11 tree, shrub, timber, plant, or natural object in any park
12 or parkway, except that the Department of Natural
13 Resources may, by administrative rule, authorize edible
14 fungi, nut, and berry collection in those areas of 15 Department owned, leased, or managed lands where the 16 collecting would not be in conflict or incompatible with 17 (i) Department of Natural Resources natural resource 18 management or recreational programs for that area and (ii)
19 the Natural Areas Preservation Act;

20 (2) kill, cause to be killed, or pursue with intent to 21 kill any bird or animal in a park or parkway, provided that 22 the Department of Natural Resources may by administrative 23 order authorize hunting in those areas of state parks

1 where such hunting would not be in conflict or 2 incompatible with Department of Natural Resources
3 recreational programs for that area;

4 (3) take any fish from the waters of any park or 5 parkway, contrary to the rules and regulations of the 6 Department of Natural Resources;

8 guide post, notice, tablet, fence, enclosure or work for 9 the protection or ornamentation of any park or parkway;

10 (5) light any fire upon any park or parkway, except in 11 an authorized place or places or wilfully or carelessly 12 permit any fire which he has lighted or caused to be 13 lighted, or which shall be under his charge, to spread or 14 extend to or burn any shrubbery, trees, timber, ornaments,
15 or improvements upon any State park, nature preserve or 16 parkways, or leave any camp fires which he shall have 17 lighted or caused to be lighted, or which shall have been 18 left in his charge, unattended by a competent person;

19 (6) place within any park or parkway or affix to any 20 object therein contained, any work, character, or device
21 designed to advertise any business, profession, article,
22 thing, exhibition, matter or event;

23 (7) violate any rule or regulation adopted and 24 published by the Department of Natural Resources pursuant 25 to the provisions of this Act.

26 A person who violates this Section shall, for each

1 offense, be guilty of a Class B misdemeanor.
