HOUSE RESOLUTION

2 WHEREAS, Landmarks Illinois and the Richard H. Driehaus
3 Foundation honor individuals, organizations, projects, and 4 programs whose work demonstrates a commitment to excellence in 5 historic preservation with the Richard H. Driehaus Foundation
6 Preservation Award; and

7 WHEREAS, During the 2014-15 school year, students in 8 Gibault High School's 1818 Saint Louis History course, 9 participated in a research project to trace the history of some 10 of Waterloo's most prized public buildings; the "Discovering 11 the Buildings of Downtown Waterloo" project originated with the 12 town's mayor, Thomas Smith, who wanted to install plaques
13 denoting historic buildings; after the project proved to be too
14 time-consuming for historians in the city, Gibault High School
15 history teacher, Matthew Schweizer, volunteered his 1818 Saint 16 Louis History class to complete the project; and

17 WHEREAS, The junior class, all 16 or 17 years old at the 18 time, began writing historical plaques containing information
19 about the buildings and people affiliated with them on 20 approximately 50 of Waterloo's most prominent buildings; the 21 students used municipal records, newspapers, biographies, and 22 conducted oral histories with longtime residents in the course
23 of their research; the project allowed the students to gain a

1 deeper appreciation for history as they engaged with members of 2 the Waterloo and Monroe County communities; the students 3 compiled mini-biographies on the individuals who owned the 4 downtown buildings; some learning that they had either family
5 members or personal connections to the buildings they were 6 studying; and

7 WHEREAS, At the conclusion of the project, the students
8 presented their findings before the Waterloo City Council and 9 at the Monroe County History Museum as part of the bicentennial 10 celebration; everyone helping to compose the biographies are 11 supporting authors on a published historical work; and

12 WHEREAS, Waterloo Mayor Thomas Smith nominated Matthew 13 Schweizer and his class for the 2016 Richard H. Driehaus
14 Foundation Preservation Award; and

15 WHEREAS, In recognition of their extraordinary work of 16 preserving stories of people and special places throughout the 17 State and showing how historic restoration has a positive 18 impact on communities, the environment, and the people of 19 Illinois, the Gibault High School Junior American History
20 Project, "Discovering the Buildings of Downtown Waterloo", was 21 awarded the 2016 Richard H. Driehaus Foundation Preservation 22 Award for their effective local campaign to preserve and 23 protect a historic resource; therefore, be it

1 RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE
2 HUNDREDTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we 3 congratulate the 2014-2015 1818 Saint Louis History class from 4 Gibault High School and their teacher, Matthew Schweizer, on 5 winning the 2016 Richard H. Driehaus Foundation Preservation
6 Award, and that we appreciate their hard work, long hours, and 7 dedication to the "Discovering the Buildings of Downtown
8 Waterloo" project; and be it further

9 RESOLVED, That we thank Matthew Schweizer and his students 10 for their exemplary work and proud contributions to their 11 community and their State, and for being examples of community
12 advocacy and involvement.
