1 justice, appointed by the Governor; and

2 (23) one lay citizen, appointed by the Governor.

3 (b) The chair of the Council shall be a citizen member and 4 shall be selected by the Council members. The vice-chair shall 5 be selected by the Council members. If a vacancy occurs in the 6 office of the chair, the vice-chair shall serve as acting
7 chair until the next meeting, at which time a permanent chair
8 shall be selected. If the vice-chair is a member of the council 9 by reason of the holding a governmental position, the 10 vice-chair may only serve as acting chair until a new citizen
11 chair is selected.

12 (c) The council may appoint other officers as designated 13 by the Council.

14 (d) The terms of Council members who are not holders of 15 governmental office or employment shall be for 5 years. The 21 (a) Subject to appropriation, the Council shall employ an 22 Executive Director and staff as necessary to fulfill the 23 purpose of the Council.

24 (b) There shall be a 5-member executive committee to 25 oversee the Executive Director and staff of the Council.

1 (c) There shall be other committees and subcommittees as 2 necessary and determined by the Council.

3 Section 20. Meetings; information sessions.

4 (a) The Council shall meet monthly. Members may 5 participate remotely so long as an in-person quorum is 6 achieved. Each member of the Council shall be a voting member.

7 (b) Meetings may be held by a virtual meeting format
8 during a public health emergency or disaster proclamation
9 declared by the Governor.

10 (c) The Council shall hold public information sessions
11 separate from its regular monthly meeting in communities
12 around Chicago and Cook County. These sessions shall take 13 place at least once a month. In a calendar quarter, at least 14 one session shall be in person, one shall be virtual, and one
15 shall be a hybrid session of in-person and virtual 16 participation.

17 Section 25. Reports.

18 (a) The Council shall produce an annual public report
19 concerning the activities of the Council during the previous 20 calendar year. The report shall be submitted to the Governor,
21 General Assembly, and public no later than April 1 following
22 the end of the prior calendar year.

23 (b) The first report shall be filed on April 1, 2024. The 24 first report shall cover as much of the previous calendar year

1 as the Council operated.

2 Section 30. Funding. The Council shall be funded by 3 appropriations from the General Assembly and may accept 4 federal, State, and local grants for its operations. The 5 Council may accept nonprofit support and funding and 6 appropriations from other units of local government.
