Amends the Department of State Police Law of the Civil Administrative Code of Illinois. Provides that the Department of State Police is divided into the Office of the Statewide 9-1-1 Administrator (removes the Illinois State Police Academy) and 5 divisions (rather than 4 divisions): the Division of Patrol (rather than the Division of Operations), the Division of Investigation, the Division of Forensic Services, the Division of Administration, and the Division of Internal Investigation. Provides that for each Division, the Director of State Police shall appoint one Deputy Director and one Assistant Deputy Director. Provides that the position of Deputy Director may be given an appointed rank of Colonel and the Assistant Deputy Director may be given an appointed rank of Lieutenant Colonel. Eliminates the Office of Coordination of Gang Prevention in the Division of Operations. Makes other changes. Effective immediately.

6       Sec. 2605-40. Division of Forensic Services.

7       (a) The Division of Forensic Services shall exercise the 8       following functions:

9               (1) (Blank). ~~Exercise the rights, powers, and duties~~
10              ~~vested by law in the Department by the Criminal~~
11              ~~Identification Act.~~

12              (2) Exercise the rights, powers, and duties vested by 13              law in the Department by Section 2605-300 of this Law.

14              (3) Provide assistance to local law enforcement
15              agencies through training, management, and consultant
16              services.

17              (4) (Blank).

18              (5) Exercise other duties that may be assigned by the 19              Director in order to fulfill the responsibilities and 20              achieve the purposes of the Department.

21              (6) Establish and operate a forensic science
22              laboratory system, including a forensic toxicological
23              laboratory service, for the purpose of testing specimens 24              submitted by coroners and other law enforcement officers in 25              their efforts to determine whether alcohol, drugs, or

1           poisonous or other toxic substances have been involved in 2           deaths, accidents, or illness. Forensic toxicological
3           laboratories shall be established in Springfield, Chicago,
4           and elsewhere in the State as needed.

5           (6.5) Establish administrative rules in order to set 6           forth standardized requirements for the disclosure of 7           toxicology results and other relevant documents related to 8           a toxicological analysis. These administrative rules are 9           to be adopted to produce uniform and sufficient information 10          to allow a proper, well-informed determination of the 11          admissibility of toxicology evidence and to ensure that 12          this evidence is presented competently. These 13          administrative rules are designed to provide a minimum
14          standard for compliance of toxicology evidence and is not 15          intended to limit the production and discovery of material
16          information. These administrative rules shall be submitted
17          by the Department of State Police into the rulemaking
18          process under the Illinois Administrative Procedure Act on 19          or before June 30, 2017.

20          (7) Subject to specific appropriations made for these 21          purposes, establish and coordinate a system for providing 22          accurate and expedited forensic science and other
23          investigative and laboratory services to local law
24          enforcement agencies and local State's Attorneys in aid of 25          the investigation and trial of capital cases.

26          (b) The Director shall appoint one Deputy Director and one

1 Assistant Deputy Director to operate the Division. The position
2 of Deputy Director may be given an appointed rank of Colonel
3 and the Assistant Deputy Director may be given an appointed
4 rank of Lieutenant Colonel.
