19 Sec. 12. Hold order.

20 (a) For the purposes of this Section, "hold order" means a 21 written legal instrument issued to a pawnbroker by a law
22 enforcement officer commissioned by the law enforcement agency

1 of the municipality or county that licenses and regulates the 2 pawnbroker, ordering the pawnbroker to retain physical 3 possession of pledged goods in the possession of the pawnbroker
4 or property purchased by and in the possession of the 5 pawnbroker and not to return, sell, or otherwise dispose of 6 such property as such property is believed to be 7 misappropriated goods.

8 (b) Upon written notice from a law enforcement officer 9 indicating that property in the possession of a pawnbroker and 10 subject to a hold order is needed for the purpose of furthering 11 a criminal investigation and prosecution, the pawnbroker shall 12 release the property subject to the hold order to the custody
13 of the law enforcement officer for such purpose and the officer 14 shall provide a written acknowledgment that the property has 15 been released to the officer. The release of the property to 16 the custody of the law enforcement officer shall not be 17 considered a waiver or release of the pawnbroker's property 18 rights or interest in the property. Upon completion of the 19 criminal investigation, the property shall be returned to the 20 pawnbroker who consented to its release; except that, if the 21 law enforcement officer at the completion of the criminal 22 investigation is able to determine the property subject to the 23 hold order is stolen property and has identified the owner of 24 the stolen property, the property shall be returned to the 25 owner without the payment of the money advanced by the 26 pawnbroker or any costs or charges of any kind that the

1 pawnbroker may have placed upon the same. In the event that the 2 law enforcement officer has not completed the criminal 3 investigation within 120 days after its release, the officer
4 shall immediately return the property to the pawnbroker or 5 obtain and furnish to the pawnbroker a warrant for the 6 continued custody of the property. Once the hold order expires 7 without an extension by court order or is rescinded, title to 8 the property shall vest in and be deemed conveyed by operation 9 of law to the pawnbroker, free of any liability for claims, but 10 subject to any restrictions contained in the pawn transaction
11 contract and subject to the provisions of this Section.

12 The pawnbroker shall not release or dispose of the property 13 except pursuant to a court order or the expiration of the 14 holding period of the hold order, including all extensions.

15 In cases where criminal charges have been filed and the 16 property may be needed as evidence, the prosecuting attorney 17 shall notify the pawnbroker in writing. The notice shall 18 contain the case number, the style of the case, and a 19 description of the property. The pawnbroker shall hold such 20 property until receiving notice of the disposition of the case
21 from the prosecuting attorney. The prosecuting attorney shall 22 notify the pawnbroker and claimant in writing within 15 days
23 after the disposition of the case.

24 (c) A hold order must specify:

25 (1) the name and address of the pawnbroker;

26 (2) the name, title, and identification number of the

1 law enforcement officer placing the hold order or the court
2 placing the hold order;

3 (3) a complete description of the property to be held,
4 including model number and serial number, if applicable;

5 (4) the name of the person reporting the property to be 6 misappropriated unless otherwise prohibited by law;

7 (5) the mailing address of the pawnbroker where the 8 property is held; and

9 (6) the expiration date of the holding period.

10 (d) The pawnbroker or the pawnbroker's representative must 11 sign and date a copy of the hold order as evidence of receipt 12 of the hold order and the beginning of the 90-day holding 13 period.
