Speaker Madigan: "The House shall come to order. The House shall come to order. The Members shall be in their chairs. We shall be led in prayer today by Father Frank O'Hara of the St. Peter and Paul Catholic Church in Springfield. Father O'Hara is the guest of Representative Gwenn Klingler. The guests in the Gallery may wish to rise and join us in invocation."

Father O'Hara: "Dear Lord, in this Chamber, make our Representatives instruments of Your peace. Where there is hatred, let them so love. Where there is injury, pardon. Where there is doubt, faith. Where there is despair, hope. Where there is darkness, light. And where there is sadness, joy. Grant that our Representatives may not so much seek to be consoled, as to console. To be understood as to understand, and to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that they will receive, it is in pardoning that they will be pardoned, and in doing they will be born to eternal life. Thank you."

Speaker Madigan: "We shall be led in the Pledge of Allegiance by Representative Hartke."

Hartke - et al: "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

And then with the assistance from the computer person, I realized I had to plug it in. Now we have it, and I just, I'm going to just make sure that I've got it clearly understood that Floor Amendments can be filed at the Clerk's well anytime we're open, which is obvious. And then we have the names of three individuals that we can file with at the House Journal Room. Then it goes on to say that Brad Bolin and Tony Rossi can take the Floor Amendments at any convenient time. So my question then, either again, I don't know if it's duly to be addressed to the Speaker or to the Clerk, let's just do a hypothetical, let's just say I was walking down the street in Springfield one day and I walk by D. H. Brown's, for example, and I happen to look in the window and I saw Tony Rossi in there, could I walk in with an Amendment and hand it to Tony in an establishment in Springfield and the moment he touches it, it is duly filed?"

Speaker Granberg: "Mr. Rossi doesn't frequent D. H. Brown's, Representative."

Rutherford: "Oh, Mr. Speaker. Oh, Mr. Speaker. Then let's just assume that there may be some other place like a floral shop or a boutique or a Wendy's or just maybe in Chatham, Illinois. If I was walking down the street in Chatham, Illinois and I came across Tony Rossi and I had a Floor Amendment, could I hand it to Tony Rossi? Because I read in here that I'm available to take him Floor Amendments at my convenience. What if Tony Rossi came to Pontiac, Illinois and I handed Tony a Floor Amendment, is that duly considered filed per the memo?"

Speaker Granberg: "I think the Deputy Clerk would be the one responsible, because he would like to come to Pontiac and... "

Rutherford: "I can't hear you, I'm sorry."

Speaker Granberg: "I think the Deputy Clerk would actually like to receive the Amendment."

Rutherford: "Well, alright, let's just say, for example the Deputy Clerk was in Pontiac, hopefully buying some Cheetos for sales tax revenue and fill their tank with gas for the local motor fuel tax for the county. But let's just say for example, any one of the two that here, noted in here. Could I hand them this in Pontiac, Illinois and it's considered duly filed, Mr. Speaker?"

Speaker Granberg: "I think this question might be better addressed, Representative, when that occasion arises, and we can deal with it on a case by case basis."

Rutherford: "But, Mr. Speaker, it did arise last week. I mean, last week the Majority Leader had, had filed this with somebody in the Clerk's office, at some hour of the day, and the Well wasn't open. We needed to make sure that we understood the proper process, and that's, and I do appreciate the memo. The memo is clear to the extent that Brad Bolin and I are available to take Floor Amendments at your convenience. Physically, does that need to be in the Rotunda, the Chambers, any place in the State of Illinois?"

Speaker Granberg: "Thank you, Representative. We appreciate your comments and... "

Rutherford: "No it wasn't a comment, it was a question. The question again is, is there a physical limitation into which the two named individuals can receive amendments and consider them to be duly filed?"

Speaker Granberg: "Representative Rutherford, I would think the Clerk and the Deputy Clerk would have to be in a position where, logistically they could have access to the House Floor. I'm not sure if they could have access to the House Floor from Pontiac."

Rutherford: "So can we, can we get another memo, maybe tomorrow and, because I've learned to use my e-mail now, and I'd appreciate maybe if the Clerk would let... If we could get some further clarification of the physical boundaries that Tony Rossi and Brad Bolin can receive Amendments to be duly filed and at what, you know what kind of guidelines we're going to have to that."

Speaker Granberg: "Representative Rutherford, we will be glad to work with you on a case by case basis, because we want to make sure that you have the opportunity to file those amendments. We'll be more than happy to work with you, and we appreciate your comments."

Rutherford: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Speaker Granberg: "Representative Bugielski for purposes of an announcement."

Bugielski: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker, Members of the General Assembly. This is to inform the Members that today Financial Institutions Committee will be canceled. There will be no Financial Institutions Committee. And also, tomorrow, the Committee on Banks Selling Insurance, that also will be canceled. So Financial Institutions is canceled today, and Committee on Banks Selling Insurance will be canceled tomorrow. Thank you."

Speaker Granberg: "Allowing Perfunctory time for the Clerk, Representative Currie now moves that the House stand adjourned until the hour of 11:30. All in favor say 'aye'; opposed say 'no'. The 'ayes' have it, the House stands adjourned until the hour of 11:30 a.m. tomorrow morning."
