

101ST GENERAL ASSEMBLY

State of Illinois

2019 and 2020

HB0324

by Rep. David McSweeney

SYNOPSIS AS INTRODUCED:

5 ILCS 20/2

from Ch. 1, par. 103

Amends the Illinois Constitutional Amendment Act. Provides that when the Secretary of State first publishes a constitutional amendment in a newspaper or newspapers, he or she shall also cause the existing form of the constitutional provision proposed to be amended, the proposed amendment, the explanation of the amendment, the arguments for and against the amendment, and the form in which the amendment will appear on the separate ballot, to be published on a publicly accessible Internet website controlled by the Office of the Secretary of State. Provides that the newspaper or newspapers containing the published amendment shall also provide a link to the amendment information published on the Secretary's Internet website. Provides that the Secretary of State shall not publish, mail, or maintain any pamphlets concerning a proposed constitutional amendment to abolish the Office of the Lieutenant Governor, nor shall the General Assembly be required to provide the language for such a pamphlet explaining a proposed amendment for the abolition of the Office of the Lieutenant Governor. Effective immediately.

LRB101 03986 RJF 48994 b

1 AN ACT concerning government.

2 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,
3 represented in the General Assembly:

4 Section 5. The Illinois Constitutional Amendment Act is 5 amended by changing Section 2 as follows:

6 (5 ILCS 20/2) (from Ch. 1, par. 103)

7 Sec. 2. The General Assembly in submitting an amendment to 8 the Constitution to the electors, or the proponents of an 9 amendment to Article IV of the Constitution submitted by 10 petition, shall prepare a brief explanation of such amendment, 11 a brief argument in favor of the same, and the form in which 12 such amendment will appear on the separate ballot as provided
13 by Section 16-6 of the Election Code, as amended. The minority
14 of the General Assembly, or if there is no minority, anyone
15 designated by the General Assembly shall prepare a brief 16 argument against such amendment. In the case of an amendment to 17 Article IV of the Constitution initiated pursuant to Section 3
18 of Article XIV of the Constitution, the proponents shall be 19 those persons so designated at the time of the filing of the 20 petition as provided in Section 10-8 of the Election Code, and 21 the opponents shall be those members of the General Assembly
22 opposing such amendment, or if there are none, anyone 23 designated by the General Assembly and such opponents shall

1 prepare a brief argument against such amendment. The 2 proponent's explanation and argument in favor of and the 3 opponents argument against an amendment to Article IV initiated
4 by petition must be submitted to the Attorney General, who may 5 rewrite them for accuracy and fairness. The explanation, the 6 arguments for and against each constitutional amendment, and 7 the form in which the amendment will appear on the separate 8 ballot shall be filed in the Office ~~office~~ of the Secretary of 9 State with the proposed amendment. At least one month before 10 the next election of members of the General Assembly, following
11 the passage of the proposed amendment, the Secretary of State 12 shall publish the amendment, in full in 8 point type, or the 13 equivalent thereto, in at least one secular newspaper of 14 general circulation in every county in this State in which a 15 newspaper is published. In counties in which 2 or more
16 newspapers are published, the Secretary of State shall cause
17 such amendment to be published in 2 newspapers. In counties
18 having a population of 500,000 or more, such amendment shall be 19 published in not less than 6 newspapers of general circulation.
20 When the Secretary first publishes the amendment in a newspaper 21 or newspapers under the provisions of this Section, he or she 22 shall also cause the existing form of the constitutional 23 provision proposed to be amended, the proposed amendment, the 24 explanation of the amendment, the arguments for and against the 25 amendment, and the form in which the amendment will appear on 26 the separate ballot, to be published on a publicly accessible

1 Internet website controlled by the Office of the Secretary of 2 State. The newspaper or newspapers containing the published
3 amendment shall also provide a link to the amendment
4 information published on the Secretary's Internet website.

5 After the first publication, the publication of such amendment,
6 including a link to the Secretary's Internet website, shall be

7 repeated once each week for 2 consecutive weeks. In selecting 8 newspapers in which to publish such amendment the Secretary of 9 State shall have regard solely to the circulation of such 10 newspapers, selecting secular newspapers in every case having 11 the largest circulation. The proposed amendment shall have a 12 notice prefixed thereto in said publications, that at such 13 election the proposed amendment will be submitted to the 14 electors for adoption or rejection, and at the end of the 15 official publication, he shall also publish the form in which 16 the proposed amendment will appear on the separate ballot. The 17 Secretary of State shall fix the publication fees to be paid 18 newspapers for making such publication, but in no case shall 19 such publication fee exceed the amount charged by such 20 newspapers to private individuals for a like publication. In 21 addition to the notice hereby required to be published, the 22 Secretary of State shall also cause the existing form of the 23 constitutional provision proposed to be amended, the proposed 24 amendment, the explanation of the same, the arguments for and 25 against the same, and the form in which such amendment will 26 appear on the separate ballot, to be published in pamphlet form

1 in 8 point type or the equivalent thereto; and the Secretary of 2 State shall mail such pamphlet to every mailing address in the 3 State, addressed to the attention of the Postal Patron. He 4 shall also maintain a reasonable supply of such pamphlets so as 5 to make them available to any person requesting one. The 6 Secretary of State shall not, however, publish, mail, or 7 maintain any pamphlets concerning a proposed constitutional 8 amendment to abolish the Office of the Lieutenant Governor, nor 9 shall the General Assembly be required to provide the language 10 for such a pamphlet explaining a proposed amendment for the 11 abolition of the Office of the Lieutenant Governor.

12 (Source: P.A. 98-463, eff. 8-16-13.)

13 Section 99. Effective date. This Act takes effect upon 14 becoming law.