

STATE OF ILLINOIS
86th GENERAL ASSEMBLY
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

103rd Legislative Day

April 19, 1990

Speaker Giglio: "The hour of 12:00 having arrived the House will be in Session, the Chaplain for the day is Father Douglas Lichtenberger, from the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Springfield. Father Lichtenberger is the guest of Representative Curran. The guests in the gallery may wish to rise for the invocation. Father."

Father Douglas Lichtenberger: "I'm sure all of us here represent different faiths, different viewpoints in our lives, we come together, you come together in Session today as many other Sessions that you meet you discuss, and to talk about your viewpoints in society around us. I call attention to a couple things that scriptures would tell us about, one of them is creation, and there is so many viewpoints on that but Earth Day is coming up to be celebrated and I know the Governor will have a great part in that himself and many other cities throughout the country. But it still calls upon us to recognize the fact that God has left us with something very good, very good, he saw how good it was and he said so and so we're called for greater respect for that in our lives. As well as to one another and to ourselves, and then there is an instance in the christian New Testament where Jesus calls upon us to be perfect, that word 'be perfect' can be translated and seen in so many different viewpoints as well, to be means we have to work for and to look for that in our lives. Not be there, not possess it as it is, let us pray. Dear God, we ask that You give us the grace, the understanding to always express our viewpoints, our understandings about the world and life around us. To help us come together and to share those in light of what we truly feel needs to be done, needs to be changed, needs to be enhanced, and governed by ourselves. What You have given us is good, the earth is good, the fruit and vegetables, the trees, the flowers, all creation, the animals, and even us as Your chosen people. We ask that You help us decide the things that will encourage us to take better care of not just creation, the things around us, but the people as well, to look more into the hearts and the needs of people and express what we need as well. Lord God we ask that You give us strength and courage to continue to make decisions to vocalize, to verbalize, everything that is necessary so that we can come to the right conclusions, the right decisions, and then from here when laws are enacted, when all laws are carried out, when they have been said and promogated wherever they go to whoever they go that we ourselves may be examples of those laws, those understandings, those graces, and the way to respect the good things around us. We pray for this Lord in our lives, we ask You to be with us to look over us, our families, and our friends, those who are not here with us today, and for the many Sessions ahead of us, where even more work will be done. We ask this in all things, in the name of all the goodness that You've given us, one God forever and ever. Amen."

Speaker Giglio: "We will be led by the Pledge of Allegiance, by Representative Ropp."

Ropp - et al: "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."
