HOUSE RESOLUTION

2

WHEREAS, The U.S. Department of Justice's Bureau of Justice
3 Statistics found that, on average, 20.5 percent of college
4 women have experienced sexual assault since entering college;
5 and

6

WHEREAS, Moreover, the National Sexual Violence Resource
7 Center estimates that more than 60 percent of sexual assaults
8 are never even reported to police; and

9

WHEREAS, To address these issues, the U.S. Department of 10 Education's Office for Civil Rights under the Obama
11 administration issued guidelines that instructed universities
12 that they were obligated to combat sexual assault and 13 harassment under Title IX, a 1972 law prohibiting sex 14 discrimination in federally-funded educational programs; and

15

WHEREAS, The guidelines also established a requirement
16 that college disciplinary proceedings rely on a preponderance 17 of evidence when adjudicating cases of sexual assault; and

18

WHEREAS, In 2017, the Trump administration rescinded these 19 guidelines and announced its intention to engage the federal 20 rulemaking process to establish new rules governing the 21 schools' responsibilities concerning sexual harassment and

1 assault complaints; and

2 WHEREAS, Education Secretary Betsy DeVos released a
3 proposed rule in November 2018 that would narrow the scope of 4 allegations schools will be responsible for investigating and 5 would enable schools to choose a higher legal standard for 6 considering evidence; and

7 WHEREAS, The Education Department received more than 8 100,000 public comments on the proposed rulemaking, which the 9 Department is now reviewing in preparation for issuing a final 10 rule; and

11 WHEREAS, Illinois Attorney General Kwame Raoul joined a 12 coalition of 19 attorneys general in submitting a comment
13 letter urging federal officials to withdraw the proposed rule,
14 as it undermines the anti-discrimination protections of Title
15 IX and weakens protections against sexual harassment and 16 violence for students; and

17 WHEREAS, After passing the Preventing Sexual Violence in 18 Higher Education Act in 2015, Illinois now has one of the 19 strongest state laws to protect student survivors of sexual 20 assault on campus; therefore, be it

21 RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE

1 HUNDRED FIRST GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that 2 we urge Education Secretary Betsy DeVos and the Department of 3 Education to withdraw the proposed rule and instead pursue
4 policies that reflect the concerns raised by law enforcement,
5 create a safe environment for victims to report instances,
6 aggressively address the problem of campus sexual assault and 7 harassment, and broadly address all instances of sexual 8 harassment affecting college students; and be it further

9       RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be 10 delivered to Secretary DeVos.
