Speaker Lang: "The House will be in order. Members will be in their chairs. We shall be led in prayer today by Pastor Michael Hurst who is with New Horizon Christian Fellowship Church in Aurora. Pastor Hurst is the guest of Representative Kifowit. Members and guests are asked to refrain from starting their laptops, turn off your cell phones and rise for the invocation and Pledge of Allegiance. Pastor Hurst."

Pastor Hurst: "Let us pray. Father, Your word declares that if Your people, who are called by Your name, would humble themselves and pray, turn from their wicked ways, that You will hear from Heaven and that You will heal our land. Father, I ask that You would blas... bless the State of Illinois, from Cairo to Chicago, from DeKalb to Decatur, from Moline to Maywood, and from Aurora to Antioch. Bless the State Representatives. Bless them and their families with health, safety and prosperity. Father, You have plans for our state I ask that You will reveal Your plans to these, Your servants, in this House. May they be led by Your spirit. May their interest be for the common good of the citizens that they represent. May their governance be for the welfare of our state. I ask, Father, that You would grant to each one of them a desire for justice, the wisdom to legislate, the knowledge to solve problems, compassion to act and the courage to lead. Father, unite them as one Body, diverse parts playing different roles, would come together to function in unison. Father, create in each one of them a clean heart and renew Your steadfast spirit in each one of them. Father, use them to carry out Your will Zalewski: "Mr. Speaker, as you well know it's been a tough spring for both sides of town on the baseball side, but we... we've got a cure for at least one part of that equation. The White Sox caucus is going to meet next Thursday, May 16, at 9:00 p.m. at DH Browns when the Sox play the f... the Angels. So. We would encourage all Sox Caucus members to come that evening to get this ship turned around. And then, so everyone's aware, the summer outing is going to be July 22 with the Sox playing the Angels again. That's July 22, so ask Members to mark their calendars. But we need to get this thing figured out because it's slipping away from us. So, next Thursday, May 16, at 9 p.m., White Sox Caucus meeting."

Reis: "So, you're creating a commission to study..."

Ford: "No. This was a... the Bill... the underlying Bill does something totally different. This Amendment simply eliminates an advisory council. The Bill had a component in it that required an 11-member data collection and reporting advisory council to examine the annual reports produced by the Illinois Department of Corrections on the total number of incarcerated persons. Well, this Amendment eliminated that task."

Reis: "So, does the underlying Bill change at all?"

Ford: "No."

Reis: "So, why is this needed?"

Ford: "Ask your question again and tell me exactly what..."

Reis: "Why is the Amendment needed to the underlying Bill again?"

Reboletti: "Is there a particular case as to why you're requiring this?"

Franks: "I'm not sure. I know this came from the Senate. I... the one that could probably come to my mind would be, perhaps, the issue with the gentleman in from France in... in the New York hotel. Or there could be some issues here in Chicago where people have fled to other countries after being charged with crimes."

Reboletti: "I don't necessarily have an issue with it. I just know that we used to routinely ask for confiscation of the passport, depending on the type of the offense, especially if they were flight risk. So, your... I was just trying to figure out if there's a particular case that... where a judge should have taken a passport and he or she did not and so, that's why we have the Bill."

Franks: "And it's not just for American citizens. That's... that's probably the one thing that... this stands out. This would allow a judge to confiscate a passport or travel document if someone, who was in this country here, who's not an American citizen."

Costello: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker, Members of the House. Senate Bill 84 requires the back fees paid to ISBE for reinstatement of a lapsed teaching certificate to be paid to the Teacher Certificate Institute Fund, which is administered by ISBE but is locally controlled by the Regional Office of Education. Currently, these fees are paid to the Teachers Certificate Revolving Fund, which is controlled by ISBE. This gives greater local control of education funds. This legislation passed the House in '97 unanimously, passed the Senate this year unanimously, passed out of committee on leave and there's no opposition. I ask for an 'aye' vote."

Speaker Lang: "Gentleman moves for the passage of the Bill. The Chair recognizes Representative Ives."

Ives: "Thank you, Speaker. Will the Sponsor yield?"

Speaker Lang: "Sponsor yields."

Ives: "I'm just reading this and I'm wondering if they are required to substitute the experiment... collegiate experience for the military service experience, or is this a 'may'?"

Hoffman: "Well the... what it says is that the Police Merit Board... the educational requirements will be exempted if you serve in the Illinois National Guard or reserve component of the U.S. Armed Forces, and have been awarded the south... Southwest Asian Service Medal, Kosovo Campaign Medal, Korean Defense Service Medal or served in the Afghan, Iraq or Global War. It's a way of ensuring that people who've served in the Armed Services, who may not have a full college education, can serve in the State Police."

Ives: "Okay. So, are they required to make the sub... substitution or can they just simply decide to substitute it?"

Hoffman: "Well, it's my understanding that the Police Merit Board determines who's going to go through a State Police Class. So, you... they will not have to have the full college requirement if they've served. So, they are required to substitute, but that doesn't mean they have to be hired."

Ives: "It has nothing to do with them having to hire these folks? They..."

Hoffman: "No."

Ives: "I just want to know if this is permissive or if we're making them... making this a required criteria that they substitute one for the other?"

Hoffman: "No. Maybe I'm not understanding the question. So, the process is this. If they're going to have a State Police class, the Police Merit Board decides who's going to be in it. This says is, if you have served, then the educational requirements that are currently in existence don't apply to you. So, they can... that you... you can be considered for induction into that class. So, they are required to... to... if you have served, they are required to take that into account."

Ives: "They're required to do it then? They have to decide that the clerk who served in Afghanistan is equivalent to the person who had a certain amount of college. Is that correct?"

Hoffman: "I don't understand what you're saying."

Ives: "Okay. My... my line of questioning actually relates..."

Hoffman: "I don't think you understand what you're saying, to be very frank."

Ives: "No. I actually do understand exactly what I'm saying. My point is, is that we're making requirements based on military service that may not be equivalent to what is currently the standard."

Ives: "I... I don't want to require us to make a decision at the state level to offer this substitution."

Hoffman: "Then vote 'no', vote against the people who've served us. Go ahead."

Ives: "Well, there's a similar Bill... Bill that's coming up that requires this in local areas as well. I mean we're seeing a number of these where the state's deciding exactly what is the proper requirements to do certain things, when it's not our decision. We should not have to do this. I urge..."

Thank you for honoring those who have served. Thank you who have been thoroughly vetted through the military that we've trusted to protect our freedoms and say that we could waive an educational requirement. Representative, I want to thank you for that and commend you for that. You know, we've... we have kind of a checkered past in Illinois with some... some political figures. their service for the educational component. So, that's existing law that we're striking and expanding existing law to include other people that have served in other campaigns. So, you're not changing the underlying definition of who can replace educational requirements with service, you're just expanding it. Is that correct?"

Hoffman: "Exactly."

Sullivan: "And so, by doing this, you're saying the service you've provided is equal to the potential education requirements to get on the application list, not to actually be chosen?"

Hoffman: "That's what I was attempting to explain to the previous speaker."

Hoffman: "...You're explaining it better than I did."

Sullivan: "...so, we're not..."

Hoffman: "See, not everybody can go to West Point."

Sullivan: "Right. Thank you. To the Bill. Ladies and Gentlemen, this does not put someone ahead of someone with education experience. It says we can replace your education experience with similar service to our country. Once you get on the list everything is equal. aggravating factor in your sentencing. I want to emphasize that though the most famous issues with flash mobs, who are using social media to provoke violence, have occurred on Michigan Avenue. This has happened in other places. My State Senator had someone basically shot very close to his home after she posted a picture of herself on Facebook. And it's also reflective of the fact that violence has become more localized and smaller, and Twitter has become a vital organizing tool. This gives our law enforcement the ability to keep up with the changing times. I ask for an 'aye' vote, and I welcome any questions."

Speaker Lang: "Gentleman moves for the passage of the Bill. The Chair recognizes Mr. Reboletti."

Reboletti: "Will the Sponsor yield?"

For example, having been formally convicted of first degree murder or voluntary manslaughter, at the discretion of the judge, this can be... is given weight and can be considered as a reason to impose a more severe sentence."

Reboletti: "And it's become a little more commonplace to see some of these flash mobs in the City of Chicago, in particular wasn't it not that long ago where on Michigan Avenue there was a number of young individuals that were up and down Michigan Avenue acting... they were either robbing people or pushing people fighting with people? Is that what this is in response to, Representative?"

Mitchell, C.: "This is in response to that, in addition to some incidents kind of further south, where social media was used specifically to target someone and mobilize a group of people to go attack them."

Reboletti: "And... and this happens pretty quickly because I think that attack on Michigan Avenue, they... they gathered within probably about a half an hour of those tweets and the Facebooking going on. Is that a fair assessment?"

Mitchell, C.: "That's... that's correct."

Reboletti: "Thank you, Representative."

Speaker Lang: "Mr. Ford."

Ford: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Will the Sponsor yield?"

Speaker Lang: "Sponsor yields."

Ford: "Representative, I have a few questions about 'mob action'. Could you define to me what it means to be in the mob?"

Mitchell, C.: "So... so, mob action is defined, as you can probably see in our analysis, as knowing or recklessly using force or violence, disturbing the peace by two or more persons acting together and without authority of law, assembly of two persons with the intent to commit or facilitate the commission of a felony or misdemeanor, the knowing assembly of two or more persons without authority of law for the purpose of performing a violent act against the person or property of anyone supposed to have been guilty of violation or for the purpose of exercising correctional powers or regulative powers over any person by violence."

Ford: "So, do you think that it's fair to put these acts that young people may be attempting to commit in the same category of mob action where you have the traditional mob where they kill people and they did heinous acts? Is this Bill going to put those young people in the same category as a mobster?"

Mitchell, C.: "So, I... No. Representative Ford, that's not what I would say. What I would say, however, is that 'mob action' is defined, in this case, as being group action. And what we've seen in many cases is that you have younger people, often being influenced by older people or occasionally by people in their same peer group, to go and commit violent action. And what this would say is, if you're going to be the person inciting this action, organizing others to go downtown or go to your neighborhood or go wherever it is to commit a violent act, that could be used as an aggravating term in your... in your sentencing to change that incentive structure on the street."

Ford: "So, currently, if this happens with young people, what's the penalty for a young person that's committing or attempting to commit misbehavior?"

Mitchell, C.: "One second. And I could be wrong about this Representative, but my understanding is that mob action currently is a Class IV Felony, which I want to say is one to three years and some sort of fine, intentionally."

Ford: "And so you say this is a penalty enhancement and it's... does it have an age..."

Mitchell, C.: "No."

Ford: "...attached to it?"

Mitchell, C.: "So, Representative, I object to that characterization. This is not a penalty enhancement. It allows for this to be considered as an aggravating factor by the judge, but it is not a mandatory penalty enhancement."

Ford: "But it allows the judge's discretion?"

Mitchell, C.: "Indeed."

Ford: "Is there an age attached to it?"

Mitchell, C.: "I do not believe age is specified in the Bill."

Ford: "Well, I appreciate your effort in trying to bring peace to the street and I'll continue to listen to the debate. And I congratulate you on the work but I'm not sure if I could vote for your Bill."

Your Bill, if I'm not mistaken, correct me if I'm wrong, states that an extended sentence can be given if a person is accused of this act. Is that correct?"

Your Bill also says, listen very carefully, Ladies and Gentlemen, any signs, signals, sounds, writings, images or intelligence of any nature transmitted by wire, radio, electromagnetic, photoelectric... Anyway, a lot of merchants will actually be hurt by this because this is sometimes how they advertise. They advertise using images. They advertise using photographs. They advertise using symbols. Mitchell, C.: "Representative..."

Davis, M.: "...that tells me to go to Michigan Avenue? What do I see?"

Mitchell, C.: "Representative, what I'm saying is, I hear your question, I think it's slightly detached from what this Bill does. You have already been convicted of mob action, there has already been somebody that has been jumped or accosted or robbed. What this says is if you are found to be the person who has incited this action through using Twitter or Facebook or something like that, it can be used as an aggravating factor in your sentencing. The second thing I would say about your budgetary concern is that there's a reason why this Bill is supported by the Chicago Land Chamber of Commerce, the Illinois Retail Merchants Association. This is having a direct negative economic impact on their businesses from people not feeling safe enough to walk in and out or even walk around in their neighborhoods."

Davis, M.: "May I ask another question?"

Mitchell, C.: "Yes, Ma'am."

Davis, M.: "I don't know why people are not feeling safe. I was downtown Saturday and people were all over there. You could hardly drive downtown because there's so many people down there shopping, eating, working. Now, sometimes, Christian, sometimes, something occurs that creates what people see as mob action when it's really just a bunch of young people with nothing to do. They can't afford to go to the park because it costs money for five-or six-week programs. They can't go free like I used to do. They can't go to a skating

Mitchell, C.: "Sure."

Davis, M.: "...for them to have some fun."

Mitchell, C.: "Absolutely."

Davis, M.: "Now, they're going to close down the Red Line so those kids won't even get to go downtown much more. To the Bill, Mr. Speaker. This Bill is extremely well-intentioned. But it's one of those things that creates, once again, an overcrowded court docket, an overcrowded jail, and an expense that the rest of us taxpayers have to continue to pay. Not enough probation officers, not enough people who are readyish, let's say, to counsel children, but let's pretend that we're going to stop children's bad behavior and we're going to catch up a lot of innocent people who use the Internet. We're going to catch a lot of innocent people who use the internet, who are going be accused of starting this. Now, I don't know where you would... how the judge would decide that you're the person who initiated the first hash tag, you're the fir... hash tags doesn't even have to be your real name. I respect you Representative Mitchell. I respect Mr. Reboletti, but I also know that Mr. Reboletti is a strong prosecutor and he continues to prosecute in this building. Speaker Lang: "Representative Flowers."

Flowers: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Will the Gentleman yield?"

Speaker Lang: "Gentleman yields."

Flowers: "Representative, number three on the analysis says when two or more persons without authority of law. So, wouldn't we have to get permission now in order to walk down the street if there's two or more people? The knowingly assembl... assemble of two or more persons without the authority of law for the purpose of performing a violence act? If there's two or more people, how would you know, how is it defined that that person is going to commit a violent act?"

Mitchell, C.: "So... so first, that's not new law. Mob action is already defined in the Criminal Code."

Flowers: "I understand that mob action is already defined. Oh, you're saying that the two or more is already defined?"

Mitchell, C.: "This is lifted directly from the Unified Code of Corrections, which already exists. All that is added in this Bill is, when we talk about factors and extending term of sentence, using electronic media to organize a mob action becomes a factor that can be used in imposing a second term... extended-term sentence."

Flowers: "So, let me ask this question then. If there's a group of parents that want to protest and they use Twitter to send out word that they want to protest because of what's happening with their tax dollars, would they be considered part of a mob action?"

Mitchell, C.: "No. Because, once again, mob action, as defined here, implies the commission of a crime or violence. They would not be organizing, I imagine, to rob anybody or to go into a store and shoplift or to accost anyone. So, no, they would not be committing mob action by definition of the Criminal Code."

Flowers: "And you say that there are seven instances where the court may consider imposing an extended sentence. Where do these seven issues come from?"

Mitchell, C.: "So, these are already codified in the Criminal Code. I want to say it's Section 25, but don't... don't quote me on that. But they're already codified in the Criminal Code originally from the '80s and... and updated in 2012."

Flowers: "And so, my last question to you, Sir. What good would an extended sentencing do? As far as, would it make them better if they serve a longer time, and as one of the previous speakers stated, have you factored in how much it's going to cost the people of the State of Illinois..."

Mitchell, C.: "So... so, I would say, let me answer this..."

Flowers: "As opposed... as opposed to using an opportunity to use some type of intervention programs to prevent the mob actions from happening in the first place?"

Mitchell, C.: "Sure. So... so, let me answer your question a couple of ways. So, first of all, as you know, I am extremely supportive of anything that can reduce recidivism, that treats our... our public health problem of recreational drugs as a public health problem rather than as a criminal justice problem. This is not that case. This is a case of making sure that we're not disrupting economic activity in the City of Chicago on the one hand, and making sure that law enforcement can deal with the fragmented gang structure that we now see as opposed to the old corporate structure on the south and west sides of Chicago. And it's... it's making sure that the way that folks are now organizing their mobs, we can actually take legal action on. In terms of the extended sentence, it's about changing the structure of incentives on the streets so if folks know if they try to get other people to commit mob action, if they incentivize other folks to jump in the group thing, it often happens with younger people, and do a criminal act, they will be held more responsible. So, I hear what you're saying. You know I agree with you in terms of how we reform our criminal justice system, but this is taking an affirmative step to make sure that we protect our businesses and that we protect our families on the south and west side of Chicago and other where... other places."

Flowers: "Well, let's go back to the south and west side of the City of Chicago. Now, how is this Bill applicable because that's... the problem is there are no businesses. So, as a result of not having any businesses, we don't have jobs and opportunities. So, that is probably part of the reason why. I'm not justifying anyone's behavior, but if this Bill is specifically for the south and west side of the City of Chicago..."

Mitchell, C.: "I didn't say that."

Flowers: "Well, what did you say about the south..."

Mitchell, C.: "I didn't say that, Representative. What I noted was that everyone is saying it's all about Michigan Avenue, Michigan Avenue, Michigan Avenue. That's not true. Senator Raoul had somebody shot down the street from his house after she posted a picture of herself on Facebook. A bunch of people retweeted and decided to go and try to kill her and only attempted... only succeeded in shooting her in the leg. So, what... what is important here is that we don't have the old g's like we use to, like, gangs are different. They are more splintered, they are block by block, they are neighborhood by neighborhood rather than region by region. And they are organizing using Twitter and social media. So, in addition to protecting our businesses on Michigan Avenue, this gives law enforcement the ability to help change that incentive structure on the street to incentivize younger people to do these kinds of actions."

Flowers: "Well, my final question to you, and thank you very much for your patience and your time, but in the past, if a longer sentencing would have been successful, we wouldn't be having the problems that we're having today. So my point to you is that I think that if we keep on doing the things the same way we've been doing it, we're going to continue to get the same results. And that's exactly what's happening here. So what we need to do is pause for a minute because the police has the tools already to work with. We have gang prevention, gang intervention, we have lock them up. Our tax dollars, that's the reason we can't educate the kids now because we're so busy incarcerating and sending them away longer. And the Supreme Court and other courts have ruled that it has not worked and it's just costing the people more money. So, what I would suggest and what I would appreciate, and I understand what it is that you're trying to do, but once again, we already have laws on the book that should be implemented. And this is not going to make me and the people on the south and west side any safer and I think that is part of the problem, because there's that perception that we're tough on crime. And yes, we are tough, but we're tougher on ourselves because it costs us more in the long run. Thank you very much and I appreciate you."

Mitchell, C.: "Thank you."

Speaker Lang: "Mr. Dunkin."

Dunkin: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. To the Bill. Ladies and Gentlemen, many of you know that I am not a big proponent of penalty enhancement of further improving our incarceration numbers. But the fact of the matter is, this is a different dynamic in the simple sense that these are new times where people are using electronic mechanisms to communicate to commit crimes in our neighborhoods, on the south and west sides, downtown, on the north side, in the suburbs across this country. It's a new reality; it's a new fact whether we like it or not. And this Bill merely responds to that new phenomenon, that new fact of electronic communication by way of Facebook, text messaging, e-mail, computer, cell phones. It's a new reality. When criminals change with the times, we have to adjust ourselves accordingly. This Bill is really not over the top. It's merely leading the criminal where they are today. And so, I support this Bill because they are using mass media texts and Facebook to assemble, to do harm, to do things that are simply unheard of when you get mass amounts of individuals together and they want to dominate a situation and they hide under that to commit a heinous crime. It is where we are today, Ladies and Gentlemen, and we have to respond accordingly. This Bill merely speaks to that. It mirrors and reflects what's going on today in this particular city, state and nation with these knuckleheads who are terrorizing our respective communities. And this is something that I'm supporting wholeheartedly, after someone like myself... I'm not... I'm not for mandatory minimums. I'm not for... for exten... extension of sentencing, but this speaks to where we are today. I would urge a strong 'yes' vote. Thank you."

Speaker Lang: "Mr. Zalewski."

Zalewski: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. To the Bill. It's Friday, and we're all a little stir-crazy and I think we're... we're misconstruing a lot of what's in our analysis. This is a very straightforward Bill that the Gentleman's brought forth that's going to address a very narrow problem. We have a fundamental issue in our Criminal Code where we need to continually update it to deal with modern technology. Law enforcement is saying to us, when there's an instance when people are using social media to congregate and commit acts of violence or acts of recklessness in the Gentleman's district, we don't have the proper ability, under the law, to treat them as the way they should be treated in order to make sure that it doesn't happen again. So, let's not focus on the underlying issue of mob action because the General Assembly's made that policy judgment. That's already against the law. Let's focus on the fact that our Criminal Code needs to be fixed so that when we have individuals using technology to do the things they're doing and make the Gentleman's district less safe, we can help him make that change. This is a good Bill. It's narrowly drafted. It deals with a part of the corrections code, not the Criminal Code, and it deserves an 'aye' vote."

TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

53rd Legislative Day

Speaker Lang: "Mr. Reboletti, whose name was mentioned in debate."

Reboletti: "That's right. It is Reboletti, Mr. Speaker. My name was used in debate and I'm very appreciative of some previous speakers who are now budget hawks, and I'm sure that they will be helping us go through the budget with a fine tooth comb as we try to conclude in the budgetary process as they're concerned about the spending. This has absolutely nothing to do with the budget. It has to do with the State of Illinois's public safety. And when people stop coming to Chicago, shopping on Michigan Avenue, going to the ball games, and tourism stops, you're going to see even a bigger problem in the budget. So, while we're so concerned about the mob action participants and protecting their rights, how about protecting the rights of everyday citizens who want to go shopping, take their family to the restaurant. How about stand up for those folks once in a while instead of always trying to protect the criminal element."

Speaker Lang: "Mr. Durkin."

Durkin: "Just briefly. The Gentleman behind me I know his name is used and it's butchered often. There's only one 'o' in that name? So, but anyway, getting to the Bill, this is not just exclusive to Michigan Avenue. This happens... these issues happen in the suburbs, downstate Illinois. It's becoming a pervasive problem throughout the State of Illinois. But fact versus fiction, extended-term sentencing is rarely used. It's verily... it's only in the most extreme circumstances that a court will exercise that type of sentencing. So, I think that the... some of the rhetoric in the language that was used here today is not actually true. So, I think it's a good Bill, I think we should pass it. And I think, again, it's discretionary, but it's only brought out in the most limited and probably the most heinous situations when there is a conviction for the crime of mob action. I... I support the Bill and... and I would recommend an 'aye' vote."

Speaker Lang: "Representative Mayfield."

Mayfield: "I yield my time to Representative Monique Davis."

Speaker Lang: "Representative Monique Davis."

Davis, M.: "Thank you, Sir. I would like a question answered by Christian Mitchell. Would this Bill have stopped the murder of Hadiya Pendleton?"

Mitchell, C.: "I... I don't see how that's a relevant question, but I will say I don't know if social media was used in that case."

Davis, M.: "Well, the question, Sir..."

Mitchell, C.: "I'd imagine probably not."

Davis, M.: "...the question, Sir, is are children's lives as valuable as the merchants on Michigan Avenue?"

Mitchell, C.: "So... so, Representative..."

Davis, M.: "Would this... hold on... would this Bill have stopped the young college freshman at Columbia University from being shot and killed yesterday? Will this Bill stop the murders of black boys mostly, and girls on the south and west side of Chicago? And if it doesn't do that, you should be ashamed of yourself."

Mitchell, C.: "So... so, Representative, let me... let me respond in a couple of ways. So, I've said a couple of times during this debate that this is not just about Michigan Avenue. Would it have stopped those specific murders that you mentioned, probably not."

Davis, M.: "Do you..."

Mitchell, C.: "Would it... Representative..."

Davis, M.: "...have a Bill for it? Do you have a Bill for that?"

Mitchell, C.: "I've... Representative, I've let you finish every sentence you've started."

Davis, M.: "You..."

Mitchell, C.: "I would just ask that same respect from you. Now, would it have stopped those specific murders, possibly not. Are there other murders that it can prevent affirmatively by making sure that folks know that electronic media cannot be used as a tool to mobilize violent mob action? I believe the answer to that question is yes. So, that is... that is the reason why this Bill is being put forth. It's about property, protecting law-abiding citizens. I would also respond to those folks concerned about businesses on the south and west sides of Chicago. Part of the reasons that folks don't locate there even from our own communities is..."

Davis, M.: "To the Bill. To the Bill, Mr. Speaker. To the Bill. Thank you. To the Bill, Mr. Speaker. I believe there are current laws on the books that protect merchants in Chicago and in the rest of the State of Illinois. But it does grieve me, it truly grieves me when people start to see property more valuable than lives. No one seems to be able to come up with a solution to stop the guns from killing the children, not grownups, children, children on the south and west side of Chicago. We talk about stopping crime and stopping mob action, but only in certain places, because it's being tolerated where you live. And where I live. And your Bill does absolutely nothing for the majority of the State of Illinois. I think trying to figure out more ways to incarcerate young black males, who are not being killed, is not the way to solve the electronic problem. People use electronics all the time. These same merchants use images and photocopy and so forth, but only they're going to be allowed to use it. Our children need support, not constant punishment. Our children need consideration. Our children don't need to be having closed schools. Are you supporting the moratorium on school closings, Sir? That's not a question; it's rhetorical. To the Bill, Mr. Speaker. I think the majority of people want to appear hard on crime. This Bill says you're hard on kids. Kids who could innocently be caught up because I don't really know how a judge will know hash tag dkay. How you going to find hash tag dkay? They going to bring in the FBI to check everybody's computer? Some of these kids don't even have a computer at home. Mary Flowers just stated how important it is... how important it is to realize we already have laws on the books. Representative Flowers just stated mob action is already against the law. This is a bad Bill. I would ask for a 'no' vote."

Speaker Lang: "Mr. Bost."

Bost: "I move the previous question."

Speaker Lang: "Gentleman moves to the previous question. Those in favor say 'yes'; opposed 'no'. The 'ayes' have it. And the previous question is put. Mr. Mitchell to close."

Mitchell, C.: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Thank you all for your comments. Thank you for the debate. I would just say a couple of things to close. The first, this is not just about Michigan Avenue; it's about making our streets safer. It's about the fact that intervention is harder when you're talking about a 20- to 30-minute window between crimes. What we have to do is make sure that we have teeth and enforcement so that people understand that if they make this step, they take this action to make our communities less safe, that they will end up doing some time. I would just also note that this is going to be good for businesses, not only on Michigan Avenue, but all around the City of Chicago, as it helps us improve our climate for public safety. Thank you for your comments and questions. I urge an 'aye' vote."

Speaker Lang: "Those in favor of the Gentleman's Bill will vote 'yes'; opposed 'no'. The voting is open. Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Gordon, Jefferson. Speaker Lang: "Mr. Mautino."

Mautino: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. And I'm just getting my computer to the right Bill. House Floor Amendment #1 and the Bill, as presented, is agreed. It is negotiated. The Hospital Association's objections have been removed. This is the Navigator Act and basically, it creates a certification for those who would be navigators in the Affordable Care Act. It requires a process for certification through the Department of Insurance. Individuals and entities as a whole can apply for the certification and.. and this will apply whether Illinois has its own exchange or whether it is a state/federal partnership or a purely federal exchange. I ask for an 'aye' vote."

Clerk Bolin: "Senate Bill 1210, a Bill for an Act in relation to homeless persons. Third Reading of this Senate Bill."

Speaker Lang: "Mr. Welch."

Welch: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Senate Bill 1210 is a Homeless Bill of Rights. It just came out of the Judiciary Committee 15-0. Senate Bill 1210 protects homeless people from discrimination by creating basic rights. Under the Bill, basic rights such as the right to maintain gainful employment, to access public services and spaces, to access emergency medical care and the right to vote on the same basis as others, cannot be denied solely because someone is homeless or lists a shelter as their address. A person discriminated against because of his or her housing status would have the right to take legal action and seek damages. No person in this state should suffer unnecessarily from cold or hunger, be deprived of shelter or the basic rights incident to shelter, or be subject to unfair discrimination based on his or her homeless status. I ask the House to support this Bill today."

How is that handled in your Bill, or has the State Board of Elections said how that would be handled, or..."

Welch: "Representative Bost, the answer to that particular question is already addressed in current Illinois law. Would you like..."

Bost: "Okay. Yeah. I'd like an explanation of how that..."

Welch: "Under Section 10 ILCS 5/3-2 Section (b), a homeless individual must have a mailing address in order to be eligible to register to vote. For purposes of this Act, Mr. Bost, a mailing address shall constitute a homeless individual's residents for voting purposes."

Bost: "Can... can that let me ask this, can that mailing address then be a post office box?"

Welch: "A mailing address I was going to complete that thought..."

Bost: "Okay. That... that's why... that's why I'm asking it. A mailing address can be a post office box?"

Welch: "It may include, but not be limited to, a shelter, a day shelter or a private residence."

Bost: "Okay. So, it must be one of those three, not... it can't be a post office box? The address has to be... and... and in that case, there has to be... the State Law requires a residency requirement, correct?"

I'm afraid that we would be swinging a door open for possible voter fraud if we're not sensibly putting something in place. If it's just a post office box... but then, if it's a shelter... if it's a shelter and they use that address, would it be a long enough established time, because you have... you have to be a resident of a certain address for a certain period of time before you can vote. Is that not correct?"

Welch: "That is correct, Representative. Your... your issues are addressed already in the law that was previously cited."

Bost: "Okay, I'll... I'll look into that. I'm not sure... I'm not sure that it does, but I'll look into that. What... and could you please repeat again, what other areas besides voting, that... that the rights should be?"

Bost: "Okay."

Welch: "...under this Bill. Two, the right to equal treatment by all state and municipal agencies without discrimination. Three, the right to not..."

Welch: "Correct."

Reis: "What address will be on that card now then?"

Welch: "It would be the address that was provided when they got the ID. That... that may happen to be a shelter, a day shelter, or a private residence."

Reis: "So, they will only be allowed to vote in that precinct then that that shelter is located in?"

Welch: "That's correct, but they'll have a right to vote."

Reis: "How will they cross-reference to see if maybe a person registered in two different shelters in two different precincts?"

Welch: "We... we have to trust the local authorities and the law does specifically say that election authorities, made by reasonable rules limit the place for voter registration of homeless individuals may be taken in the class of deputy registrars, who may take the voter registration of homeless individuals."

Reis: "Go ahead, Representative, I'm listening. Representative, we have some time yet. We're still getting some strong comments that the Municipal League is strongly opposed to your Bill. Would you mind pulling it out to see if we can address their concerns and what it is?"

Welch: "I don't understand the question, Representative. But existing law puts... gives election authorities, authority to put their own rules in place. And I know in Cook County those rules seem to... to be done quite effectively."
