

STATE OF ILLINOIS
87th GENERAL ASSEMBLY
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

16th Legislative Day

March 5, 1991

Speaker McPike: "The House will come to order. House will come to order. The Chaplain for today is Jamie S. Allen, the minister of the Ashland Church of Christ. Mr. Allen is the guest of Representative Tenhouse. The guests in the balcony may wish to rise and join us for the invocation."

Reverend Allen: "Will you bow with me for prayer, please? Father in heaven, we thank You and praise You for all the blessings of life. We praise You for Your great love and grace. As Americans, we are once again thankful that we enjoy peace. We're thankful for those men and women who fought, worked, sacrificed to preserve freedom. For those families that lost loved ones we ask that You would bless and comfort them. We pray that peace in the middle east would be lasting and we pray for the swift and safe return of our troops. As people of the great State of Illinois, we ask Your blessing upon this important Session of the House of Representatives. Father, bless those who make our laws, bless those who interpret our laws and bless those who enforce our laws. May You grant those in government a spirit of wisdom, a spirit of unity and a sense of justice for all. Let our officials be people of integrity, people of honesty and people that appreciate their awesome responsibility. Father, bless them and their families. Father, again we praise You for your greatness. Help us to be people that honor You through obedience. We pray these things through Jesus Christ. Amen."

Speaker McPike: "We'll be led in the pledge of allegiance by Representative Chuck Hartke."

Hartke, et al: "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Speaker McPike: "Roll Call for Attendance. Representative Piel."

Piel: "Yes, Mr. Speaker. Would the record show that Representative Deuchler is excused today?"

Speaker McPike: "Thank you. Representative Matijeovich."

Matijeovich: "Mr. Speaker, on this side of the aisle Representative Lang will be out for several days. I understand he's expecting an addition to the family...or his wife is expecting, I guess... or both of them are expecting."

Speaker McPike: "Would you switch Representative Levin and Representative Brunsvold to 'present'? Will you switch Representative Brunsvold to 'present', please? Thank you. Mr. Clerk, take the roll. One hundred fourteen Members answering the Roll Call, a quorum is present. Representative Woolard in the Chair."

Woolard: "Thank you Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. It indeed is an honor for me this morning, as we recognize a young man from my district, Mr. Jimmy Shill. Jimmy has exemplified those good things that individuals throughout the State of Illinois are accustomed to accomplishing. I think that we have a young man here that deserves to be heard because not only did he risk his life to save one of his fellow compadres, but he was exemplary to all of those around the state, including us of the adult nature. Jimmy Shill, this Resolution is for you. Jack, would you please read the Resolution?"

Clerk O'Brien: "House Resolution 49.

WHEREAS, The House of Representatives takes pleasure in recognizing the outstanding achievements of Illinois citizens; and

WHEREAS, Jimmy Shill, age 11, of Lake of Egypt, rescued his friend B. J. Collins from drowning on New Year's Day; and

WHEREAS, The boys were attempting to break a hole in the ice to go ice fishing when B.J. crashed through into six feet of water; and

WHEREAS, Weighted down by boots and jacket, B. J. clung to a piling while Jimmy tried to pull him out; and

WHEREAS, First, Jimmy tried to fasten a rope around his friend, and then he tried to remove the water-logged jacket but was unsuccessful in both and could not drag his friend out; and

WHEREAS, He ran for help, failed to find anyone home, ran back to the dock, stripped his own suit off in case he fell in and tried again to pull B. J. out but was unable to lift him; and

WHEREAS, Desperate, he ran a block in his stockinged feet and roused Jane Dorris; and

WHEREAS, In bare feet and clad only in her robe, Mrs. Dorris ran with Jimmy to B. J., who had been immersed for 15 minutes by now; and

WHEREAS, Jane Dorris and Jimmy Shill pulled B. J. Collins from the water and rushed him to her home to warm him; and

WHEREAS, Jimmy Shill, a 5th grader at Washington School, says that he learned how to behave in a crisis from Cub Scouts, and he thanks God that he was able to help his friend; and

WHEREAS, By keeping his head, Jimmy Shill saved a friend's life; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE EIGHTY-SEVENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, That we highly commend the courage of Jimmy Shill; that we congratulate him on bringing about the safe deliverance of his friend B.J. Collins from deadly peril; and that we offer our best wishes to Making it effective...immediately?"

Capparelli: "At the present time...the Bill passed and is signed."

Hartke: "Okay."

Capparelli: "What this does is give it an effective date upon signing which will be probably in July sometime."

Hartke: "Okay, thank you."

Speaker McPike: "Further discussion? Do you wish to close? The question is, 'Shall House Bill 120 pass?' All those in favor vote 'aye', opposed vote 'no'. Have all voted? Have all voted who wish? The Clerk will take the record. Capparelli 'aye'. On this Bill there are 105 'ayes', 3 'nos', 3 voting 'present' and House Bill 120 having received the Constitutional Majority is hereby declared passed. Mr. Clerk, read House Joint Resolution 8."

Giorgi: "Mr. Speaker, I'd like to announce the appearance of the former Appropriations Chairman of the House, Woods Bowman, who's now the Chief Financial Officer in Cook County. Woods Bowman."

Speaker McPike: "Representative Ellis Levin in the Chair."

Speaker Levin: "I'd like to...We have some visitors here from Israel, members of an Israeli youth delegation that's been in this country since last Friday. They're from Jerusalem and they'd like to say a few words to you. We have Joshua Fromkin and Ariel Weiss, so why don't you greet the Illinois House of Representatives?"

Ariel Weiss: "Mr. Speaker, Honorable Assembly, Hi. My name is Ariel Weiss and this is my friend, Joshua Fromkin. We are both 16 and we are both from Jerusalem. We are now members in the youth delegation sent from Israel, spread in the United States and in Europe. Josh."

Joshua Fromkin: "First, I would like to say we're very honored to be here in the House of Representatives and we are part of the youth delegation coming from Israel to mission to United States and Europe. We are going to visit the American youth in U. S. and the point is to create a greater understanding of Israel, that lately happens to be very much in the news and the headlines and we would like to also show the special way of living in Israel from a point of view of youth and give a positive image of Israel other than missile attacks on Tel Aviv and Haifa. Israel is a modern western democracy. An open society who cherishes its democratic values. It is committed to those values very much although it's under constant terrorist attacks and has experienced six wars since its establishment in 1948. Israel also is the only country that gets very generous support from the United States and we very much appreciate it. And not only that, but we
