SENATE RESOLUTION

2

WHEREAS, Bulgaria and the United States are strategic partners and allies, sharing ties of culture, tradition, and common interest; and

3

WHEREAS, The year 2023 marks the 20th anniversary of the United States Senate's ratification of the Protocol for Accession of Bulgaria into the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO), the 80th anniversary of the Bulgarian people's rescue of the Bulgarian Jews, the 120th anniversary of the establishment of diplomatic relations between the United States and Bulgaria, and the 145th anniversary of the liberation of Bulgaria; and

6

8

9

10

11

12

13

WHEREAS, The first Bulgarian emigrants to Illinois arrived in the second half of the 19th century; and

14

15

WHEREAS, Granite City hosts the oldest Bulgarian American community in the United States; and

16

WHEREAS, The prominent Bulgarian American banker, Henry Krantzhev, served as the president of the Granite City Trust and Savings Bank and as the president of the Masonic Temple Association, receiving the title of Scoutmaster; and

18

20

1 WHEREAS, The first Bulgarian emigrants to Chicago, who 2 began to arrive as early as the 1870s, were students sent by 3 American protestant missionaries for study in the United 4 States; and

5 WHEREAS, While most of these students returned to 6 Bulgaria, some remained and created a Bulgarian American 7 community in Illinois; and

8 WHEREAS, Bulgaria was admitted into and permitted to 9 display an exhibit at the 1893 World's Columbian Exposition in 10 Chicago, an event hailed by the Chicago Tribune as the first
11 diplomatic recognition accorded to Bulgaria as an independent 12 state; and

13 WHEREAS, Aleko Konstantinov, a famous Bulgarian writer, 14 recounted his journey to the World's Columbian Exposition in 15 Chicago in his book, To Chicago and Back, which became 16 instrumental in encouraging generations of Bulgarians to 17 emigrate to Chicago; and

18 WHEREAS, Tens of thousands of Bulgarians arrived in the 19 United States from the geographic region of Macedonia at the 20 beginning of the 20th century, pursuing freedom and fleeing 21 the devastation and horrors occasioned by regional unrest; and

1 WHEREAS, The first Bulgarian Mission with its own priest
2 was established in Madison in 1907; and

3 WHEREAS, Madison is home to Illinois' oldest Bulgarian
4 Orthodox Church, Holy Trinity, built by Macedonian Bulgarians
5 with the current church building existing since 1910; and

6 WHEREAS, The Granite City Bulgarian community published
7 the first Bulgarian newspaper in the United States, the Vox
8 Populi, or Voice of the People, from 1907 to 1950; other
9 Bulgarians newspapers, such as the New World (1908-1909),
10 Emigrant (1909), Freedom (1914-1917), Macedonian Tribune
11 (1927-present), and others, followed in its wake; and

12 WHEREAS, Stoyan Yurukov became the first Bulgarian pilot
13 to fly in the skies above Chicago in 1912, charting the course
14 for many other Bulgarian pilots who have lived and worked in 15 the Windy City; and

16 WHEREAS, Bulgarian emigrants from the region of Macedonia
17 founded the Macedonian Patriotic Organization in 1922; the 18 organization continues to work for human, civil, and economic 19 rights of all individuals, regardless of ethnicity, who hail 20 from the geographic region; and

21 WHEREAS, Assen Hristov Jordanoff, a Bulgarian American

1 engineer and pilot, emigrated to the United States after World
2 War I, becoming one of the fathers of civil aviation in the 3 United States; and

4 WHEREAS, The Macedonian Bulgarian Stoyan Christowe, a
5 journalist for the Chicago Daily News, wrote a book titled 6 This is My Country, a semi-autographical book about the 7 immigrants arriving in the United States from southeast Europe
8 at the beginning of the 20th century and a book found on the 9 bedside table of President Franklin D. Roosevelt at the time 10 of his death; and

11 WHEREAS, John V. Atansoff, a Bulgarian American, created 12 the first automatic electronic digital computer in 1939, an 13 invention for which he was presented the National Medal for 14 Science and Technology by President George H. W. Bush in 1990; 15 and

16 WHEREAS, In the Spring of 1943, the Bulgarian people
17 resisted Nazi pressure to deport Bulgarian Jews to Nazi 18 concentration camps and, in doing so, rescued approximately 19 50,000 Bulgarian Jews from the worst terrors of the Nazi 20 regime; and

21 WHEREAS, Illinois became a safe haven for many Bulgarian
22 political dissidents and refugees, fleeing from the repressive

1 terrors of communism; and

2 WHEREAS, The fall of the Berlin Wall and the following
3 dissolution of the Soviet Union freed the Bulgarian people to 4 proclaim and institute a democratic and multiparty political 5 system; and

6 WHEREAS, In 1960, Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley
7 proclaimed March 3 (Bulgarian Liberation Day) as Bulgaria Day
8 in Chicago, instituting an annual Bulgarian flag-raising
9 ceremony at Daley Plaza in Chicago that continues until this 10 day; and

11 WHEREAS, The Chicago metropolitan area is today considered 12 the home of the largest Bulgarian diaspora; and

13 WHEREAS, The two Bulgarian Eastern Orthodox Churches in 14 the Chicago metropolitan area, St. Sophia (established in 15 1938) and St. John of Rila (established in 1996), along with 16 the Bulgarian Evangelical Church (New Life), serve as social 17 and religious centers, maintaining Bulgarian culture and 18 traditions; and

19 WHEREAS, Illinois is home to 13 Bulgarian Sunday Schools
20 that perpetuate Bulgarian language, culture, and history in 21 our communities; and

1 WHEREAS, Bulgarian Americans have greatly enriched the 2 cultural, technological, and civic life of Illinois,
3 contributing through their cultural centers, schools,
4 churches, dance groups, businesses, and other civic 5 organizations to the social, cultural, civil, and economic 6 development of the State of Illinois; therefore, be it

7 RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED THIRD GENERAL
8 ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we send our warmest
9 congratulations and best wishes to the people of the Republic
10 of Bulgaria as they celebrate the 145th anniversary of their 11 liberation on March 3, 2023; and be it further

12 RESOLVED, That we confirm the rich friendship that binds
13 our peoples together; and be it further

14 RESOLVED, That we declare March of 2023 as Bulgarian
15 American Heritage Month in the State of Illinois; and be it
16 further

17 RESOLVED, That suitable copies of this resolution be 18 delivered to the Consul General of the Republic of Bulgaria in 19 Chicago, President Joe Biden, and all members of the Illinois
20 Congressional Delegation.
