Madame President,

I hope you have had a good day.

Anne, there are three pending items I thought I should follow up with you about if you will suffer through them with me. They are:

1. When you and I were with John at Coco Pazzo two items were raised and tendered to you.

- a. [REDACTED] was evaluated and stayed at a Level 4. This was done even though [REDACTED]. We recommended she become a Level 5. (Oh, recently you awarded her too.) As you know she has the potential of giving us "great" value. You indicated you agreed wholeheartedly. (I only suggest this because whomever you told is not acting on it.)
- b. [REDACTED] ( [REDACTED] ) Anne, he has not heard about our property in Oak Brook Terrace. (Again, I hate bothering you about this item but whomever you told is not acting on it.)

2. We also talked about our Advisory Committee (S 2814) to set up metrics to measure progress and insure we hit the stakeholder goals. I had sent you some information from [REDACTED] from [REDACTED]. (Frankly I think you were perturbed the action plan was not further along. Okay. So, I have received another communication from [REDACTED]. He has NOT heard anything since OUR communications of March 25. I KNOW how this works. Sooner or later he will go see our Friend, then I will get a call and then I will be forced to ask for something more. Would you please consider asking the lead on this plan to reach out to [REDACTED] and maybe even place him on the Advisory Committee? (So, it is the beginning of the end of Session and his temperament goes up and down. I would prefer us not being on the down side.)
(Again, I hate bothering you but whomever you told to get going on this important item is not communicating with [REDACTED].)

I thank you.

Best, Mike
