Governor within 30 calendar days after its passage. The foregoing requirement shall be judicially enforceable. If the Governor approves the bill, he shall sign it and it shall become law.

(b) If the Governor does not approve the bill, he shall veto it by returning it with his objections to the house in which it originated. Any bill not so returned by the Governor within 60 calendar days after it is presented to him shall become law. If recess or adjournment of the General Assembly prevents the return of a bill, the bill and the Governor's objections shall be filed with the Secretary of State within such 60 calendar days. The Secretary of State shall return the bill and objections to the originating house promptly upon the next meeting of the same General Assembly at which the bill can be considered.

(c) The house to which a bill is returned shall immediately enter the Governor's objections upon its journal. If within 15 calendar days after such entry that house by a record vote of three-fifths of the members elected passes the bill, it shall be delivered immediately to the second house. If within 15 calendar days after such delivery the second house by a record vote of three-fifths of the members elected passes the bill, it shall become law.

(d) The Governor may reduce or veto any item of appropriations in a bill presented to him. Portions of a bill not reduced or vetoed shall become law. An item vetoed shall be returned to the house in which it originated and may become law in the same manner as a vetoed bill. An item reduced in amount shall be returned to the house in which it originated and may be restored to its original amount in the same manner as a vetoed bill ~~except that the required record vote shall be a majority of the members elected to each house.~~ If a reduced item is not so restored, it shall become law in the reduced amount.

(e) The Governor may return a bill together with specific recommendations for change to the house in which it originated. The bill shall be considered in the same manner as a vetoed bill but the specific recommendations may be accepted by a record vote of a majority of the members elected to each house. Such bill shall be presented again to the Governor and if he certifies that such acceptance conforms to his specific recommendations, the bill shall become law. If he does not so certify, he shall return it as a vetoed bill to the house in which it originated.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

WHEREAS, The Illinois General Assembly has enacted the State Mandates Act in which the General Assembly states:

"The General Assembly finds that preceding actions of the State government in specifying the manner, standards, and conditions under which public services are rendered to citizens by the political subdivisions of this State on occasion have not resulted in equitable relationships between the State government and its local political subdivisions. Some of these actions have dealt in detail with the internal management of local governments, others have specified the establishment of new services and facilities without providing any new revenue sources or any financial participation by the State in meeting the additional costs; still others have specified the adoption of higher service standards without a full assessment of the impact upon local expenditures and tax rates."; and

THE LEGISLATURE

Section 8. PASSAGE OF BILLS

(a) The enacting clause of the laws of this State shall be: "Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly."

(b) The General Assembly shall enact laws only by bill. Bills may originate in either house, but may be amended or rejected by the other.

(c) No bill shall become a law without the concurrence of a majority of the members elected to each house. Final passage of a bill shall be by record vote. In the Senate at the request of two members, and in the House at the request of five members, a record vote may be taken on any other occasion. A record vote is a vote by yeas and nays on the journal.

(d) A bill shall be read by title on three different days in each house. A bill and each amendment thereto shall be reproduced and placed on the desk of each member before final passage.

Bills, except bills for appropriations and for the codification, revision or rearrangement of laws, shall be confined to one subject. Appropriation bills shall be limited to the subject of appropriations.

TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

29th Legislative Day

April 4, 1991

A bill expressly amending a law shall set forth completely the sections amended.

(e) A bill that would require the expenditure of funds by a unit of local government or school district in order to implement that bill, or a bill that would exempt privately owned property or other specified items from the local tax base, shall not become law unless either:

(1) the bill passes with the concurrence of at least three-fifths of the members elected to each house; or

(2) the bill passes with the concurrence of a majority of the members elected to each house and a companion appropriation bill is passed to provide for reimbursement by the State to the unit of local government or school district of those funds necessary to implement the requirements of the bill, or to replace the revenue loss created by the bill.

An appropriation to meet the requirements of a bill which has been passed under paragraph (2) of this subsection (e) shall not be subject to actions by the Governor under subsection (d) of Section 9 of Article IV of this Constitution unless the Governor vetoes, under subsection (b) of that Section, the bill that would require the expenditure of funds or result in a revenue loss to units of local government or school districts through its implementation.

(f) The Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President of the Senate shall sign each bill that passes both houses to certify that the procedural requirements for passage have been met.

SCHEDULE

This Amendment takes effect upon its approval by the electors of this State. First Reading of this Constitutional Amendment."
