1 members in 2008 to over 92,000 members by 2014 and won living
2 wages and first-ever healthcare for tens of thousands of 3 Illinois workers; and

4 WHEREAS, Keith Kelleher was the Field Director of the 5 National SEIU's "Homecare Task Force" from 1996 until 1998; he 6 traveled, researched, and housed visiting homecare workers in 7 over ten states and began the work that led to the organization 8 of hundreds of thousands of home care workers across the 9 country; and

10 WHEREAS, Today, more than 600,000 home care and child care 11 workers in more than 15 states across the country are united in 12 SEIU, fighting for a better standard of living for themselves
13 and their families, joining with nursing home and hospital 14 workers to become a national movement for quality care and 15 quality jobs; and

16 WHEREAS, Keith Kelleher was a founder and a leader in the 17 National SEIU Homecare Council, composed of leaders from over 18 15 local unions; and

19 WHEREAS, Keith Kelleher was a Board Member and then Vice 20 President of the SEIU Illinois State Council which, during his 21 years of service service, grew from 70,000 to over 120,000 22 members; and

1 WHEREAS, As an organizer, Keith Kelleher has been 2 privileged to train hundreds of rank and file leaders and 3 organizers throughout his career; and

4 WHEREAS, Keith Kelleher helped found the Helen Miller
5 Member Education and Training Center (METC), which has trained 6 thousands of home care and child care workers, as well as the 7 SEIU HCIIMK Homecare and Childcare Health Trust Fund, which 8 brought first-time health care to over 15,000 home care and 9 child care workers; and

10 WHEREAS, Keith Kelleher was active in several grassroots 11 organizing initiatives, including the Grassroots
12 Collaborative, "Fight for $15" and "United Working Families"; 13 and

14 WHEREAS, Keith Kelleher was active in the "Chicago Jobs and 15 Living Wage Campaign" and the "Big Box Living Wage Campaign" 16 from the 1990s until the 2000s, which led to the increases in 17 the Chicago and Illinois minimum wage and benefitted hundreds 18 of thousands, if not millions, of Chicago and Illinois Workers;
19 and

20 WHEREAS, In recognition of his historic accomplishments in 21 organizing and with the labor movement, Keith Kelleher was

1 elected as an SEIU International Executive Board Vice President
2 from June 2008 until 2017; therefore, be it
