6 any Board rule to the contrary, all persons who meet one of the 8 the date of appointment and during that period may be 9 discharged at the will of the Director. However, the Director

10 may in his or her sole discretion extend the probationary
11 period of an officer up to an additional 6 months when to do so
12 is deemed in the best interest of the Department.

13 (b) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Act, after 14 July 1, 1977 and before July 1, 1980, the Director of State 15 Police may appoint and promote not more than 20 persons having 16 special qualifications as special agents as he deems necessary
17 to carry out the Department's objectives. Any such appointment
18 or promotion shall be ratified by the Board.

19 (c) During the 90 days following the effective date of this 20 amendatory Act of 1995, the Director of State Police may 21 appoint up to 25 persons as State Police officers. These 22 appointments shall be made in accordance with the requirements
23 of this subsection (c) and any additional criteria that may be

25 requirements of this Act. The Director may specify the initial 26 rank for each person appointed under this subsection.

1 All appointments under this subsection (c) shall be made
2 from personnel certified by the Board. A person certified by 3 the Board and appointed by the Director under this subsection
4 must have been employed by the Illinois Commerce Commission on 5 November 30, 1994 in a job title subject to the Personnel Code
6 and in a position for which the person was eligible to earn 7 "eligible creditable service" as a "noncovered employee", as 8 those terms are defined in Article 14 of the Illinois Pension
9 Code.

10 Persons appointed under this subsection (c) shall 11 thereafter be subject to the same requirements and procedures
12 as other State police officers. A person appointed under this 13 subsection must serve a probationary period of 12 months from 14 the date of appointment, during which he or she may be
