HOUSE RESOLUTION

2 WHEREAS, As leader of the most powerful nation in the world
3 the President of the United States must possess the physical 4 and mental stability to properly serve and lead the greatest 5 nation on earth; and

6 WHEREAS, The president should be able to respond to 7 opposition with dignity and composure worthy of the office; the 8 president should not resort to insulting and name-calling those 9 who disagree with him or her; and

10 WHEREAS, The safety of the American people should at all
11 times be top priority; the president should not impulsively
12 threaten nuclear retaliation against our enemies, especially 13 on social media; and

14 WHEREAS, The president should always conduct his or her 15 self with the highest professional and personal standards; he 16 or she should not crudely boast about grabbing the genitals of 17 another human being, refer to members of and veterans of our 18 military as weak for experiencing post-traumatic stress 19 disorder, or openly mock those with disabilities; and

20 WHEREAS, America is meant to be a beacon of hope and 21 opportunity for those seeking a better life; the president

1 should not refer to immigrants and to other countries in 2 derogatory terms which only serves to weaken our international 3 relationships; and

4 WHEREAS, The president should take a strong and clear 5 stance against racism and discrimination of any kind; he or she 6 should not sympathize with white nationalists or any other 7 group or ideology that attempts to devalue and degrade the 8 lives of millions of American citizens; and

9 WHEREAS, Before voting for the highest office in the land
10 Americans have a right to know whether an individual has the 11 physical and mental fitness to serve as President of the United 12 States; therefore, be it

13 RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE
14 HUNDREDTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that the 15 American people deserve to know they have a leader with the 16 physical and mental stamina necessary to effectively and 17 honorably serve as President of the United States; and be it
18 further

19 RESOLVED, That to preserve the integrity of the office of 20 President of the United States all presidential nominees should 21 be required to undergo a standardized medical examination
22 including a mental health evaluation, and to publicly disclose

1 the results before the election; and be it further
