This has been going on for months... it is our Friend's request.

I have had to pivot to Choose Chicago because I cannot get movement in ComEd. Our Friend knows.

Well, [REDACTED] is number one. She got a call from a gentleman in Joliet. [REDACTED] He said the job would be a rotating one, starting. 5 pm-5 am. He then asked a series of questions about how her application got to him. He drilled down to me. Mike. Mike, who? McClain. What does he do? I just have known him over the years. This is after explaining HR. interviews. Etc...

So, I am not being a smart touche but the first job HR offers is a job up north...90 minutes one way under best of circumstances. Then the interviewer says she did not fit well to you. This gentleman grills her and then offers a middle age woman who we are trying to help 5 pm-5am.

So, can you just take charge and put her in a discretionary position dealing with people but not the high intensity of the call center somewhere downtown or near the 13th Ward?

Thanks.

Mike
