

Reporting Alleged Discrimination, Harassment, or Sexual Harassment

Contacts and Confidentiality Information for the Legislative Branch
Prepared by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Reporting an Incident to your Employer

The report can be made to your (or any other) supervisor, your agency's ethics officer, human resources, or your agency's equal employment opportunity officer. Confidentiality may be limited, and may vary by agency policy.

Ethics Officers:

- President of the Senate - Giovanni Randazzo 217/782-2728
- Minority Leader of the Senate - Jo Ellen Johnson 217/782-4745
- Speaker of the House - Justin Cox 217/782-3392
- House Minority Leader - Derek Persico 217/782-5591
- Senate Operations Commission - Giovanni Randazzo 217/782-2728
- Commission on Government Forecasting and Accountability - Laurie Eby 217/785-3200
- Joint Committee on Administrative Rules - Elaine Spencer 217/785-2254
- Legislative Audit Commission - Jane Stricklin 217/782-7097
- Legislative Information System - Susan D. Hall 217/782-3944
- Legislative Inspector General - Carol Pope 217/558-1560
- Legislative Printing Unit - Jenna Williams 217/785-0197
- Legislative Reference Bureau - Richard P. Schaller 217/782-6625
- Office of the Architect of the Capitol - Mark Flowers 217/782-7863

Reporting an Incident to the Office of the Legislative Inspector General

The report can be made to the Office of the Legislative Inspector General. The identity of any individual providing information or reporting any possible or alleged misconduct to the Office is confidential and may not be disclosed without that individual's consent, unless the individual consents to disclosure of his or her name or disclosure of the individual's identity is otherwise required by law. Contact:

Carol Pope, Legislative Inspector General

217/558-1560

carol.pope@ilga.gov

A complaint initiation form is available on the Office's web page:

<https://ilga.gov/commission/lig/default.asp>

Reporting an Incident to the Department of Human Rights

The Department's website (www.illinois.gov/dhr) provides information about discrimination and harassment, filing charges, the process for investigating and resolving allegations, and the times when the Department has intake interviews for new complaints at its offices, etc.

The Department's offices and main telephone numbers are:

- Chicago - 312/814-6200
- Springfield - 217/785-5100
- Marion - 618/993-7463

Department of Human Rights: Helpline Information

The Department operates a confidential Helpline for reporting discrimination, harassment, and sexual harassment. Reports to the Helpline can be made anonymously. The Helpline also provides information related to sexual harassment and discrimination, including resources for victims.

Contact the Helpline at:

- 877/236-7703
- <https://www2.illinois.gov/sites/sexualharassment/Pages/default.aspx>