HOUSE RESOLUTION 1143

Offered by Representative Currie:

WHEREAS, The State of Illinois developed the world's first juvenile court in 1899, and has consistently been a leader in protecting children and promoting their rights; and

WHEREAS, The State of Illinois is committed to the health, safety, education, and growth of its children and children everywhere; and

WHEREAS, The United States, based on its history and tradition of human rights and responsibilities, must demonstrate its dedication to provide all children with a better today and a better tomorrow; and

WHEREAS, Children in the United States continue to face considerable hardships, including inadequate educational opportunities, and high rates of poverty, abuse, and neglect, hunger, infant mortality, incarceration, adolescent pregnancy, homicide, and suicide; and

WHEREAS, Every child is entitled to the fundamental necessities of life, including the rights to food, clothing, shelter, health care, and education, protection from abuse, neglect, and exploitation, and freedom from discrimination; and

WHEREAS, It is the responsibility of the government to ensure that all children and their families receive the level of support necessary for the realization of these rights; and

WHEREAS, Each child, for the full and harmonious development of his or her personality, should grow up in a family environment, in an atmosphere of happiness, love, and understanding; and

WHEREAS, On November 20, 1989, the United Nations General Assembly unanimously adopted the Convention on the Rights of the Child, which was drafted with the specific purpose of promoting and protection the well-being of all children, regardless of national boundaries; and

WHEREAS, The Convention on the Rights of the Child has been ratified by 193 nations, who have used this document to guide the development and implementation of policies and programs that specifically meet the needs of children and families; and

WHEREAS, The United States and Somalia are the only two nations that are party to the United Nations that have not ratified the Convention on the Rights of the Child; and

WHEREAS, The United States formally signed the Convention on the Rights of the Child in 1995, signifying its intent to ratify the Convention; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-SIXTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we call upon all agencies in the State of Illinois, in particular those concerned with the following activities as they relate to child welfare - economic opportunity, education, health care, housing, juvenile justice, nutrition, protection, and recreation for children - ensure that their policies and programs comply with the Convention on the Rights of the Child; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we urge the President of the United States to submit the Convention on the Rights of the Child to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee for review; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we urge the Senate of the United States to ratify the Convention on the Rights of the Child; and be it further

RESOLVED, That suitable copies of this resolution be presented to the President, the Minority and Majority Leaders of the United States Senate, and United States Senators Dick Durbin and Roland Burris.

SENATE BILLS ON SECOND READING

SENATE BILL 3568. Having been reproduced, was taken up and read by title a second time.

The following amendment was offered in the Committee on Labor, adopted and reproduced:

AMENDMENT NO. 1. Amend Senate Bill 3568 on page 6, line 22, by replacing "Any employer" with "In addition to the remedies provided in subsections (a), (b), and (c) of this Section, any ~~Any~~ employer"; and by replacing lines 19 through 26 on page 7 and lines 1 through 16 on page 8 with the following:

"(b) Any employer who has been demanded or ordered by the Department Director of Labor or ordered by the court to pay wages, final compensation, or wage supplements due an employee shall be required to pay a non-waivable administrative fee of $250 to the Department of Labor. Any employer who has been so demanded or ordered by the Department or ordered by a court to pay such wages, final compensation, or wage supplements and who fails to seek timely review of such a demand or order as provided for under this Act and who fails to comply within 15 calendar days after such demand or within 35 days of an administrative or court order is entered shall also be liable to pay a penalty to the Department of Labor of 20% of the amount found owing and a penalty to the employee of 1% per calendar day of the amount found owing for each day of delay in paying such wages to the employee. All moneys recovered as fees and civil penalties under this Act, except those owing to the affected employee, shall be deposited into the Wage Theft Enforcement Fund, a special fund which is hereby created in the State treasury. Moneys in the Fund may be used only for enforcement of this Act, and who shall fail to do so within 15 days after such demand or order is entered shall be liable to pay a penalty of 1% per calendar day to the employee for each day of delay in paying such wages to the employee up to an amount equal to twice the sum of unpaid wages due the employee. Such employer shall also be liable to the Department of Labor for 20% of such unpaid wages.

(b-5) Penalties and fees under this Section may be assessed by the Department and recovered in a civil action brought by the Department Director in any circuit court or in any administrative adjudicative proceeding under this Act. In any such civil action or administrative adjudicative proceeding under this Act this litigation, the Department Director of Labor shall be represented by the Attorney General."

There being no further amendment(s), the bill, as amended, was advanced to the order of Third Reading.
