- 2 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,
- 3 represented in the General Assembly:
- 4 Section 5. The Criminal Code of 1961 is amended by
- 5 changing 12-3.2 as follows:
- 6 (720 ILCS 5/12-3.2) (from Ch. 38, par. 12-3.2)
- 7 Sec. 12-3.2. Domestic Battery.
- 8 (a) A person commits domestic battery if he
- 9 intentionally or knowingly without legal justification by any
- 10 means:
- 11 (1) Causes bodily harm to any family or household
- member as defined in subsection (3) of Section 112A-3 of
- the Code of Criminal Procedure of 1963, as amended;
- 14 (2) Makes physical contact of an insulting or
- 15 provoking nature with any family or household member as
- defined in subsection (3) of Section 112A-3 of the Code
- of Criminal Procedure of 1963, as amended.
- 18 (b) Sentence. Domestic battery is a Class A
- 19 Misdemeanor. Domestic battery is a Class 4 felony if the
- 20 defendant has any prior conviction under this Code for
- 21 domestic battery (Section 12-3.2) or violation of an order of
- 22 $\,$ protection (Section 12-30). Domestic battery is a Class 4 $\,$
- 23 felony if the defendant has any prior conviction under this
- 24 Code for first degree murder (Section 9-1), attempt to commit
- 25 first degree murder (Section 8-4), aggravated domestic

4 10-2), predatory criminal sexual assault of a child (Section

5 12-14.1), aggravated criminal sexual abuse (Section 12-16),

6 unlawful restraint (Section 10-3), aggravated unlawful

7 restraint (Section 10-3.1), aggravated arson (Section

8 20-1.1), or aggravated discharge of a firearm (Section

9 24-1.2), when any of these offenses have been committed against a family or household member as defined in Section

11 112A-3 of the Code of Criminal Procedure of 1963. In addition to any other sentencing alternatives, for any second conviction of violating this Section within 5 years of a previous conviction for violating this Section, the offender shall be mandatorily sentenced to a minimum of 48 consecutive

16 hours of imprisonment. The imprisonment shall not be subject

17 to suspension, nor shall the person be eligible for probation in order to reduce the sentence.

19 (c) Domestic battery committed in the presence of a 20 child. In addition to any other sentencing alternatives, a 21 defendant who commits, in the presence of a child, a felony 22 domestic battery (enhanced under subsection (b)), aggravated 23 domestic battery (Section 12-3.3), aggravated battery (Section 12-4), unlawful restraint (Section 10-3), 24 25 aggravated unlawful restraint (Section 10-3.1) against a family or household member, as defined in Section 112A-3 of 26 the Code of Criminal Procedure of 1963, shall be required to 27 serve a mandatory minimum imprisonment of 10 days or perform 28 29 300 hours of community service, or both. The defendant shall 30 further be liable for the cost of any counseling required for the child at the discretion of the court in accordance with 31 subsection (b) of Section 5-5-6 of the Unified Code of 32 Corrections. For purposes of this Section, "child" means a 33 34 person under 16 years of age who--is--the--defendant's--or

- 11 Section 10. The Unified Code of Corrections is amended
- 12 by changing Section 5-5-6 as follows:
- 13 (730 ILCS 5/5-5-6) (from Ch. 38, par. 1005-5-6)
- 14 Sec. 5-5-6. In all convictions for offenses in violation
- of the Criminal Code of 1961 in which the person received any
- injury to their person or damage to their real or personal
- 17 property as a result of the criminal act of the defendant,
- 18 the court shall order restitution as provided in this
- 19 Section. In all other cases, except cases in which
- 20 restitution is required under this Section, the court must at the sentence hearing determine whether restitution is an

- 23 convicted of an offense. If the court determines that an
- 24 order directing the offender to make restitution is
- 25 appropriate, the offender may be sentenced to make
- 26 restitution. If the offender is sentenced to make restitution
- 27 the Court shall determine the restitution as hereinafter set
- 28 forth:

21

- 29 (a) At the sentence hearing, the court shall
- determine whether the property may be restored in kind to

of sufficient skill to repair and restore property damaged; or whether the defendant should be required to make restitution in cash, for out-of-pocket expenses, damages, losses, or injuries found to have been proximately caused by the conduct of the defendant or another for whom the defendant is legally accountable under the provisions of Article V of the Criminal Code of 1961.

In fixing the amount of restitution to be paid in cash, the court shall allow credit for property returned in kind, for property damages ordered to be repaired by the defendant, and for property ordered to be restored by the defendant; and after granting the credit, the court shall assess the actual out-of-pocket expenses, losses, damages, and injuries suffered by the victim named in the charge and any other victims who may also have suffered out-of-pocket expenses, losses, damages, and injuries proximately caused by the same criminal conduct of the defendant, and insurance carriers who have indemnified the named victim or other victims for the out-of-pocket expenses, losses, damages, or injuries, provided that in no event shall restitution be ordered to be paid on account of pain and suffering. If a defendant is placed on supervision for, or convicted of, domestic battery, the defendant shall be required restitution to any domestic violence shelter in which the victim and any other family or household members lived because of the domestic battery. The amount of the restitution shall equal the actual expenses of domestic violence shelter in providing housing and any other services for the victim and any other family or household members living at the shelter. If a defendant fails to pay restitution in the manner or within the time period specified by the court, the court may enter an order directing the sheriff to seize any real or personal property of a defendant to the extent necessary to satisfy the order of restitution and dispose of the property by public sale. All proceeds from such sale in excess of the amount of restitution plus court costs and the costs of the sheriff in conducting the sale shall be paid to the defendant. The defendant convicted of an offense listed in subsection (c) of Section 12-3.2 of the Criminal Code of 1961 demestic-battery, if a person under 16 18 years of age who-is-the-child-ef-the-effender-er-ef the--victim was present and witnessed the offense against demestic-battery--ef the victim, is liable to pay restitution for the cost of any counseling required for the child at the discretion of the court.

- (c) In cases where more than one defendant is accountable for the same criminal conduct that results in out-of-pocket expenses, losses, damages, or injuries, each defendant shall be ordered to pay restitution in the amount of the total actual out-of-pocket expenses, losses, damages, or injuries to the victim proximately caused by the conduct of all of the defendants who are legally accountable for the offense.
 - (1) In no event shall the victim be entitled to recover restitution in excess of the actual out-of-pocket expenses, losses, damages, or injuries, proximately caused by the conduct of all of the defendants.
 - (2) As between the defendants, the court may apportion the restitution that is payable in proportion to each co-defendant's culpability in the commission of the offense.
 - (3) In the absence of a specific order apportioning the restitution, each defendant shall bear his pro rata share of the restitution.

- (4) As between the defendants, each defendant shall be entitled to a pro rata reduction in the total restitution required to be paid to the victim for amounts of restitution actually paid by co-defendants, and defendants who shall have paid more than their pro rata share shall be entitled to refunds to be computed by the court as additional amounts are paid by co-defendants.
 - (d) In instances where a defendant has more than one criminal charge pending against him in a single case, or more than one case, and the defendant stands convicted of one or more charges, a plea agreement negotiated by the State's Attorney and the defendants may require the defendant to make restitution to victims of charges that have been dismissed or which it is contemplated will be dismissed under the terms of the plea agreement, and under the agreement, the court may impose a sentence of restitution on the charge or charges of which the defendant has been convicted that would require the defendant to make restitution to victims of other offenses as provided in the plea agreement.
 - (e) The court may require the defendant to apply the balance of the cash bond, after payment of court costs, and any fine that may be imposed to the payment of restitution.
 - (f) Taking into consideration the ability of the defendant to pay, the court shall determine whether restitution shall be paid in a single payment or in installments, and shall fix a period of time not in excess of 5 years, not including periods of incarceration, within which payment of restitution is to be paid in full. Complete restitution shall be paid in as short a time period as possible. However, if the court deems it necessary and in the best interest of the

- (g) The court shall, after determining that the defendant has the ability to pay, require the defendant to pay for the victim's counseling services if:
 - (1) the defendant was convicted of an offense under Sections 11-19.2, 11-20.1, 12-13, 12-14, 12-14.1, 12-15 or 12-16 of the Criminal Code of 1961, or was charged with such an offense and the charge was reduced to another charge as a result of a plea agreement under subsection (d) of this Section, and
 - (2) the victim was under 18 years of age at the time the offense was committed and requires counseling as a result of the offense.

The payments shall be made by the defendant to the clerk of the circuit court and transmitted by the clerk to the appropriate person or agency as directed by the court. The order may require such payments to be made for a period not to exceed 5 years after sentencing, not including periods of incarceration.

- (h) The judge may enter an order of withholding to collect the amount of restitution owed in accordance with Part 8 of Article XII of the Code of Civil Procedure.
- (i) A sentence of restitution may be modified or revoked by the court if the offender commits another offense, or the offender fails to make restitution as ordered by the court, but no sentence to make restitution

1	Section	27.5	of	the	Clerks	of	Courts	Act.

- 2 (m) A restitution order under this Section is a 3 judgment lien in favor of the victim that:
- 4 (1) Attaches to the property of the person 5 subject to the order;
- 6 (2) May be perfected in the same manner as
 7 provided in Part 3 of Article 9 of the Uniform
 8 Commercial Code;
 - (3) May be enforced to satisfy any payment that is delinquent under the restitution order by the person in whose favor the order is issued or the person's assignee; and
 - (4) Expires in the same manner as a judgment lien created in a civil proceeding.

When a restitution order is issued under this Section, the issuing court shall send a certified copy of the order to the clerk of the circuit court in the county where the charge was filed. Upon receiving the order, the clerk shall enter and index the order in the circuit court judgment docket.

- (n) An order of restitution under this Section does not bar a civil action for:
- (1) Damages that the court did not require the person to pay to the victim under the restitution order but arise from an injury or property damages that is the basis of restitution ordered by the court; and
- 28 (2) Other damages suffered by the victim.
- The restitution order is not discharged by the completion of the sentence imposed for the offense.

A restitution order under this Section is not discharged by the liquidation of a person's estate by a receiver. A restitution order under this Section may be enforced in the same manner as judgment liens are enforced under Article XII

- of the Code of Civil Procedure.
- 2 The provisions of Section 2-1303 of the Code of Civil
- 3 Procedure, providing for interest on judgments, apply to
- 4 judgments for restitution entered under this Section.
