please state your inquiry.

SENATOR MURPHY:

If -- if I were to click my heels right now, would I be able to be back in Palatine?

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR SCHOENBERG)

Dorothy, I can't tell you that. Please -- do you have a further inquiry?

SENATOR MURPHY:

I do, Mr. President. Earlier this week, I filed a written motion to discharge Senate Bill 1405 from the Assignments Committee and I was inquiring on the status of that written motion.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR SCHOENBERG)

Senator Murphy, first of all, I can ascertain that you will indeed be back in the People's Republic of Palatine for the weekend, which the last I checked is still part of Cook County. In response to your parliamentary inquiry, pursuant to Rule 71-4a {sic} (7-4(1)), I refer Senator Murphy's written motion to the Committee on Assignments as the Presiding Officer. Senator Murphy.

SENATOR MURPHY:

Thank you, Mr. President. I guess, you know, it -- it allows for a real statutory caps bill on spending. We've had a lot of discussion this week about budget and how much we're going to spend. We've got a caps bill here that we're for. We'd love to see move. We'd love to have the deadline extended, so we can actually see the tax increase go away, pay our bills without borrowing, and get to a point where we can be the job-creating State we deserve to be. So I look forward to seeing that caps bill move, Senate Bill 1405. And I appreciate the time, Mr. President. I do have one more -- for purpose of an announcement on a separate issue if I could.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR SCHOENBERG)

The Chair will indulge you this time.
