

STATE OF ILLINOIS
85th GENERAL ASSEMBLY
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

16th Legislative Day

March 12, 1987

Speaker Greiman: "The hour of 12:00 having arrived, the House will be in Session. Members will be in their seats. The Chaplain for today will be Father Frank O'Hara, Pastor of SS. Peter and Paul's Catholic Church of Springfield. Father O'Hara is the guest of Representative Michael Curran. The guests in the gallery may rise to join us for the invocation. Father O'Hara."

Father O'Hara: "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Father of love, help us to know Your will and to do it with courage and faith. Show us the way to bring peace to this little world we live in, that the whole world might live in peace. Help us to embrace Your will. Give us the strength to follow Your call so that Your truth, living in our hearts, might reflect peace to those who believe in Your love. We ask this through the Prince of Love. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, amen."

Speaker Greiman: "The Gentleman from McLean, Mr. Ropp, will lead us in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag."

Ropp - et al: "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Speaker Greiman: "Roll Call for Attendance. The Gentleman from Lake, Mr. Matijevich. Are there any excused absences on the Democratic side?"

Matijevich: "Speaker, there are none. I've got the note."

Speaker Greiman: "Thank you. Mr. Piel, are there any excused absences on the Republican side?"

Piel: "Yes, would the record show that Representative Klemm and Representative Ryder are excused today, Mr. Speaker?"

Speaker Greiman: "Let the record so reflect. Mr. Clerk, take the Speaker Greiman: "On page two of the Calendar on the Order of House Bills Third Reading appears House Bill 9. Alright. Out of the record. On the Order of House Bills Third Reading appears House Bill 300. Mr. McNamara? Do you wish to proceed? Alright, we'll take that out of the record for a moment. On page three of the Calendar on the Order of the Speaker's Table appears House Resolution 17. Mr. Clerk?"

Clerk O'Brien: "House Resolution 17 concerns the Federal Tax Reform Act of 1986. Public Utility Committee recommends 'be adopted as amended'."

Speaker Greiman: "The Gentleman from Fulton, Mr. Homer."

Homer: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would ask leave to withdraw Amendment #1."

Speaker Greiman: "The Gentleman asks leave to withdraw Amendment #1 to House Resolution 17. The Gentleman has leave, and House Resolution... House Amendment #1 to House Resolution 17 is withdrawn."

Clerk O'Brien: "Amendment #2 was adopted in Committee."

Speaker Greiman: "Are there any further Amendments, Mr. Clerk?"

Clerk O'Brien: "No further Amendments."

Speaker Greiman: "Mr. Homer, on the... on the Resolution."

Homer: "Thank you. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The Federal Congress and the Federal Tax Reform Act of 1986, among other things, reduced the corporate income tax rate from 46 percent to 34 percent. The public utility companies in... that operate within the State of Illinois are such corporations that will be directly... favorably impacted by that Act of Congress, so that public utility companies that are now basing their utility rates through approval of the Commerce Commission on a... an expense item that had been in their rate base because of a 46 percent federal tax rate, will now only have to pay 34 percent of their corporate income to the Federal Government. As a result, there's a windfall or reduction in the amount that public utility corporations operating in the State of Illinois will have to pay to the Federal Government. For that reason, it would make sense that the savings ought to ... to the benefit of consumers. And in that spirit and with that thought in mind, House Resolution 17 as amended would provide for three things: number one, it would call upon the Commerce Commission to conduct a study to determine what exact savings will the utility companies receive as a result of the Tax Reform Act of 1986; number two, it would require the Commerce Commission to report those findings to the Economic and Fiscal Commission and to the Illinois General Assembly; and number three, that if, in fact, the study indicates that there will be a windfall in savings to the utilities, then in that event, the Resolution calls upon the Commerce Commission to implement proceedings whereby those savings will be passed along to the consumer, the people who pay for their natural gas, for their electric use, for their telephone service. I would ask that the Body join me in supporting this House Resolution, and I would at this time, Mr. Speaker, vote for its favorable consideration."

Speaker Greiman: "The Gentleman from Fulton has moved for the adoption of House Resolution 17. And on that, is there any discussion? The Gentleman from Cook, Mr. Piel."

Piel: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Will the Gentleman yield for a question?"

Speaker Greiman: "Indicates that he will."

Piel: "Representative Homer, correct me if I'm wrong, but isn't it true now, with Amendment #2 on the Resolution, that all interested groups, basically the citizens' groups, the Commerce Commission and utilities are all in agreement on this?"

Homer: "Let me say, Representative Piel, that I'm aware of no organized opposition."

Piel: "I'm sorry, Tom..."

Homer: "I'm aware of no opposition."

Piel: "Fine. Thank you very much."

Speaker Greiman: "Is there any further discussion? There being none, the question is, 'Shall House Resolution 17 be adopted?' Those in favor say 'aye', opposed 'no'. In the opinion of the Chair, the 'ayes' have it, and the Resolution is adopted. Introduction and First Reading."

Speaker Greiman: "Mr. Flinn, the Chairman of Elections, has announced that there will be a meeting of the Election Committee at 2:00 in Room 114 today. Yes, Mr. Johnson? For what purpose do you seek recognition?"

Johnson: "I couldn't hear everything Monroe said. Are we going to be... that Committee meet tomorrow, or only today, this week? I couldn't hear... I couldn't hear for the noise in the background."

Speaker Greiman: "Well, why don't you, rather than take the time up, why don't you just ask him? Mr. Johnson, did you get your answer? Mr. Flinn."

Flinn: "I'm sorry. I was waiting for my microphone. What's the question?"

Speaker Greiman: "Yes, Mr. Johnson just wondered if the Committee was going to be in session tomorrow."

Flinn: "No, I don't think we're going to be in session tomorrow, but there's a good likelihood we will be Monday, and we have not set the hour. I'll talk to the Committee and all the staff and everybody then at today's meeting to see a suitable hour for Monday, but it appears right now we will not meet tomorrow."

Ladies and Gentlemen, we are preparing to adjourn at this time, and will adjourn upon the adoption of a Death Resolution for a former Member, so if I might have your attention, Mr. Clerk, on the Death Resolution of a former Member. Ladies and Gentlemen."

Clerk Leone: "House Resolution 136. Whereas, the Members of this Assembly were saddened to learn of the sudden death of one of our former colleagues, C.L. McCormick, who served as a Member of the Illinois House for 20 years; and whereas,

C.L. McCormick will long be remembered in these hallowed halls for his eloquent oratory, colorful stories and long and humorous tirades on this House floor; and whereas he may be best remembered for his deep love for the beautiful country in southern Illinois, for his fierce devotion to serving the residents of that area, and the outstanding manner in which he represented those people; and whereas, former Representative McCormick was born in Polk County in 1919 and began his political career as a... at the young age of 21, when he won a seat to the Vienna City Council; and whereas, his political career was interrupted briefly by service in World War II, followed by his involvement in both the taxi and restaurant businesses; and whereas, he re-entered public life in 1950 by being elected as the Johnson County Clerk, a position he held until 1956, when he won the first of nine consecutive House terms; and whereas, Representative McCormick temporarily retired from the House in 1974, but in 1980, decided to run again and won another two year term to this chamber; and whereas, his legislative career was highlighted by countless accomplishments for the people of southern Illinois, including landing the Vienna Correctional Center, the Illinois Youth Center in Dixon Springs, and the Bowman Development Center in Harrisburg and expanding the... the state parks; and whereas, even after his retirement from the Illinois General Assembly, C.L. McCormick remained an active participant in Southern Illinois Politics; whereas, in 1958, C.L. McCormick married Irma Turner, and the couple had two children, Michael and Christopher, all of whom survived; therefore, be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the 85th General Assembly of the State of Illinois that we do hereby express our sorrow at the death of former State Representative C.L. McCormick, and further express our heartfelt sympathy to his wife, sons and brother Howard, and be if further resolved that suitable copies of this preamble be presented to his family, and as a further token of our esteem, that the House now stand adjourned."

Speaker Greiman: "The Gentleman from Perry, Mr. Goforth."

Goforth: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just had the privilege to know C.L. just a few years now, but of all of the Members up here, and especially on the other side of the aisle and my side, too, I've never heard a bad word said about him. I hope that I can just, in a very small way, be as effective as he was in this Assembly for southern Illinois. I think one of the greatest tributes we could pay to the man, and I ask leave of the House to all Members of this House to join in this Resolution with me."

Speaker Greiman: "The Gentleman asks leave. Leave is hereby granted. The Gentleman from Perry, Mr. Goforth, has moved for the adoption of this Resolution. On that, the Gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Rea."

Rea: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker, Members of the House. I've known C.L. McCormick for many years. And I knew him when I was just a kid, and remember the work and the love that he had, not only for Johnson County and for the region of southern Illinois, but for the state. He was one of the greatest speakers that we've had in this Body. He always had humor in his message, but he was always able to convey his point, and he was a very effective Legislator, and he would... will often be remembered for one of the greatest speeches that was given on this House floor, that being about the mosquitoes in southern Illinois, but he is also remembered for many others. And the people from Southern Illinois, they will long remember C.L. McCormick as they travel throughout the area, whether they are visiting a state park, driving down the highway, or maybe passing by a correctional center or a mental health center. They will remember that C.L. McCormick had a hand in bringing that forth to the region of the state. He loved this Body very much, as you well know, and came back the second time to serve here in the General Assembly. Politics was a part of his life. He loved it. He lived it 24 hours a day. He had friends on both sides of the aisle, and he was a hard fighter, but one that was always willing to work out a compromise. C.L. McCormick will long be remembered in the State of Illinois and in southern Illinois."

Speaker Greiman: "The Gentleman from Lake, Mr. Matijevich."

Matijevich: "Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, I'm not from Southern Illinois, but I served with C.L. McCormick. If you didn't know him, you really missed somebody, and as I happened to turn around, I noticed his district mate - as you know then, we had three in a district - Clyde Choate is back there listening intently to what we're saying about C.L. McCormick, who is his friend and our friend. You really missed probably the best orator I've ever seen in my lifetime here in this Legislature. He was just a marvel to listen to. I mean to tell you I remember his speech on the state income tax, and everybody knows what type of issue that was back in '69. I mean, he would get to shouting to a point... to a fury, and then all of a sudden, he'd come down to a whisper. And when somebody just called his name out from the podium, 'C.L. McCormick', everybody just was quiet. They just waited to hear C.L. McCormick. His mosquito speech on the biggest mosquitoes ever in the world in southern Illinois, his love for everybody. I mean, he would tell people from Chicago, 'I vote for all your Bills.' And then he would go on to why he needed your vote for downstate Illinois. I think there's probably more rest stops in southern Illinois than there is anywhere, and they... they can contribute that to C.L. McCormick. C.L. McCormick would like to know that everybody loved him, because he shared that love for every single person, and I just appreciate the fact that there were people like C.L. McCormick representing districts in the State of Illinois. I, for this side of the aisle, would like to naturally extend our deepest sympathies and condolences to the C.L. McCormick family. God bless you, C.L. You gave us some good times, here. You had us listen to you. You were both humorous and serious. You were one of the most effective Legislators I know, and may God eternally rest... his blessings rest with you eternally."

Speaker Greiman: "The Gentleman from St. Clair, Mr. Flinn."

Flinn: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. C.L. McCormick was a guy who was all the things that all those people have said about him. It's difficult to say enough about what kind of Representative he was. There are not many of us around that remember or was here when the mosquito story was told on the floor of the House, but many, many of us who were not here know about it. C.L. didn't look upon us as Democrats and Republicans. He looked upon us as Members of the House of Representatives. He was a very effective Legislator. He not only represented his own district, but the one thing he did was vote in such a manner that made him proud to be a State of Illinois Representative. He represented the entire state from Chicago to Cairo and all included. He will be sorely missed, not only as a human being, but far and few between come Legislators such as C.L. McCormick. And I am very proud that someone asked that I be one of the Sponsors along with all of the rest of the Members, and I can think of no higher honor than to honor... bestowed upon me by being one of the Members who endorsed the Resolution for C.L. McCormick."

Speaker Greiman: "The Gentleman from McLean, Mr. Ropp."

Ropp: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker and Members of the House. I think it can truly be said that this little man, short in stature, was certainly a big power in the State of Illinois, and truly represented his district, one that I think all of us can emulate in terms of what it means to represent the people of one's respective district. And I can recall any number of times when the Session would be a little bit draggy near the end of June, I don't think there was ever a time that anyone was ever asked to repeat his story on the mosquito as he did. And it was kind of an uplifting kind of a story that everyone really ravished in and enjoyed it. And certainly, we will... we will not miss him, we will long remember the activities that he provided for us in terms of leadership, but he was a person that had a unique ability to always know exactly where he stood on any issue. And it's true, he did have a compromising spirit, and certainly, I think it can truly be said that the State of Illinois is a better place to live because of C.L. McCormick being in the Illinois General Assembly."

Speaker Greiman: "The Gentleman from Saline, Mr. Phelps."

Phelps: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. To know C.L. was more than to just be an acquaintance. He would make you be a friend. That was typical of his character and his personality and his attitude and his love for his fellow man. I was honored, my brothers and I, to be a part of his program on his retirement in 1974 when he and the Honorable Clyde Choate retired. His love for gospel music brought us close together, and as I shared last week, a week ago today at his funeral in Vienna, the program for the funeral ended with the congregation singing 'Amazing Grace'. He was more than just a community leader and a governmental leader recognized throughout the State of Illinois. C.L. McCormick, as I characterized his service, emerged during a time that I view as a renaissance of leadership for southern Illinois, the great Paul Powell years, Clyde Choate, and of course, C.L. McCormick. Those are the years that I envy and hope to follow in the right footsteps to become and, in just a small portion as effective. But to say that we have lost him is not correct, because his influence is still all around us. If he's touched your life in any way, you will remember him. And to this day, I believe the people of southern Illinois would join us all in saying that they sent their very best to Springfield. Thank you."

Speaker Greiman: "The question is, 'Shall the Resolution be adopted?' All those in favor signify by saying 'aye', those opposed 'no'. In the opinion of the Chair, the 'ayes' have it. The Resolution is adopted, and allowing perfunctory time for the Clerk, the House now stands adjourned."
