

Doorkeeper: "All persons not entitled to the House floor please retire to the gallery. Thank you."

Speaker Redmond: "House will come to order and Members please be in their seats. Be led in prayer by the Reverend Krueger, the House Chaplain."

Reverend Krueger: "In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. Amen. Oh Lord, bless this House with Thy service this day. It was William Shakespeare who said, 'This above all to thine own self be true. And it must follow as night to day, thou canst not be then false to any man'. Let us pray. Oh God, who descend Thine Only Son to be for us an example for our living, to be the Light, the Truth and the Way, grant that this day the Members of the House of Representatives may do only that which is well pleasing to Thee so that when the work is done and the hour finished the record may be for the good of the peoples of this great State of Illinois and that which all men may look upon with admiration and joy. We ask this in the name of Our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen."

Speaker Redmond: "Roll Call for attendance. Representative Kane, do you seek recognition? Oh. Would you put Representative Kane...the Rules don't permit anybody else to vote your switch but I guess you can vote 'present' can't you? Representative Schneider, Representative Kane is in trouble in the back of the hall where you....is that a new Member there alongside of Doctor...Representative Shea."

Shea: "Mr. Speaker, could the records show that Representative McPartlin is absent due to illness. Representative D. L. Houlihan and Arthur Berman and Richard Hart are excused absences."

Speaker Redmond: "Any objections? Hearing none the record will so show. Representative Washburn, do you seek recognition of any excused absences?"

Washburn: "Don't have any."

Speaker Redmond: "Anybody who isn't here isn't excused, huh? Order of Speaker's Table Concurrence appears House Bill 1930, Representative Shea."

Shea: "Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, this is Representative Hart's Bill. I just talked to Representative Hart in Benton. He will not be here today and he's asked me to handle the Bill for him. And now, Mr. Speaker, I would move that the House do nonconcur with Senate Amendment #1 to House Bill 1930."

Speaker Redmond: "Any discussion? Question's on the Gentleman's motion the House nonconcur in Senate Amendment #1 to House Bill 1930. All in favor say 'aye'; 'aye'; opposed, 'no'. The 'ayes' have it; motion carries and the House nonconcur. House nonconcur. Representative Washburn."

Washburn: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, would the records show that Representative Capuzi is absent, he is ill and hospitalized."

Speaker Redmond: "Any objections? Hearing none the record will so show. Representative Shea."

Shea: "Would the record indicate that Representative Wyvette Younger is excused because of official business?"

Speaker Redmond: "Any objection? Hearing none, the record will so show. Representative Washburn, were you going to ask leave for a conference or a caucus or something like that there?"

Washburn: "Yes, thank you, Mr. Speaker, I was going to ask leave for a ...for the purpose of a Republican conference in Room 118. I would hope that the loudspeakers are on across the hall. I don't know, I would like to give the Members a few minutes to get over here, Mr. Speaker, if we could. Is there anything else you... any other business right at the present time or we could hold the conference, Republican conference, in Room 118, say, at maybe 2:30 and return at 3:15 or something like that?"

Speaker Redmond: "Are there any objections? Hearing none..."

Washburn: "Well, there will be a Republican conference in Room 118 at 2:30, return to the floor shortly after 3 o'clock as we can, 3:15. Thank you, Sir."

Speaker Redmond: "House will stand at ease until 3:15."

RECESS

Speaker Redmond: "House will come to order. House will come to order.

Members please be in their seats. Message from the Senate."

Clerk O'Brien: "A message from the Senate by Mr. Wright, Secretary.

Mr. Speaker, I am directed to inform the House of Representatives the Senate has refused to recede from their Amendment #1 to a Bill of the following title, to-wit: House Bill 1930. Am further directed to inform the House of Representative the Senate requests a First Conference Committee to consider the differences. Senate Members are: Senator Donnewald, Egan, Joyce, Harris and Graham. Action taken by the Senate January 7, 1977. Kenneth Wright, Secretary."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Washburn, do you have the Republican nominees? The Speaker appoints Representative Shea, Capparelli, Hanahan, Ryan and Deavers. Representative Ryan is closing fast. Representative Bradley, will you quarterback this Conference Committee Report or Conference Committee, rather? House Bill 1930. Shea, Capparelli, Hanahan, Ryan and Deavers. That's up to...better get a room and public hearing on it. Representative Ryan, do you seek recognition? Something about mental health?"

Ryan: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, I filed a motion to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill 2026 failed because the situation has changed drastically since the last legislative day. Senate Bill 2026 contains an appropriation of 5.3 million dollars from the mental health fund. The breakdown of this appropriation is 2½ million dollars for community service grants for the mentally ill; 2½ million dollars for community service grants for the developmentally disabled and $300,000 for the alcohol program. Since the Senate failed to override the Governor's Veto for community service grants for the mentally ill, that grant program is 2½ million dollars short of the budgeted amount. This has caused a serious problem in our mentally ill community service agencies. The reconsideration of the vote and passage of the Bill would provide the solution to that problem. Mr. Speaker, I really wonder how many people know what I'm talking about here this afternoon and I think it's probably one of the major reasons that we're here. And I won't repeat it."

Speaker Redmond: "Give the Gentleman order."

Ryan: "Thank you. I make this motion with the understanding that the excess funds provided by this faction will not be spent by the Department. And with that understanding, Mr. Speaker, I move to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill 2026 lost."

Speaker Redmond: "Is there any discussion? Ready for the motion. The motion is on the Gentleman's motion to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill 2026 lost. Those in favor vote 'aye'; opposed vote 'no'; 89 votes. Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Clerk will take the record. On this question there's...Representative Collins, 'aye'. This question...Representative Brinkmeier 'aye', Von Boeckman 'aye', Richmond 'aye'. On this question there's a 131 'aye' and no 'nay'. The Gentleman's motion carries. Representative Ryan. Representative Ryan."

Ryan: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, I appreciate the vote. I now move to suspend the provisions of House Rule 38 to permit a second vote on Third Reading, Postponed Consideration with respect to Senate Bill 2026."

Speaker Redmond: "You've heard the Gentleman's motion. Is there any discussion? All those in favor say 'aye', opposed vote 'no'. 'Aye', all those in favor say 'aye'; opposed 'no'. The 'ayes' have it and the Gentleman's motion carries. The Rule is suspended. Been advised that the Conference Committee is meeting in Room 212...3:30, which is one minute. We'll have a supplemental calendar to accommodate Senate Bill 2026. Maybe Representative Ryan will remember the courtesy. Conference Committee Meeting. Representative Bradley. Conference Committee Meeting at 2:30, is that correct, in Room 212? Or 3:30, rather. Representative Ryan, you're on the Conference Committee that's meeting now and somebody's signing your name."

Ryan: "Thank you."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Bradley."

Bradley: "Mr. Speaker, if the Members of the Conference Committee, Mr. Deavers and Mr. Ryan and the Democratic Members get down there right now we'll get the hearing started promptly and we'd hope to get it accomplished yet today and get back up here with the Conference Committee Report."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Hanahan, the Conference Committee is meeting at 3:30. You want to be replaced on the Committee? Gentleman has asked leave to be replaced on the Conference Committee. Is there any objections? Hearing none...the House will be in recess to the call of the Chair."

RECESS

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Shea. House will come to order. Heil Houlihan. Representative Shea."

Shea: "Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, the Conference Committee on House Bill 1930 regarding the Minimum Wage Law just met in Room 212. We had a full and complete hearing, if you want, everybody had an opportunity to be heard. The Committee will now meet in the Speaker's Office and attempt to put into language those suggestions and ideas it's heard and should be able to report back to the floor within 15 or 20 minutes."

Speaker Redmond: "House will stand in recess until 6 o'clock. Wait a minute. Representative Byers. Byers, we're back in Session."

Byers: "Mr. Speaker, there's a Bill on Supplemental Calendar 1 and Senate Bill 2026 that we discussed here the last time we were here. It's a Bill that transfers $5,300,000 and saves putting the General Revenue Fund; $5,000,000 is from the Mental Health Fund; 2½ million dollars is for the Mental Health Clinics and 2½ million is for developmental disabilities. The other $300,000 is money that's recently been received from the federal government for the Alcoholism Grants and this money has been debated before but it's from the Mental Health Fund and it's phase money from the General Revenue Fund that will not be spent. And I would move for the favorable consideration and the passage of Senate Bill 2026."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Shea."

Shea: "Well, Mr. Speaker, before you get into that Bill, might it be possible just so long as there's no confusion that we have leave of the House to have those Members of the Conference Committee on 1930 meet while the House is in Session? Thank you."

Speaker Redmond: "Hearing no objections leave is granted. Call the Bill, Mr. Clerk."

Clerk O'Brien: "Senate Bill 2026. A Bill for an Act making supplemental additional appropriations to the Department of Mental Health and Developmental Disabilities. Third Reading of the Bill."

Speaker Redmond: "Is there any discussion? Question is, shall this Bill pass? Those in favor vote 'aye', opposed vote 'no'. Have all voted who wish? Representative Choate, do you suppose you could come up here for a minute? Tom Ohler has got an urgent message from Mt. Pulaski. Have all voted who wish? Clyde? Clerk will take the record. Mr. Selcke, you're interfering with Representative Choate. Clerk will take the record. On this question there's a 130 'aye' and 1 'no'. Representative Von Boeckman, 'aye'...131 'aye' and 1 'no'. The Bill having received the Constitutional Majority is hereby declared passed. The Chair recognizes Representative Choate."

Choate: "Well, thank you, Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. Mr. Speaker, I rise on this occasion, full well knowing that we're in the dying hours of a kind of an extraordinary Session, that the Membership is not totally in attendance. I wish they were because my words and conversation is going to be directed at each and everyone of them. But as I stand on the floor of the House this evening I'm reminded of a couple of boys from southern Illinois that were not used to the proverbial swimming pool and they were in the pasture and they were walking along the banks of a creek, they decided to go swimming. One of the boys looked at the other one and he said 'I wonder how warm or how cold the water is'. The other one says 'I don't know but I'll tell you in a minute' and he made a big jump off into the water. I don't know how cold the water is or how warm the water might be in what I'm going to endeavor to approach here today. I have served in this House of Representatives for 30 consecutive years. Myself, my family and many friends will be eternally grateful to the people of the 59th Representative District and to those of other counties that used to be in my old 58 Representative District and other districts before reapportionment for affording me the opportunity to serve the people of that area. And as I have said on the floor of this House on numerous occasions, the entire population of the State of Illinois, because I do happen to believe that although your prime concern might be for the people of your district you are a duly elected representative of the people of the State of Illinois. And as I stand on the floor of this House of Representatives today, and I could be repetitious and say what other people have said in the past the greatest deliberative body in the history of America, and all of the other accolades that I would sincerely mean if I applied them to this House of Representatives, I'm reminded that on this date only two people in this House supersedes me as far as longevity is concerned, Representative Corneal Davis and Representative Paul Randolph, and that the fine people of my area and my district have elected me for another term. But there comes a time in each and everyone of our lives, and I say this to you publicly, all 176 other Members of this General Assembly, as I have said to a few of my friends in confidence today, that sometime or other you're going to approach the same decision making process that I have approached in the last couple of days and it's a decision that I like think at least, that I have weighed with careful consideration, careful consideration for especially the people of southern Illinois. Careful consideration of my friends and, yes, above all, my family, and I have reached a decision that I shall not serve the two years of the upcoming Session, which would give me 32 years, that the fine people of my area and my district have seen fit to afford me. That I shall resign as a duly elected Member of this House of Representatives prior to the opening of the next General Assembly thereby affording the Committee from the 59th Representative District to appoint one who will be involved in the decision-making process of helping select the leadership from this side of the aisle in the next Session of the General Assembly. I am resigning simply because I have had and been afforded the opportunity to serve with one of the great institutions of higher education in the State of Illinois, an institution that many of us on the floor of this House had the opportunity to vote for and work for and make it the fine educational institution that Southern Illinois University is recognized in the State of Illinois as well as the 49 states today. I was asked by that institution to become the Director of External Affairs. I'm accepting that position. But I want to say to each and every Member of this General Assembly, after having spent more than my total life in the halls of this legislative body, I only want one commitment from those of you who are returning and from those who will be coming for the first time, I don't care what your thought process might do to you as far as setting priorities in your legislative endeavors, but bear in mind at all instances that our forefathers who created the Illinois State Constitution, who in their guided thoughts created three branches of government under the Constitution of this State, the executive, the judiciary and the legislative. And even went so far in the legislative branch of government to say 'Yes, there shall be two houses, the House of Representatives and the State Senate'. And went one step farther and set the term of office for four years in the Senate and two years in the House of Representatives, thereby creating in this House the closest public servant of this state to the wills and dictates of the general citizenry of the district which you represent and the state. And let me ask you, as a parting favor and, oh yes, so many favors you have granted me in my 30 years, but let me ask you, in my parting, one favor. Never, in this House of Representatives, lose sight of the fact that you, as an elected representative, is the closest public official to your constituents and to the voting public of your district and the State of Illinois. And as long as you stay in close communication with the citizenry of your district you have no fear about being reelected. You have no fear about doing the things that are better for the general population of this state. I have enjoyed every single second that I have spent as a Member of this General Assembly. Those of you who have not been here too long, there's better things ahead. Those of you who have been here a while might be thinking like I'm kinda thinking. I love ya, I will be back with you. I think that in my new endeavors I have a challenge to continue my work in behalf especially of the people of southern Illinois. I think it's exciting. I think I can do the job. I'm going to be back and see you and consult with you on legislative matters. Thank you very much."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Choate. Representative Choate, will you come to the podium, please? I'd like to call your attention to the fact that he thanked us for past favors and I assume he won't ask for any in the future. But we have a little token of our esteem for Representative Choate in his new capacity. Will you please come up here, Representative Choate?"

Choate: "This is the only time I had a cape that had one armhole. Now you guys think you're first, you're not really because Shawnee Junior College in southern Illinois recently afforded me the opportunity of making the address at their commencement exercises at which my daughter graduated and I wore one of these except it had red over here, Bill, instead of blue.

Thank you very much."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Schlickman."

Schlickman: "Mr. Speaker, I'd just like to say I'm relieved. I thought you were going to give to Representative Choate the key to the state treasury. Thank you."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Geo-Karis."

Geo-Karis: "Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, I'd like to say that although I'm Republican, Clyde Lee Choate, was nice to many of us freshman. And it's Doctor Choate now and Clyde, I'm going to miss not singing Happy Birthday for you next July. God bless you and may you be happy in your endeavors. And I'll sing to Schlickman instead."

Speaker Redmond: "Members of the Conference Committee that are meeting in the office will they please...Representative Hirschfeld."

Hirschfeld: "Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, I would like to beg the indulgence of the House for just a few moments to say farwell also. You know when I was a young lad, and I am sorry to follow Representative Choate because I cannot possibly touch the job he did, when I was a young lad my father used to state that he hoped he could raise four sons who could couple the ability to laugh with the manliness to weep. And since this will be my last day in Springfield I have to admit to you that I feel the latter emotions are very close to surface this evening. So I would ask your indulgence for just a few moments, pardon me, to say farewell to all of you in my own words and in my own way. And I would like to begin by apologizing to anyone whose feelings I may have hurt by words or actions during these past six years. I want to assure all of you it was never done with malice and what I may have done or said in my haste you will have to trust me to repent in my leisure. And I also would like you to know that I am fully cognizant of the fact that little that I have said or done will be long remembered or of any great significance to the State of Illinois. But I think that's as it should be and on the other hand you have done some great things for me. I think the service in this House has given me a sense of balance, a sense of proportion, a sense of priorities. The ability to put first things first and the realization that there's a time and a place for everything. I think you've taught me the real meaning of tolerance that we all differ by race, creed and color and custom. And that we are what we are and not necessarily what someone might like us to be. And I guess most important of all, to my fellow Republicans, because of the few bitter battles, all of which I know I lost, I pray that I've learned the meaning of moral courage. The courage of my conviction. The courage to see a thing through against the age-old struggle of the roar of the crowd on the one hand and the sometimes almost too silent voice of my conscience on the other. And I want to assure all of you Ladies and Gentlemen that when these days of old have vanished, as they surely will, I will look back upon them with memories of great personal significance. And if I am fortunate enough to reach that age in life where, to paraphrase the words of the great General Douglas MacArthur, 'I find myself listening with thirsting ear for the bewitching melody of soft bugles blowing taps, of far off drums beating my last roll'. Well, in that event, Ladies and Gentlemen, I will come back to these days and to you wonderful people with whom I served. And I want to assure you that one of my last conscious thoughts on this earth will be of the House and the House and the House. Thank you again for your many kindnesses. I will truly miss you all. And in the words of Tiny Tim, those many Christmases ago, 'May God bless us everyone'. Thank you."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Lucco."

Lucco: "Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, it is with almost deep regret that I rise at this occasion. I've had many other opportunities to rise, never in such regretful times. First of all, I want to extend my best wishes to John Hirschfeld, of course. But I want to speak just briefly about Clyde Choate. Clyde Choate, I don't think, even though he has resigned, has and never will retire. Clyde Choate who came from Union County, from the deep south, as we say, and we in southern Illinois not only respect Clyde Choate but he is a legend as the song that you've heard several times will remind you of. Clyde represents something which, when I came to this House two years ago I was privileged to stand, shall I say, shoulder to shoulder with the man from the south; 93 times. And on many, many occasions I stood here and said 'I vote Clyde Choate' very, very proudly every, every time. So right now even after just two years it is with deep regret that we will not be able to say that, shall we say, again. I will say that the educators of the State of Illinois and of southern Illinois are in for a treat. They're going to get the education of their life 'cause Clyde Choate is a man of experience. Use the term wheel and deal, grade papers, put out exams, test a person, whatever you will, Clyde Choate, has done it, will continue to do it. They say that history sometimes makes the man. And on some rare occasions man makes history. Those of you who have followed Clyde Choate politically a lot more than I have, but none of you more closely than I have, know that Clyde Choate made and will continue to make history. I'm very, very fortunate, I feel, to have been able to sit in the backroom, if you will, with Clyde Choate. I've been able to look at a hole card with Clyde Choate not knowing what the hell he had and he, never letting anything know what hand he was holding either. But I have a boy, when I say a boy, almost a boy, because he will now take over the presidency of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville come January the 17th. He took me to the state tournament back in 1957 as his coach and I'm very, very proud that Buz Shaw will have at his right hand a man like Clyde Choate. And I hope that occasionally we might be of service to both of them. Wherever Clyde goes he will stand tall. He'll stand head and shoulders over the crowd whether it's in this House, in the gallery, or in the academic halls of Southern Illinois, Carbondale, Edwardsville, Western, Northern, Eastern University of Illinois or anywhere else. All I want to say is, Clyde, best of luck. You don't need that. You make your luck. Best wishes to you. And it's been a privilege to have been associated in a very, very small way with the man from Union County. We in southern Illinois look for leadership. We've always looked for leadership. We still know that leadership is there. Clyde, I salute you."

JAN 7 1977 12.

JAN 7 1977

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Lechowicz."

Lechowicz: "Mr. Speaker, I ask that the Rules be suspended and ask the Clerk to read House Resolution 111."

Speaker Redmond: "Any objection to the suspension of the Rules? Hearing none, Rules are suspended. Mr. Clerk."

Clerk Selcke: "House Resolution 1111. Lechowicz, et al. Whereas our distinguished colleague from the 59th District, the Honorable Clyde L. Choate, has announced his retirement from the General Assembly after 30 years of exemplary service and leadership in this House. And whereas upon leaving this Chamber he will devote his considerable talents and energies to his new position as Director of External Affairs for Southern Illinois University. And whereas the selection of Clyde Choate for this important position by SIU is a sound and farsighted decision by the University for which it is to be heartily congratulated. And whereas our great expectations of pride in his new capacity are founded upon his established record of outstanding achievement and devoted contribution to this state and nation spanning almost 35 years. And whereas he was born in West Frankfort, Illinois in 1920 and moved to Anna, Illinois, as a child graduating from Anna Jonesboro High School. And whereas the greatness of his character was amply evident by his service in the United States Army during World War II during which he was awarded the Purple Heart, Bronze Star, Silver Star, French Fourragere, the Presidential Citation and the coveted Congressional Medal of Honor for his courage and heroism on the battlefields of North Africa, Sicily, Italy, France and Germany. And whereas the traits of leadership and determination which served him well on the battlefields of France and the beachhead at Anzio have been apparent in his service in this House during which he has served four terms as Minority Whip, two terms as Minority Leader, two terms as Majority Whip and one term as Majority Leader. And whereas in addition to his long and illustrious career as a Legislator, Clyde Choate has been actively involved in the Democrat Party for which he was chosen as Chairman of the Illinois Delegation to the 1972 Democratic Convention and as a valuable member of the American Legion, Disabled American Veterans, Military Order of the Purple Heart, Elks and Moose. Therefore, be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the 79th General Assembly of the State of Illinois that we commend the Honorable Clyde L. Choate for his enviable accomplishments as a citizen, soldier and representative. That we extend our best wishes for success in all his future endeavors. And be it further resolved that a suitable copy of this preamble and resolution be presented to Representative Clyde L. Choate as a token of our affection and respect."

JAN 7 1977

14.

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Lechowicz."

Lechowicz: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. House Resolution 1111 which as I'd call it the four aces really represents the true aspect of Clyde Choate, the four aspects of this great State of Illinois which he's had the opportunity of representing for the past 30 years. Yes, he was the southern Illinois spokesman but he represented central, northern and the city of Chicago as well. If you take a look at the 30 years of legislative experience and how he remembered very well when Deacon Davis pointed out quite vividly to this House a few years ago who was the leader and who brought about FEPC legislation and actually provided the votes to have it passed was Clyde Choate. I remembered very well when Clyde told me one of his greatest attributes in this General Assembly besides FEPC was the passage of the Children and Family Services Department in providing the necessary funds to help people help themselves. I remember quite vividly how proud of the fact he was providing the funds for Southern Illinois University, providing the funds for transportation for the people of the city of Chicago. He told me one thing when I came here. He said, 'Help. Help your fellow Member. Help his constituents to help themselves'. This is the type of individual that Clyde Choate is. But really today is a sad day for the Democratic Party. A few weeks ago we had a tremendous loss in the city of Chicago in the loss of Mayor Richard J. Daley and the Good Lord taking him. And in turn more than a hundred thousand people paid tribute to this great individual, to this great Democrat. And in turn today we have a loss in this House of a Member who has helped each and everyone of us in our respective districts. I would hope that the University of Southern Illinois would really just consider the fact of the expertise that this individual has to give them, to give all of us. And I would hope that this House would seek in my request in asking that everybody be a Cosponsor of this Resolution. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Speaker Redmond: "Is there any objection? Hearing none all Members will be added as Cosponsors. Representative Lechowicz, do you move the adoption of the Resolution? Question's on the Gentleman's motion for the adoption of House Resolution 1111. Those in favor say 'aye'; 'aye'; opposed 'no'. The 'ayes' have it. The Resolution is adopted. Agreed Resolutions. Representative Washburn, pardon me."

Washburn: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. I want everyone within listening distance to know that those of us on the Republican side of the aisle listened with heavy heart to Clyde's announcement of his resignation because each and everyone of us over here consider Clyde Choate a very close and dear personal friend. And we all consider it a real privilege to have served with you. Over a 30 year period Clyde Choate has established one of the most distinguished record that's ever been established since this General Assembly was created. And each of us extend our best wishes to any future endeavors that the honorable, and I mean The Honorable, Clyde Choate might undertake. Thank you."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Davis."

Davis: "Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, I rise if it's permissible, to say a few words in reference to the Resolution and the friendship which I've enjoyed with Clyde Choate for all of the time that he's been in this General Assembly. I remember when I was a young fellow going around courting the girls and all that sort of thing, and that's been a long time, there was an old song they used to sing and it went like this: 'You brought a new kind of love to me'. Well, that's what Clyde Choate brought to the General Assembly. I have supported him in every election in which, if he thought he needed my support, and the truth of the matter is when he came back out of the Army and he was recommended to me, I know I told a friend of mine who recommended him, 'Well, I gotta enough...I got enough relatives in two of those counties to get him elected and I know he'll be elected'. As a Christian minister we have a dual responsibility. The responsibility we owe to heaven and to our God and also the responsibility that we owe to the earth and to our friends and to our neighbors. I shall always be thankful to Clyde for what he did when it wasn't popular to do it because I can remember in this House, and I've been here a long time, perhaps too long, I told the distinguished gentlemen of the press, Mr. Green and all of them that I was going to retire, but out of the respect for the man whose memory I revere, who now has gone, his soul rests in realms beyond the sky. He asked me not to retire, in fact he took me back in the room there and said 'What do you want to do?' And then he went further than that, he told my alderman and my committeeman 'You have that organization, don't you let him retire, you have that organization out there to draft him to run again'. And they did just that. And it was simply because of respect I had for the man that I'm back here because I promised. I told the news media and everybody else I was going to retire but it's simply because I'm back here. And maybe this is the reason the Good Lord wanted me to come back here, to pay respects to one of the finest men in the General Assembly. You know when everything is going all right and you're on top and you're the toast of the town it's easy for everybody to join in with you. Easy for everybody to go along. Yeah, but when the cause is unpopular, when the time before what they call the Civil Rights Revolution, Clyde Choate was not only my friend but he was a friend, not only of my people, but he was a friend of the people who was on the lowest rung of the ladder. That's why I love him. That's why I respect him. That's why when he left here one day to go to St. Louis where his wife had been sent to the hospital, and I'm the kind of preacher that worries God, I said 'He's gone but she's going to be all right because when I get through worrying the Good Lord he's going to tell me, get up off your knees, she's all right. Go on to your business'. That's the kind of friend I am to Clyde Choate because he was one of those who stood with me and stood with my people when the cause was unpopular. God bless you, Clyde, and may God keep you and may he make his face to shine upon you and give you that kind of peace that the world cannot give nor take away. And my final message to you is the message that King David gave to his son Solomon when he was getting ready to leave this earth. He looked at him and said 'I go the way of all flesh and you take over but be thou strong and show thyself to be a man'. I know you will, Clyde, because you always have been strong and you've always have shown yourself to be a man. God bless you and God keep you."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Choate."

Choate: "Just briefly to respond, Mr. Speaker, to this extremely fine Resolution offered by my good friend, close roommate and old buddy, Ted Lechowicz. To all of the good remarks that has been made by my colleagues, I appreciate it but I will be seeing you again in the very near future. To make an offer, if any of you want to go deer hunting, get in touch with Lechowicz, he'll get in touch with me and I'll get in touch with somebody. And to tell you that it's absolutely erroneous, I am not going to announce my candidacy for the mayor of the city of Chicago. It's been fun. I owe so much to so many people. First, to the people from my area which I've spoken of. Secondly, to the many dedicated people many of them I see sitting in the balcony that has worked for me over the years that made, really, my tenure in office possible and made it what it is. Thirdly, to the kindness of the Members of this General Assembly. Alone we're not very much. Clyde Choate as an individual is another male citizen of this state. Together there's nothing we can't do and that goes for these beautiful young people who have worked for me over the years and to each and everyone of you, male and female, in this legislative body. Thanks, I'll see you next week."

Speaker Redmond: "Agreed Resolutions."

Clerk Selcke: "House Resolution 1108, Grotberg, et al. House Resolution 1109, McGrew. House Resolution 1110, Waddell. House Resolution 1112, Kornowicz, et al. House Resolution 1113, Byers, Lucco. House Resolution 1115, Caldwell and McLendon."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Giorgi."

Giorgi: "Mr. Speaker, House Resolution 1108 by Grotberg notes the 100th birthday of a Mrs. Emma Bennett. 1109 by McGrew congratulates the 3A Champs of Geneseo High School. House Resolution 1110 by Waddell celebrates the centennial birthday of Elizabeth Penticoff. House Resolution 1112 by Kornowicz celebrates the 25th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Zaczyk. House Resolution 1113 by Byers and Lucco honors the coach of the Collinsville basketball team 700th victory, Virgil Fletcher. And House Resolution 1115 by Caldwell honors James Williams on his ascendancy to presidency of the Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity. I move for adoption of Agreed Resolutions."

Speaker Redmond: "Any questions? Question's on the Gentleman's motion for the adoption of the Agreed Resolutions. Those in favor say 'aye'; 'aye'; opposed 'no'. The 'ayes' have it. Resolutions are adopted. Further resolutions?"

Clerk Selcke: "House Resolution 1114. Meyer, et al."

Speaker Redmond: "Committee on assignments. Representative Meyers. Meyer."

Meyer: "I think that was an unfair assignment, Mr. Speaker."

Speaker Redmond: "I understand the Conference Committee Report is on the way up to the Majority Leader's office so will the Members of the Conference Committee please go to the Majority Leader's office to sign the report? Representative Hanahan, did you sign the report? Let's see who else have we got? Capparelli? Shea, Ryan, will you get in there and sign the report, please? Representative Shea."

Shea: "Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, the Conference Committee has completed its report and the report has been signed by all ten Members except Representative Hanahan for the posterity of his grandchild signed in dissent. And now, Mr. Speaker, as quickly as the...I see Mr. Deavers out here and I'm waiting for Representative Ryan, I was going to ask to read the changes that we made and then see if we could save the 20 minutes reproducing it by asking to waive the right to have it on all Member's desks. So, Mr. Speaker, if I might, could I read the Amendment?"

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Walsh."

Walsh: "It's pretty meaningless, Mr. Speaker, to read the Amendment if we do not have a copy of the Bill that is being amended before us. So I wonder if he could provide a copy of the Bill to the Members who are interested?"

Shea: "See, Mr. Walsh, if Mr. Ryan might give you a copy of the Conference Committee Report and you could read it along with me?"

Walsh: "Well, I would appreciate that and I would like it if everyone who was interested had a copy also."

Shea: "Well, you have two distinguished gentlemen, Mr. Walsh. Mr. Ryan who is going to be your new leader and Mr. Deavers were on the Conference Committee. So, could I, you know, read it and then we'll see if I can get leave of the House to proceed. Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, the first amendment to the Act comes in Section 5, or in Section, new... Section G of Section 3 and it defines outside salesman. And it defines outside salesmen as follows, it means any employee regularly engaged in making sales or obtaining orders or contracts for services from a major portion of such duties are performed away from an employer's place of business. Now since I have Mr. Walsh as kind of my alter ego over there, is there any question about the way I read it?"

Walsh: "Very good reading."

Shea: "Do you have any questions about the content? The second amendment, or section amended, is Section E of 4-A of the Act, Paragraph 1004-A of Chapter 48. And that is with regards to definition of professional administrative, et cetera. And it reads as follows, 'Any employee employed in a bonafide executive administrative or professional capacity as defined by the Federal Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 as now or hereafter amended'. It goes on 'for bonafide executive, administrative and professional employees of not-for-profit corporations, the director may by regulation adopt a weekly wage rate standard lower than that provided for the executive, administrative and professional employees covered under the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 as now or hereafter amended.' And I would be happy to try to make, or answer any questions of my colleagues."

Speaker Redmond: "Are there any questions? Representative Hanahan."

Hanahan: "Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, I signed that report in dissent because I do believe that a person whether you feel for or against a Conference Committee Report should acknowledge that they served on a Conference Committee and how they feel on that Conference Committee should be reported in the report to the Members of the General Assembly. I find it very curious that that the news media chose to make statements about the overtime provision of the State Minimum Wage Act and label it a provision that was not through or somehow underhandedly passed by the Membership of the General Assembly. And I personally would like to say to the news media that because they weren't paying attention and because they who are supposed to observe in behalf of the fourth estate all the workings of the General Assembly that maybe they should pay attention a little more of the Bills that are passed but especially so in the fact that this Bill was debated, was acted on, was deliberated, was discussed, it was opposed and was supported during the last Session of the General Assembly. The Bill was introduced as was passed into law. Any student of government or any student of the legislative process would understand all they have to do is read the introduction of a Bill and they'd understand that it was in the Act as introduced the provision that all persons would get time-and-a-half for overtime. It passed through Committee that way. It passed through the House of Representatives that way. It passed over to the Senate and the Senate amended the Bill to exclude those persons covered with the Federal Fair Standard Provision. They wanted to delete concurrent-jurisdiction. History shows that we were at an impasse for a month with the Bill in the Senate and finally on June 30th 1976 we had a Conference Committee that met and approved by the majority of the Conference Committee Members the removal of the language that would have exempted those employees covered by the Federal Fair Standard Act. Since then some people woke up and realized that the Legislature deliberately had passed a Bill that they weren't pleased with. Well, what's really curious about the whole procedure, though, is people apologizing for having passed a good piece of legislation. I have over 300 letters from business executives and their wives that reside in Illinois that thank me for passing such an innovative law. Curiously most of them are Republicans. And their letters in general tone went something like this: thank God, that we have a Democrat that looks out for a lot of Republican social justice in the work force. That they're very pleased with the fact that we finally have done something for the white collar middle income earner of this state through legislation. Now I don't pretend to be a spokesman in behalf of the white collar middle income worker. Most of them vote Republican, at least in the 33rd District most of them are registered Republicans. And they vote for Republican candidates. But a lot of them recognize for the first time that the General Assembly thought enough of those poor exploited junior business executives that we were going to give them a benefit, a provision like we give the blue collar workers, like the poor working stiff that I'm always talking about in trying to pass labor legislation in their behalf. For the first time we have really done something for the white collar middle income Republican of this state. And lo and behold what's happening? Who's leading the fight to deny these exploited junior executives from getting time-and-a-half for their overtime? The Republican leaders have demanded in this state and the business community that we do something to save themselves from themselves. That somehow executives are going to bankrupt their own companies by demanding time-and-a-half for their overtime. How ridiculous unless those executives are being mistreated and have malcontent in their heart for working for such great employers that would mistreat a man that way, or a woman that way. Wives wrote me letters saying 'Thank you because now my husband will have no excuse but to be home on Saturdays and Sundays and early in the evening to spend time with their kids on social and civic endeavors. That they would be enslaved to their businesses by saying they had no choice but had to work for no increase in wages and no benefits in salary but had to work because they have a title of being a business executive, an administrator or a professional. Well, Ladies and Gentlemen of the General Assembly, it really is odd, though, in today's report that's before you and you're about to vote on, that the Republican Party led the fight that we adopt the Federal Fair Standards as our criteria on this report. Now I've heard a lot of silly things in my time and I've often, I was raised with the belief the Democrats were somehow to the left of center and they're almost Socialists because they believe in federal government and federal bureaucracy if they somehow believe that the federal government could answer all the ills of our society with federal law. I never thought I'd come to the point of my time that the Republicans in this General Assembly would all of a sudden seek the banner and look for the relief in the federal statutes for this kind of provision. You know, I...I just am amused that; you know, we could have gone further with this Bill. You know, the next step we could have covered the Legislators and we could have gotten time-and-a-half for the legislative process. And you don't know, Ladies and Gentlemen, what you're doing to yourself by adopting this Conference Committee Report. But I've found that some people are their own worst enemies and they can't wait until they go downhill fast enough. I'm just surprised that the Republicans and the business community in this state all of a sudden have come full circle and now by adopting of this Conference Committee Report will all of a sudden enhance the stature of the Federal Fair Standard Act. Thank you."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Neff. Representative Neff. I guess you'll have to try a different microphone, you've talked that one out. I guess, I guess nobody in that row paid their bill. Behind you, Representative Neff."

Neff: "Thank you. Jerry, you mentioned salesmen and did I understand you right when you said that salesmen were...did most of his work away from the present business?"

Shea: "The previous law defined salesmen as an outside salesman, meaning an employee the major portion of whose work is performed away from a central place of business and the major portion of whose compensation consists of commission. That was the old definition."

Neff: "Yeah."

Shea: "We now said an outside salesman means an employee regularly engaged in making sales or obtaining orders or contracts for service where a major portion of such duties are performed away from his employer's place of business. It broadens it."

Neff: "Well, what about a floor salesman, then...we'll take a floor salesman that spends all of his time on the floor, an automobile dealership or..."

Shea: "That was not covered, the only thing we're talking about is the definition of outside salesmen, Mr. Neff. The definition of outside salesmen was covered in the Act prior to this time. We have redefined it. We have not gone into the inside salesmen such as the automobile salesmen and we haven't done it now nor was it done before."

Neff: "Well, under the Federal Act as I recall it, Jerry, it did define a, well, it defined them as salesmen. All salesmen were exempt, as I recall the old federal."

Shea: "Well, it might have been under the old Act but since August 23rd they weren't exempt in the State of Illinois."

Neff: "That's right. In other words, an inside salesman wouldn't be exempt?"

Shea: "That's correct, Sir. Yeah."

Neff: "And that would be also parts men and so forth and an implement business and an automobile dealership..."

Shea: "Those would not be exempt. The Committee thought its assignment was to cover the professional, administrative and executive employees that was the complaint of the..."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Hanahan, for what purpose do you rise?"

Hanahan: "Maybe I could explain this, Jerry, they are already exempt under the existing law. We have already exempted those and automobile and farm sales, airplane sales. They were already one of the privileged exemptions in the law."

Neff: "Yes, but..."

Hanahan: "We did not...we did not touch that. They are exempt, period. They've been exempt, they were exempt, they are exempt."

Neff: "Tom, thinking of our parts men, for example,..."

Hanahan: "Yes, they're exempt."

Neff: "Well, they weren't under the..."

Hanahan: "It says any salesman or mechanic primarily engaged in selling or servicing automobiles if he's employed by a nonmanufacturing establishment primarily engaged in the business of selling vehicles or implements..."

Neff: "Well, right now I've had several complaints from implement dealers, automobile dealers. Under the present law, and the present director says they are not exempt according to the way he interprets it."

Hanahan: "It says, 'Any salesman or mechanic primarily engaged in selling or servicing automobiles, trucks or farm implements, if he is employed by a nonmanufacturing establishment primarily engaged in the business of selling such vehicles or implements to ultimate purchasers, or any salesman primarily engaged in selling trailers, boats, aircraft, if he is employed in a nonmanufacturing establishment primarily engaged in the business of selling trailers, boats or aircraft to ultimate purchasers'. It's a specific exemption. Who else do you want to exempt, for God's sake, you've got enough there, ain't ya?"

Neff: "Just like the federal law is now and it specifies..."

Hanahan: "No, it's not like the federal law. It's specific. It's a state law and it is not the same because the parts boys are covered under the state law."

Neff: "Well, in other words, it doesn't exempt parts men and so forth."

Hanahan: "For Christ's sake, them poor guys aren't making $3.00 an hour, you want to give them overtime, too?"

Neff: "Also, either Tom or..."

Hanahan: "How much do you pay your parts boy? You don't want to give him time-and-a-half after forty?"

Neff: "Something else, either Jerry or Tom. And Tom does a pretty good job of answering even though he doesn't give me the right answers that I'd like to have. Tom, is there anything in this here on the minimum salary that they exempt from this, or get a certain salary?"

Hanahan: "Pardon me, I didn't..."

Neff: "I mean, are they exempt if they get over a certain salary, is there a minimum salary in this particular Bill?"

Hanahan: "No, the...anyone is specifically in the law now without this Conference Committee right now, the law specifically exempts those employees who are salesmen or mechanics that work for dealers..."

Neff: "Yeah."

Hanahan: "You know, that sell automobiles that are related...that are of the manufacturers franchise."

Neff: "Yeah, that's in the present law right now."

Hanahan: "That's right."

Neff: "And there's nothing in here that exempts small employees, no... small employees."

Speaker Redmond: "Bring your questioning to a close, Representative Neff. Representative Schlickman is..."

Hanahan: "Small employees, I mean, what do you mean, small employees?"

Neff: "Well, I mean like the federal law at different will have 15..."

Hanahan: "I can't hear you, Sir."

Neff: "Fifteen employees or maybe..."

Hanahan: "No, it covers everyone, the law covers everyone that employees more than three."

Neff: "More than three. Okay, thank you."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Schlickman."

Schlickman: "Mr. Speaker, Members of the House, I am going to vote for the adoption of this Conference Committee Report and I'm going to do it with the understanding that it's the intention of the General Assembly to correct not an intentional act of this Body last year through House Bill 3318 but rather to correct an inadvertency that it occurred without intention. And I say that, Mr. Speaker, Members of the House, because while we will be changing the law basically to what it was there is a gap in time between the effectiveness of House Bill 3318 and the effectiveness of House Bill 1930. And I believe, Mr. Speaker, I'm voting on this basis, that we are establishing legislative intention and that there by the passage or adoption of this Conference Committee Report and the subsequent approval by the Governor, House Bill 1930, we are establishing as a matter of legislative intention that no overtime was due previously from the passage and approval and effectiveness of House Bill 3318 to any of these exempt categories that are being restored. Thank you."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Kent."

Kent: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker, could I ask a question of Representative Shea?"

Speaker Redmond: "Proceed."

Kent: "I would like to know if there is a salary limit that was not answered, and I heard downstairs in the Hearing there was a proposal, is that in this Bill?"

Shea: "The original proposal from the Department of Labor was that an employee that was a executive, an administrator or personnel, professional, that made over 11,400 would be exempted. We have now included the language as defined by the Federal Fair Labor Standards Act. And the Federal Fair Labor Standards Act does as one of their determinations include a national average that is two or three thousand dollars below that figure. In one instance as I remember it, Mrs. Kent, was eighty-eight hundred dollars and another instance ninety-six hundred dollars in those areas."

Kent: "So in other words this one will follow the federal average rather than the eleven..."

Shea: "Yes."

Kent: "...That we...was discussed downstairs."

Shea: "Yes. This is defined in terms of the Federal Act."

Kent: "Thank you."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Ryan."

Ryan: "Well, thank you, Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, I would just like to substantiate what Representative Shea has said here. I think this is the package that we needed and that we wanted to get us through. It's exactly what we have to have now at this time. I don't know what else we're going to do. I don't think we've got any option but to pass it and I would certainly hope that we could get that done as quickly as possible."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Grotberg. Representative Grotberg."

Grotberg: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker, one more question of the Sponsor..."

or Representative Shea. Representative Shea, I refer you to the last page which is the guts of the Amendment. On the... line 156 which refers to 'not-for-profit', I happen to work for a not-for-profit organization and have all my life even though it was not intended that way."

Shea: "It wasn't incorporated that way."

Grotberg: "Incorporated that way. Do I read by that that the line 156 from then on means that it is lesser factor for not-for-profit organizations?"

Shea: "It means that the director in the department can pass rules and 'regs' to decrease the amount that the federal guidelines set up to an amount less than that for not-for-profit corporations within the State of Illinois that was specifically included to take care...those hospitals that are complaining so vigorously."

Grotberg: "Thank you, that answers my question and I would like to... as one of those $12,000 a year employees, I want to make it clear that I'm exempt. Thank you."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Cunningham."

Cunningham: "Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, the distinguished Gentleman from the 33rd District should not be permitted to attack the Republicans with impunity or without reply. Those of us on this side of the aisle who have fought so long the battle to keep jobs and industry in Illinois deserve a better fate than that. In this particular instance we witnessed again and again with sickening regularity throughout the 79th General Assembly the charm, the charm that the Gentleman from the 33rd District has worked upon this House in passing legislation that has had a disastrous effect in Illinois of driving out jobs and opportunities. He has done more for industry in Arkansas than anybody in Arkansas..."

Speaker Redmond: "Bring your remarks to a close, please."

Cunningham: "Of...In Arkansas or Illinois it's late in the 79th Session but it's not too late for each of you to resolve in his own heart by correcting this error today, we...."

Speaker Redmond: "Bring your remarks to a close, please."

Cunningham: "If the truth stings, Mr. Speaker, we, by correcting this error that we have shown the bias in the past against the industry in the next Session of the General Assembly we can, again, create a healthy atmosphere in Illinois for jobs and opportunity."

And I hope the Gentleman of the 33rd will join in that effort."

Speaker Redmond: "Representative Ebbesen."

Ebbesen: "Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question."

Speaker Redmond: "Gentleman has moved the previous question. All in favor say 'aye'; 'aye'; opposed, 'no'. The 'ayes' have it. Representative Shea to close."

Shea: "Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, I move that the House do now concur in Conference Committee, or do adopt Conference Committee Report #1 with regards to House Bill 1930 of the 79th General Assembly."

Speaker Redmond: "Question is, shall the House adopt Conference Committee #1 to House Bill 1930. Those in favor vote 'aye', opposed vote 'no'. Representative Hanahan to explain his dissent."

Hanahan: "Mr. Speaker, Members of the House, after listening to the eloquence of the Gentleman from Lawrence that, and I hate to do this because you may think it's a curve, I'm intending to vote 'aye' on this Amendment, on this motion. So those of you that haven't read the Amendment and you think that you don't have to have some fitful nights sleeping, I suggest you read what you've done and don't go home smirking because I'm going to vote 'aye' and let you guess why."

Speaker Redmond: "Have all voted who wish? The Clerk will take the record. On this question there's a 154 'aye' and 1 'no' and the House does adopt Conference Committee Report #1 to House Bill 1930. Representative Shea."

Shea: "Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now stand adjourned until 9 a.m. Monday morning."

Speaker Redmond: "Any...Gentleman has moved that the House do now adjourn 'til 9 a.m. Monday morning. Any objection, Representative Ryan? Question's on the Gentleman's motion. All in favor say 'aye'; 'aye'; opposed 'no'. The 'ayes' have it. What, Representative

Walsh? 9 a.m. You're due here at 9 a.m. and then you may parade in a body to the...yeah. 9 a.m."

1.

Page	Time	Speaker	Information
1	2:00	Doorkeeper
1		Speaker Redmond	House to order
1		Reverend Krueger	Prayer
1		Speaker Redmond	Roll Call for attendance
1		Shea	Excused absence
1		Speaker Redmond
1		Washburn
1		Speaker Redmond
2	2:06	Shea	Move H.B. 1930-Amendment #1
2		Speaker Redmond	Motion carries
2		Washburn	Excused absence
2		Speaker Redmond
2		Shea	Excused absence
2		Speaker Redmond
2		Washburn	Republican conference
2		Speaker Redmond
2		Washburn
3	2:10	Speaker Redmond	House at ease
3	3:19	Speaker Redmond	House to order
3		Clerk O'Brien	Message from the Senate
3		Speaker Redmond	Conf. Com. H.B. 1930
3	3:25	Ryan	S.B. 2026
4		Speaker Redmond)
4, 5		Ryan)	Move to reconsider vote
5	3:30	Bradley
5		Speaker Redmond	Recess to call of Chair

Page	Time	Speaker	Information
5		Speaker Redmond
5	5:35	Shea
5		Speaker Redmond	Recess 'til six
5		Byers	S.B. 2026
6		Speaker Redmond
6		Shea	Leave for C. C. to meet
6		Speaker Redmond
6		Clerk O'Brien	S.B. 2026-3rd
6		Speaker Redmond	Passed
7	5:40	Choate	Farewell speech
9		Speaker Redmond
9		Choate
10		Speaker Redmond
10	5:55	Schlickman
10		Speaker Redmond
10		Geo-Karis
10		Speaker Redmond
10	5:56	Hirschfeld	Farewell
11		Speaker Redmond
12		Lucco	Tribute to Choate
13		Speaker Redmond
13		Lechowicz	Request suspension of rules
13	6:05	Speaker Redmond
13		Clerk Selcke	H.R. 1111 (Choate)
14		Speaker Redmond
14		Lechowicz	On Resolution 1111
15		Speaker Redmond

Page	Time	Speaker	Information
15		Washburn	On Choate
16		Speaker Redmond
17		Davis
17		Speaker Redmond
17		Choate	Responds to Lechowicz
18		Speaker Redmond	Agreed Resolutions
18		Clerk Selcke
18		Speaker Redmond
18		Giorgi
18		Speaker Redmond	Resolution adopted
19		Clerk Selcke
19		Speaker Redmond	Committee on Assignments
19		Meyer
19	7:07	Speaker Redmond
19	7:18	Shea	Asks to read Amendment
19		Speaker Redmond
30		Walsh)	Requests copy of Bill
)
20		Shea)	Proceeds
20		Speaker Redmond
21, 22	7:25	Hanahan
23	7:30	Speaker Redmond
24		Neff)
)
24		Shea)
24		Speaker Redmond
24		Hanahan)
)
25, 26		Neff)

Page	Time	Speaker	Information
26		Speaker Redmond
26		Schlickman)	Question
26		Shea)
27		Speaker Redmond
27		Kent)
27	7:40	Shea)
27	7:43	Speaker Redmond
27		Ryan)
27		Shea)
27		Speaker Redmond
27		Grotberg)
28		Shea)
29		Speaker Redmond)
29		Cunningham)
29		Ebbesen	Move previous question
29		Speaker Redmond
29	7:45	Shea	To close
29		Speaker Redmond
29		Hanahan
29		Speaker Redmond	House adopts 1st C.C.R.
29		Shea	Move House adjourn
29, 30		Speaker Redmond	House adjourned

