HOUSE RESOLUTION

2

WHEREAS, In 1982, the President's Task Force on Victims of Crime envisioned a national commitment to a more equitable and supportive response to victims; and

3

4

5

WHEREAS, The first Crime Victims Week, later renamed National Crime Victims' Rights Week, was started to celebrate the victims' rights movement; and

6

7

8

WHEREAS, Crime and violence can leave harm on any person and community, regardless of age, national origin, race, creed, religion, gender, sexual orientation, immigration, or economic status; and

9

10

11

12

WHEREAS, A new movement of diverse survivors of crime from communities most harmed and least helped has joined together in Illinois and throughout the country to create healing communities and shape public policy; and 13

15

16

WHEREAS, For too long the voices and experiences of these diverse survivors have been ignored, leading to policies and increased justice system spending that fails to meet the needs of crime victims or stop the cycle of crime; and

17

19

20

WHEREAS, Most victims do not get the kind of help needed to 1 heal; and

2 WHEREAS, Only 8 percent of all victims of violence receive
3 direct assistance from a victim service agency, and this drops
4 to 4 percent when the crime is unreported, which is the case 5 for more than half of all violent crimes; and

6 WHEREAS, Crime survivors know best about the existing gaps 7 to recovery and how to bridge them and understand what their 8 communities need to be healthy and safe; and

9 WHEREAS, Crime survivors want a safety and justice system 10 that works and prioritizes prevention, rehabilitation, and 11 trauma recovery; and

12 WHEREAS, With the unwavering support of their communities,
13 survivors are empowered to face their grief, loss, fear, 14 anger, and hope, turning their healing into action; and

15 WHEREAS, Providing services that help victims and their 16 communities recover stops the cycle of harm and supports 17 thriving communities; and

18 WHEREAS, It is essential for crime survivors to have input 19 and influence in discussions of public safety and criminal 20 justice policy; and

1 WHEREAS, National Crime Victims' Rights Week, marked this 2 year from April 24 to April 30, 2022, provides an opportunity 3 to recommit to ensuring that all victims of crime, especially 4 those who are from communities most impacted by crime, are 5 policy stakeholders and are provided with what they need to 6 recover; and

7 WHEREAS, Crime Survivors for Safety and Justice, a 8 flagship project of Alliance for Safety and Justice, is 9 dedicated to supporting the healing of survivors and the 10 leadership they can provide to build safer and healthier 11 communities; and

12 WHEREAS, Survivors Speak, a yearly gathering during 13 National Crime Victims' Rights Week, elevates the voices of 14 diverse crime survivors to ensure their experiences shape
15 public safety and justice policies; therefore, be it

16 RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE
17 HUNDRED SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that 18 we commend the work being done by Crime Survivors for Safety 19 and Justice to prevent people from becoming victims and to 20 assist all survivors in the recovery from crime and trauma;
21 and be it further

1 RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be 2 presented to Crime Survivors for Safety and Justice.
