

Secretary Howlett: "Ladies and gentlemen, the House will be in order. Will the Doorkeeper please see that everybody is off the floor who is not entitled to it according to the rules? What? We're very happy to have with us this morning the President Pro Tem of the . . . the President of the Illinois State Senate, a great American, Senator Cecil Partee. Ladies and gentlemen, the invocation this morning will be given by Father James Casey, the pastor of St. Agnes Catholic Church in Springfield, Illinois."

Father Casey: "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. I would like to express the prayer in the words of Senator Partee, 'We believe in God. America is a great country.' Amen."

Secretary Howlett: "You keep giving short prayers like that and you're going to be a "cinch" to be a bishop, Father. The clerk will proceed with the roll call."

Groberg: "Yes, Mr. Speaker, Ladies and gentlemen of the House, I thought perhaps the membership would be interested. I spoke for about fifteen minutes this morning with Representative Robert Juckett, who is up at the Lutheran General Hospital in Chicago or in Park Ridge. He sends his regards to each and every one of us and those of you who know Bob know that he is really suffering more right now for not being here, because he loves nothing better than a floor fight, and he sends his regards to each of you; plans to be out in two weeks, which is good news this morning because there have been rumors going around here that he's a pretty sick boy. He is still sick but he's looking, hopefully, to being with us in a couple of weeks. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Secretary Howlett: "Thank you, Representative, and while you're up there, you might tell him where we can get sport coats like that."

Groberg: "Couple of more days of this and I'll sell one of these squares of it to anybody who wants it. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Katz, 4. Washington, 3. The 15th roll call proceeds.

Representative Corneal Davis, the dean of the House of Representatives."

Davis: "Mr. Secretary of State, may I be so bold as to ask the leadership of my party: would they call a caucus and see if we can't go in behind closed doors and let our hands down as good Democrats and say what's on our minds and agree to shake hands and come out here and elect a Speaker and go about the business of the . . . of the General Assembly and the business of people . . . for the people . . . which the people have elected us."

Howlett: "I suggest you walk about eighteen feet and ask them."

Davis: "Well, that's what I'm doing now. One's over here and one's over there and one's . . . May we have a caucus, gentlemen, we have a . . . may we have a caucus and see if we can't resolve this thing? We're in a hopeless deadlock and I think a caucus will resolve it."

Howlett: "We will have a five minute recess while Corneal Davis confers. Representative Lauer."

Lauer: "Mr. Secretary . . . ah . . . since the Democrats can't seem to agree at this point, may I suggest that we reopen nominations and nominate Secretary Howlett as permanent Speaker?"

Secretary Howlett: "If I was from Logan County and had so many people on the payroll of the Secretary's Office, I wouldn't be so brash, Representative Lauer, We're in recess. Representative Corneal Davis . . . ah . . . you want the floor?"

Davis: "Thank you. Mr. Secretary of the State, I tried to confer with some of my distinguished friends. Representative Gale Schisler's here and he said they don't want a caucus. I talked to one of my leaders over there and he's tried to talk and they don't want to talk to him, so thank you very much. Here's one right here that say he doesn't want a caucus . . ."

Secretary Howlett: "We'll proceed with the roll call."

Secretary Howlett: "Ladies and gentlemen, a former member of the House who is reflecting credit on the new office of State Comptroller: the Honorable George Lindberg. I've told him here that nobody here needs any money. I think we ought to recognize and pay tribute to a man who is a very patient man and waiting through these proceedings so he can swear in the Speaker of the House, Justice Kluczynski of the Supreme Court. And in answer to an inquiry from the Democratic side of the House, on Sunday we'll arrange for television for the Super Bowl. The twentieth roll call: Choate, 59. Bradley, 13. Stone, 3. Washburn, 71.
 Tipsword, 4. Sangmeister, 3. Redmond, 7. Katz, 3.

Redmond, 10. Katz, 3. and Washington, 4. Representative Geo-Karis."

Geo-Karis: "Mr. Secretary and ladies and gentlemen of the House, I thought the House would like to know that in 1913 we 77 roll calls, 13 session days, 22 calendar days, and it went from January 8 to January 29, 1913. Now, I don't mind, but I'm beginning to get more flowers here. I wonder if people think we are going to be buried alive over here. And I do wish that my brothers and sisters on the other side of the aisle--I love you all--please resolve your differences; we are spending the taxpayers' money; we are being paid every day we here and we are not doing a darn thing. Let's get moving!"

Secretary Howlett: "Representative Geo-Karis, I'm glad you love the Democrats; I wish they loved one another. Continue with the twenty-second roll call."

 coffee. Six coffee and one tea. Bud Heckenkamp."

Secretary Howlett: "There will be a caucus of the Democratic freshmen members in Room M-5 immediately. Representative Schneider."

Schneider: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Might I ask at whose request? And if it is a formal caucus, you need 20%."

Secretary Howlett: "I don't know if it is informal or formal or semi-formal; all I know is that they want to meet."

Birchler, Choate. Borchers"

Secretary Howlett: "Representative Borchers."

Borchers: "A...this is all very interesting, but I'd like to make a motion before I cast my vote. For the rest of the 28th roll call of the Republican members, I move the previous Republican roll call. That will save a lot of time and messing around and let the Democrats have their way."

Secretary Howlett: "It's a very interesting observation.
Representative Washburn."

Washburn: "I would suggest that you proceed with the roll call, Mr. Secretary."

Secretary Howlett: "Borchers votes for Washburn. Proceed."

Secretary Howlett: "The Chair recognizes Representative Arthur Berman."

Berman: "The Clerk, there has been filed with the Clerk House Resolution No. 2, which calls for the provisional Clerk to be authorized in receipt for the various notices of election contests transmitted pursuant to law by the State Board of Elections, and the resolution calls for the authorization to that provisional Clerk to accept in receipt for those notices. This resolution has been cleared with both sides of the aisle. This is necessary to comply with the statute that requires that a...a...election contests must be filed by the second day of the General Assembly session. And I would move the adoption of House Resolution 2."

Secretary Howlett: "All in favor signify by saying 'aye'. Contrary minded? The 'ayes' have it and so ordered. The Chair recognizes the distinguished leader of the Republican Party, Representative Washburn."

Washburn: "Thank you Mr. Speaker. I just want to say that I'm delighted that we are finally getting to some of the business that the people expected us to transact down here. Thank you. Have you announced the totals for the last roll call?"

Secretary Howlett: "Not yet, Mr. Washburn. I could say same as last time, but I won't. Roll call 28: Choate, 55.

Bradley, 11. Stone, 3. Washburn, 72. Tipsword, 7.

Sangmeister, 5. Redmond, 8. Katz, 2. Washington,

The Chair recognizes Representative Washburn."

Washburn: "Thank you again. Mr. Secretary and ladies and gentlemen of the House, now, this procedure has droned on today for about eight hours with no significant changes. I would like to suggest that we adjourn at this time so that those involved in the other side of the aisle can sit down to a leisurely meal and perhaps visit during that period and have further time to visit before they retire for a good night's sleep. And perhaps we could return here tomorrow and settle down and function as a responsible legislative body. So I therefore move that we adjourn right now until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning."

Secretary Howlett: "Everybody in favor of adjourning until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning signify by saying 'aye'.
Contrary minded? See you in the morning."
