TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

Speaker McPike: "The House will come to order. The House will come to order. The Chaplain for today is Reverend Bob Burton of Ashmore First Baptist Church in Ashmore, Illinois. Reverend Burton is the guest of Representative Weaver. The guests in the balcony may wish to rise and join us for the invocation."

Reverend Burton: "Let us pray. Father, today we praise You for being sovereign with the mighty hand of providence. Nothing escapes Your notice or care. You are Lord of all, creator, redeemer, savior and friend. Thank You for that intimate relationship we can experience. We thank You for our heritage of this country and great state. Thank You for the freedoms as well as the responsibilities that come with citizenship. We are so grateful for the benefits such as schools, universities, roads, parks, law enforcement, public assistance, and especially our freedom of worship, along with the responsibility of church in this day we live. May the church make an impact in our society through our power...Your power, oh Lord. We pray for our Governor and his staff today, the judicial system and all of our Representatives of this General Assembly here today. Also, we pray for their families. Whatever may be on the agenda for today's business, may all debate and votes lead to solutions. Bless the use of our resources and help us to live within our means. On any moral issues, God, grant us wisdom for purity and ethical integrity that will please You and accomplish Your purposes. May we love you, Lord God, with all our heart, soul and mind, and also love our neighbor as ourselves. Thank You for the transforming truth of these words from Your son, Jesus, in whom's (sic whose) name we pray today, and with Your blessings. Amen."

Speaker McPike: "We will be led in the Pledge of Allegiance by
